COMPUTER MOTION ANNOUNCES RECORD FIRST QUARTER REVENUE

First Quarter 2003 Earnings Conference Call Scheduled For Today, Thursday, April 24th at 2:30 p.m. PT; Simultaneous Webcast Available at www.ComputerMotion.com

Santa Barbara, Calif., April 24, 2003 Computer Motion, Inc. (Nasdaq: RBOT) today announced record revenue results for the first quarter ending March 31, 2003. Revenues for the quarter totaled $7,011,000 as compared to $5,691,000 recorded in the first quarter ended March 31, 2002, up 23%. Gross profit for the first quarter 2003 increased by 40% to $4,271,000 from $3,046,000 for the first quarter of 2002. Computer Motion achieved a 61% gross margin in the first quarter of 2003.

We are excited about our record first quarter results and the sale of the first ZEUS® Surgical System in Latin America. Computer Motion continues to drive global presence and utilization of our robotic surgical systems, stated Bob Duggan, Chairman and CEO of Computer Motion.

For Computer Motion's first quarter 2003 financial statements, the company recorded a litigation provision of $3,039,000 and a merger expense incurred of $544,000. The litigation provision is comprised of the company's intellectual property litigation expenses. Furthermore, all legal matters have been stayed pending the completion of the company's announced merger agreement with Intuitive Surgical, Inc. The merger expenses are the costs recorded in association with the proposed merger between Intuitive Surgical and Computer Motion.

Edgar Filing: COMPUTER MOTION INC - Form 425

Net loss per share for the first quarter of 2003 totaled $0.52 as compared to $0.65 for the first quarter of 2002.

Computer Motion ended the first quarter of 2003 with $3,567,000 in cash. The $7,300,000 working capital line from Intuitive Surgical has not been drawn down upon.

Intuitive Surgical and Computer Motion continue to expect to close the proposed merger by the end of June 2003. Currently, planning for the post-merger transition is underway and the companies expect to meet the estimated $18 million in annual operating pre-tax cost savings. The outlook for the combined entity is to record between $110 and $130 million of 2003 revenue on a pro forma basis. The companies are targeting profitability by the fourth quarter of 2003 for the combined entity, excluding amortization of intangible assets and one-time charges associated with the merger. The companies are analyzing possible post-merger plans to enhance the efficiency and productivity of a merged company. While no final decisions have been made, the companies are considering various post-merger opportunities including the consolidation of manufacturing and administrative functions at corporate headquarters, maintaining an engineering presence in multiple locations, and creating a single sales and service force to cost-effectively serve and support customers world-wide.

Computer Motion will host a conference call to discuss its first quarter 2003 earnings today, April 24th, 2003 at 2:30 p.m. PT. To participate, please call 800-937-6983, or 706-679-5457, and ask to be connected to the Computer Motion First Quarter 2003 Earnings Conference Call.
