PALO ALTO, Calif., Nov. 12, 2001 Agilent Technologies Inc. (NYSE: A) today announced that Robert Walker, executive vice president and chief financial officer, has decided to leave the company in order to explore a range of career possibilities and personal interests. Adrian Dillon, who had been executive vice president and chief financial and planning officer at Eaton Corporation (NYSE: ETN), will join Agilent as executive vice president and CFO. In order to ensure a smooth transition, Walker will continue in his current role until Dillon assumes his new responsibilities in early December. The company said that no business, competitive or financial-reporting issues played any role in Walker's decision.
