Mr. Nurthen, age 40, has served as Chief Financial Officer of Cabrera Capital Markets, LLC, an investment bank and full service institutional brokerage firm, since January 2011. From July 2008 to January 2011, Mr. Nurthen was Chief Financial Officer of BioLytical Laboratories Inc., a medical diagnostics firm. From 1999 to December 2007, he served in positions of increasing responsibility, including Chief Financial Officer, of Inforte Corp., a CRM, business intelligence and analytics consulting firm. Mr. Nurthen currently serves as an advisory board member of Sakonent Partners LLC, a CRM consulting firm.

In connection with his employment, on November 19, 2013, the Company entered into an Employment Agreement and a Change of Control Agreement with Mr. Nurthen, each dated as of November 15, 2013. The term of Mr. Nurthen's employment under the Employment Agreement is for an indefinite period and may be terminated by either party at any time and for any reason or for no reason upon written notice to the other party. The Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Nurthen will receive an annual salary of $225,000, subject to annual review by the Company's President and/or Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Nurthen will be eligible to participate in the Company's Management Incentive Bonus Plan as determined from time to time by the Compensation Committee, under which the annualized amount he would currently be eligible to receive if 100% of plan targets were met would be $75,000. He will also be entitled to participate in the Company's Long-Term Equity Bonus Plan, and to receive perquisites and benefits provided by the Company to its senior executives, subject to applicable eligibility criteria.

In the event that Mr. Nurthen is terminated without cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement) or in connection with Mr. Nurthen's death or disability, or if Mr. Nurthen resigns his employment with the Company for good reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement), the Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Nurthen will have the right to receive any unpaid base salary and any earned but unpaid bonus due to him as of the effective date of the termination. In addition, in the event of a termination without cause or for good reason, Mr. Nurthen will be entitled (contingent upon his execution of a severance agreement) to receive his base salary as then in effect for nine months following the effective date of the termination and a pro rated bonus payment. If Mr. Nurthen is terminated for cause or if he resigns his employment with the Company without good reason, he will have the right to receive any unpaid base salary with respect to the period prior to the date of termination and any earned but unpaid bonus due to him as of the effective date of termination. The Employment Agreement also contains customary confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation and other provisions.

In connection with the commencement of his employment, Mr. Nurthen will also receive a signing bonus of $10,000, subject to prorated reimbursement if Mr. Nurthen's employment would be terminated for any reason prior to his one-year anniversary, as well as $1,500 per month for temporary living expenses, not including meals and other incidentals, for up to six months. Mr. Nurthen will receive options to purchase 75,000 shares of the Company's common stock, subject to shareholder approval of additional funding of the Company's 2010 Equity Incentive Plan at the 2014 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The options will vest on an annual basis in four equal installments commencing on July 31, 2014.

Under the Change of Control Agreement, Mr. Nurthen will receive his full base salary through the date of termination and severance benefits equal to two times the sum of his salary and targeted bonus, medical and dental plan continuation for two years, and acceleration and immediate vesting of his stock options if, within two years following a Change of Control, his employment is terminated without cause or by the executive for good reason, as such terms are defined in the Change of Control Agreement.

The foregoing descriptions of the Employment Agreement and the Change of Control Agreement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the text of the Employment Agreement and the Change of Control Agreement, which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

Separation from Service of Darin R. Janecek

On November 18, 2013 (the Separation Date), Darin R. Janecek, Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer of ARI Network Services, Inc. (the Company), separated from service in all of his positions with the Company and its subsidiaries. In connection with the separation, on November 22, 2013, the Company entered into a Separation Agreement with Mr. Janecek. Under the Separation Agreement, Mr. Janecek will receive his regular base wages through the Separation Date and payment for any accrued vacation that remained unused as of the Separation Date. If approved by the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors, Mr. Janecek will also receive the bonus, if any, earned by him for the first quarter of fiscal year 2014, at the same time as first-quarter bonus payments are made to other officers of the Company. The Separation Agreement is subject to a customary revocation period of seven calendar days. If Mr. Janecek does not exercise his revocation rights under the Separation Agreement, and in consideration of certain undertakings made by Mr. Janecek in the Separation Agreement, the Company will pay him as severance an amount equal to 24 weeks of his regular base wages, payable in equal installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll practices and subject to normal deductions for income and employment taxes; and he will be permitted to exercise his previously vested options to purchase 77,500 shares of the Company's common stock until February 14, 2014. Unvested options held by Mr. Janecek as of the Separation Date were forfeited as of the Separation Date and are not exercisable.

The Separation Agreement contains customary releases, undertakings and confidentiality and non-solicitation provisions; a two-year non-compete provision; and other customary conditions and representations. The Separation Agreement supersedes all prior agreements between the Company and Mr. Janecek, including, without limitation, the Employment Agreement between the Company and Mr. Janecek dated as of November 10, 2010.

The foregoing description of the Separation Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Separation Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.3 and incorporated herein by reference.

RECITALS

The Company desires to employ Executive in the position of Chief Financial Officer, and Executive desires to be so employed by the Company, on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

As a result of Executive s employment with the Company as Chief Financial Officer, Executive will have access to and be entrusted with valuable information about the Company s business and customers, including trade secrets and confidential information.

The Parties believe it is in their best interests to make provision for certain aspects of their relationship during and after the period in which Executive is employed by the Company.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and the mutual agreements and covenants contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the Company and Executive (collectively, Parties and individually, Party), the Parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

EMPLOYMENT

1.1

Position and Duties. During the term of Executive's employment under this Agreement, Executive shall hold the position of Chief Financial Officer of the Company and shall be subject to the authority of, and shall report to, the President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Company. Executive's duties and responsibilities as Chief Financial Officer shall include all those customarily attendant to such position and other duties and responsibilities as may be assigned from time to time by the Company's President and/or CEO. At all times, Executive shall devote Executive's entire business time, attention and energies exclusively to the business interests of the Company while employed by the Company, except as otherwise specifically approved in writing by or on behalf of the President and/or CEO.

1.2

At-Will Employment. The term of Executive's employment under this Agreement shall be for an indefinite period and may be terminated by either Party at any time and for any reason or no reason upon written notice to the other Party.

ARTICLE II

COMPENSATION AND OTHER BENEFITS

Base Salary. During the term of Executive's employment under this Agreement, the Company shall pay Executive an annual salary of Two Hundred Twenty-five Thousand dollars ($225,000) (Base Salary), payable in accordance with the normal payroll practices and schedule of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Base Salary shall be subject to annual review by the President and/or CEO and shall be subject to increase, but not decrease, based on the recommendation of the President and/or CEO as approved by the Board of Directors of the Company (Board); provided, however, that the Company may reduce Executive s Base Salary if (a) Executive s Base Salary is reduced as part of a general reduction in the base salaries for all executive officers of the Company or (b) Executive s Base Salary is reduced for Cause (defined below), and Executive acknowledges and agrees that any reduction in Base Salary due to the circumstances specified in Section 2.1(a) or (b), above, shall not constitute Good Reason (as defined in Section 3.1(f), below).

Bonuses. During the term of Executive s employment under this Agreement, Executive will be eligible to participate in the Company s Management Incentive Bonus Plan (Bonus Plan), the specifics of which are determined from time to time by the Compensation Committee of the Board (Compensation Committee) and approved by the Board. The Parties acknowledge and agree that, under the Company s current Bonus Plan, the annualized bonus amount which Executive would be eligible to receive if one hundred percent (100%) of such Bonus Plan targets were met would be Seventy-five Thousand dollars ($75,000). Executive will also be eligible to participate in the Company s Long Term Equity Bonus Plan. Executive acknowledges and agrees that these Bonus Plans may be changed from time to time at the discretion of the Compensation Committee as approved by the Board.

2.3

Equity. During the term of Executive s employment under this Agreement, Executive also shall be eligible to participate in stock option and equity plans and grants, if any, that are offered to senior executive/officer employees of the Company, as determined by the Compensation Committee and approved by the Board from time to time.

2.4

Perquisites, Benefits and Other Compensation. During the term of Executive s employment under this Agreement, and subject to the express provisions of this Article II, Executive will be entitled to receive perquisites and benefits provided by the Company to its senior executive employees, subject to the eligibility criteria related to such perquisites and benefits, and to such changes, additions, or deletions to such perquisites and benefits as the Company may make from time to time, as well as such other perquisites or benefits as may be specified from time to time at the sole discretion of the Board.

ARTICLE III

TERMINATION

3.1

Termination Not In Connection With A Change In Control.

Termination Without Cause. Subject to Section 3.2, below, the President and/or CEO may terminate Executive's employment and all of the Company's obligations under this Agreement (except as provided in Section 10.5, below, and as required by law) at any time without Cause (defined below).

(b)

Termination For Cause. Subject to Section 3.2, below, the President and/or CEO may terminate Executive's employment and all of the Company's obligations under this Agreement (except as provided in Section 10.5, below, and as required by law) at any time for Cause (defined below) by giving written notice to Executive stating the basis for such termination, effective immediately upon giving such notice or at such other time thereafter as the President and/or CEO may designate.

Cause shall mean any of the following: (1) Executive has, in a material way, breached this Agreement or the fiduciary duty he owes to the Company or any other legal obligation or duty he owes to the Company, which breach remains uncured, if possible to cure, to the reasonable satisfaction of the President and/or CEO for thirty (30) calendar days after Executive receives written notice thereof from the President and/or CEO that specifies in reasonable detail the alleged breach; (2) Executive has committed gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of Executive's duties for the Company; (3) Executive has failed in a material way to follow reasonable instructions from the President and/or CEO, consistent with this Agreement, concerning the operations or business of the Company, which failure remains uncured, if possible to cure, to the reasonable satisfaction of the President and/or CEO for thirty (30) calendar days after Executive receives written notice thereof from the President and/or CEO that specifies in reasonable detail the alleged failure; (4) Executive has committed a crime the circumstances of which substantially relate to Executive's employment duties with the Company; (5) Executive has misappropriated or embezzled funds or property of the Company or engaged in any act of dishonesty that involves the business of the Company or causes material damage to the Company; and (6) Executive attempts to misappropriate or misappropriates a corporate opportunity of the Company, unless the transaction was approved in writing by the President and/or CEO after full disclosure of all details relating to such transaction.

(c)

Termination by Death or Disability. Subject to Section 3.2, below, Executive's employment and all of the Company's obligations under this Agreement (except as provided in Section 10.5, below, and as required by law) shall terminate automatically, effective immediately and without any notice being necessary, upon Executive's death or a determination of Disability of Executive. For purposes of this Agreement, Disability means the inability of Executive, due to a physical or mental impairment, to perform the essential functions of Executive's job with the Company, with or without a reasonable accommodation, for ninety (90) consecutive business days or one hundred twenty (120) business days in the aggregate during any 365-day period. A determination of Disability shall be made by the President and/or CEO and/or the Board, which may, at their sole discretion, consult with a physician or physicians satisfactory to the President and/or CEO and/or the Board, and Executive shall cooperate with any efforts to make such determination. Any such determination shall be conclusive and binding on the Parties. Any determination of Disability under this Section 3.1(c) is not intended to alter any benefits any Party may be entitled to receive under any long-term disability insurance policy carried by either the Company or Executive with respect to Executive, which benefits shall be governed solely by the terms of any such insurance policy.

(d)

Termination by Retirement. Subject to Section 3.2, below, Executive's employment and all of the Company's obligations under this Agreement (except as provided in Section 10.5, below, and as required by law) shall terminate automatically, effective upon Executive's retirement in accordance with the Company's retirement plan or policy should a retirement plan or policy for senior executives of the Company be adopted.

Termination by Resignation. Subject to Paragraph 3.2, below, Executive's employment and all of the Company's obligations under this Agreement (except as provided in Section 10.5, below, and as required by law) shall terminate automatically, effective immediately upon Executive's provision of thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the President and/or CEO of resignation from employment with the Company or at such other time as may be mutually agreed between the Parties following the provision of such notice.

Subject to Section 3.2, below, Executive may terminate his employment and all of the Company's obligations under this Agreement (except as provided in Section 10.5, below, and as required by law) for Good Reason (defined below). A termination shall only be for Good Reason if: (1) within ninety (90) calendar days of the initial existence of Good Reason, Executive provides written notice of Good Reason to the President and/or CEO; (2) the Company does not remedy said Good Reason within thirty (30) calendar days of its receipt of such notice; and (3) Executive terminates his employment effective any time after the expiration of such 30-day remedy period prior to the date that is two (2) years after the initial existence of Good Reason. Good Reason shall mean the occurrence of any of the following without the written consent of Executive: (a) the Company has breached this Agreement in a material way, which breach remains uncured, if subject to cure, for thirty (30) calendar days after the President and/or CEO receives written notice thereof from Executive; (b) a material diminution in Executive's Base Salary; (c) a material diminution in Executive's authority, duties, or responsibilities; or (d) a material change in the geographic location at which Executive must perform his services, provided such new location is more than fifty (50) miles from the location where Executive is required to perform services prior to the change.

Rights Upon Termination Not In Connection With A Change In Control.

Section 3.1(a), Section 3.1(c) and Section 3.1(f) Termination. If Executive's employment is terminated pursuant to Section 3.1(a), Section 3.1(c), or Section 3.1(f), above, Executive or Executive's estate shall have no further rights against the Company hereunder, except for the right to receive the following: (1) any unpaid Base Salary with respect to the period prior to the effective date of termination and (2) any earned but unpaid bonus due to Executive as of the effective date of termination. With respect to a termination pursuant to Section 3.1(a) or Section 3.1(f), above, Executive shall also receive (1) Executive's Base Salary, at the rate in effect at the time of termination, for nine (9) months following the effective date of termination; (2) a bonus for the fiscal year of the Company in which such termination occurs, which bonus shall be equal to (A) the product of (i) the average of Executive's annual bonus received pursuant to the Company's Bonus Plan for the three fiscal years of the Company ending prior to the effective date of termination, multiplied by (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days Executive was employed by the Company during the fiscal year of the Company in which the termination occurs and the denominator of which is 365, less (B) any payment previously made by the Company, if any, with respect to the current fiscal year's Bonus Plan; and (3) acceleration of all outstanding unvested options held by Executive as of the effective date of termination. Payment of the amounts specified in subsections (1) and (2) of the immediately preceding sentence shall be made in nine (9) equal monthly installments following the effective date of termination; provided, however, that if such installment payments would continue beyond the later of: (x) the first September 15 following the Company's fiscal year which included the effective date of termination or (y) the first March 15 following the calendar year which included the effective date of termination (the Latest Date), all remaining monthly installments shall be paid to Executive in a lump sum on the Latest Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the payment and receipt of the benefits specified in subsections (1), (2) and (3), of that same sentence are contingent upon Executive's execution of a written severance agreement (in a form satisfactory to the Company) containing, among other things, a general release of claims against the Company, and the rescission period of such agreement must expire, without revocation of such release, within sixty (60) days following the effective date of termination. To the extent that payments would otherwise be paid to Executive within the sixty (60) day period following the effective date of termination, such payment(s) shall be made following Executive's execution of such general release and the expiration of the applicable rescission period, except where the sixty (60) day period following the effective date of termination spans two different calendar years, in which case such payment(s) or benefit(s) will not be paid until the later calendar year during the sixty (60) day period.

Section 3.1(b) and Section 3.1(e) Terminations. If Executive's employment is terminated pursuant to Section 3.1(b), above, or if Executive resigns pursuant to Section 3.1(e), above, Executive shall have no further rights against the Company hereunder, except for the right to receive: (1) any unpaid Base Salary with respect to the period prior to the effective date of termination; and (2) any earned but unpaid bonus due to Executive as of the effective date of termination.

(c)

Section 3.1(d) Termination. If Executive retires pursuant to Section 3.1(d), above, Executive shall have no further rights against the Company hereunder, except for the right to receive: (1) any unpaid Base Salary with respect to the period prior to the effective date of termination; (2) any earned but unpaid bonus due to Executive as of the effective date of termination; and (3) any additional benefits provided for under the Company's retirement plan or policy for senior executives, if any.

3.3

Termination In Connection With A Change In Control. Should Executive's employment be terminated upon the occurrence of or within two (2) years of a Change in Control, as defined in Executive's Change of Control Agreement (COC Agreement), the terms of such termination shall be governed exclusively by the COC Agreement and Executive shall not be entitled to receive any of the benefits provided for under this Article III.

ARTICLE VIII

BUSINESS IDEA RIGHTS

Assignment. The Company will own, and Executive hereby assigns to the Company and agrees to assign to the Company, all rights in all Business Ideas. All Business Ideas which are or form the basis for copyrightable works are hereby assigned to the Company and/or shall be assigned to the Company or shall be considered "works for hire" as that term is defined by United States copyright law.

8.2

Definition of Business Ideas. The term Business Ideas means all ideas, designs, modifications, formulations, specifications, concepts, know-how, trade secrets, discoveries, inventions, data, software, developments and copyrightable works, whether or not patentable or registrable, which Executive originates or develops, either alone or jointly with others, while Executive is employed by the Company and which are: (a) related to any business known to Executive to be engaged in or contemplated by the Company; (b) originated or developed during Executive's working hours; or (c) originated or developed in whole or in part using materials, labor, facilities or equipment furnished by the Company.

8.3

Disclosure. While employed by the Company, Executive will promptly disclose all Business Ideas to the Company.

8.4

Execution of Documentation. Executive, at any time during or after his employment by the Company, will promptly execute all documents which the Company may reasonably require to perfect its patent, copyright and other rights to such Business Ideas throughout the world.

ARTICLE IX

NON-SOLICITATION OF EMPLOYEES

During Executive's employment by the Company and for twelve (12) months thereafter, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, encourage any Company employee to terminate his/her employment with the Company or solicit such an individual for employment outside the Company in any manner which would end or diminish that employee's services to the Company; provided, however, that this Article IX shall not prohibit use of general classified advertising to solicit for employment positions.

ARTICLE X

EXECUTIVE DISCLOSURES AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

10.1

Confidential Information of Others. Executive warrants and represents to the Company that he is not subject to any employment, consulting or services agreement, or any restrictive covenants or agreements of any type, which would conflict with, or prohibit Executive from fully carrying out, his duties as described under the terms of this Agreement. Further, Executive warrants and represents to the Company that he has not and will not retain or use, for the benefit of the Company, any confidential information, records, trade secrets, or other property of a former employer.

10.2

Scope of Restrictions. Executive acknowledges that during the course of his employment with the Company, he will gain knowledge of Confidential Information and Trade Secrets of the Company. Executive acknowledges that the Confidential Information and Trade Secrets of the Company are necessarily shared with Executive on a routine basis in the course of performing his job duties and that the Company has a legitimate protectable interest in such Confidential Information and Trade Secrets and in the goodwill and business prospects associated therewith.

Accordingly, Executive acknowledges that the scope of the restrictions contained in this Agreement are appropriate, necessary and reasonable for the protection of the Company's business, goodwill and property rights, and that the restrictions imposed will not prevent him from earning a living in the event of, and after, the end, for whatever reason, of his employment with the Company.

10.3

Prospective Employers. Executive agrees, during the term of any restriction contained in Articles IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX and X of this Agreement, to disclose this Agreement to any entity which offers employment to Executive. Executive further agrees that the Company may send a copy of this Agreement to, or otherwise make the provisions hereof known to, any of Executive's potential or future employers.

10.4

Third Party Beneficiaries. Any Company affiliates are third party beneficiaries with respect to Executive's performance of his duties under this Agreement and the undertakings and covenants contained in this Agreement, and the Company and any of its affiliates enjoying the benefits thereof, may enforce this Agreement directly against Executive. The terms Trade Secret and Confidential Information shall include materials and information of the Company's affiliates to which Executive has access.

10.5

Survival. The covenants set forth in Articles III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X, XI, XII and XIII of this Agreement shall survive the termination of Executive's employment hereunder.

ARTICLE XI

RETURN OF RECORDS

Upon the end, for whatever reason, of his employment with the Company, or upon request by the Company at any time, Executive shall immediately return to the Company all documents, records and materials belonging and/or relating to the Company (except Executive's own personnel and wage and benefit materials relating solely to Executive), and all copies of all such materials. Upon the end, for whatever reason, of Executive's employment with the Company, or upon request of the Company at any time, Executive further agrees to destroy such records maintained by him on his own computer equipment. Upon mutual agreement between Executive and the Company, Executive may retain documents, records and materials belonging and/or relating to the Company following the end, for whatever reason, of Executive's employment with the Company.

ARTICLE XII

INDEMNITY

12.1

Indemnification By Company. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Company shall indemnify Executive if Executive is, or is threatened to be, made a party to an action, suit or proceeding (other than by the Company) by reason of the fact that Executive is or was a director or officer of the Company, unless liability was incurred because Executive breached or failed to perform a duty that Executive owes to the Company and such breach or failure constitutes: (a) a willful failure to deal fairly with the Company or its shareholders in connection with a matter in which Executive has a material conflict of interest; (b) a violation of the criminal law, unless Executive had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was lawful and Executive had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful; (c) a transaction from which Executive derived an improper personal profit; or (d) willful misconduct.

Indemnification By Executive. Executive agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys fees and costs), judgments and settlements of amounts paid in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, claim, proceeding or investigation arising out of or pertaining to: (a) unlawful intentional acts committed by Executive in the conduct of the Company's business; (b) any willful gross negligence committed by Executive other than in the conduct of the Company's business; and (c) any tax deductions Executive may claim for expenses incurred or claim to have been incurred in connection with Executive's duties hereunder.

12.3

Insurance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the indemnification provided for in this Article XII shall only apply to any costs or expenses incurred by indemnitees which are not covered by applicable liability insurance. If this Article XII is interpreted to reduce insurance coverage to which an indemnitee would otherwise be entitled in the absence of this provision, this provision shall be deemed inoperative and not part of this Agreement. This Article XII shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIII

Entire Agreement; Amendment; Waiver. This Agreement sets forth the entire understanding of the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matter contemplated hereby. Any and all previous agreements and understandings between or among the Parties regarding the subject matter hereof, whether written or oral, are superseded by this Agreement; provided, however, that the COC Agreement shall survive and remain in full force and effect. This Agreement shall not be amended or modified except by a written instrument duly executed by each of the Parties hereto. Any extension or waiver by any Party of any provision hereto shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such Party. For purposes of the foregoing two (2) sentences, the Parties acknowledge and agree that any such written instrument to be signed by the Company shall require the signature of a representative of the Company duly authorized by the Board to bind the Company to the terms of such written instrument.

If such succession or assignment does not take place, and if this Agreement is not otherwise binding on Executive's successors or assigns by operation of law, Executive is entitled to compensation from the Company in the same amount and on the same terms as provided for in this Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding on and inure to the benefit of each Party and such Party's respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns.

Mitigation. Executive shall not be required to mitigate the amount of any payment or benefit provided for in this Agreement by seeking other employment or otherwise.

13.6

Injunctive Relief. The Parties agree that damages will be an inadequate remedy for breaches of this Agreement and in addition to damages and any other available relief, a court shall be empowered to grant injunctive relief (without the necessity of posting bond or other security).

13.7

Waiver of Breach. The waiver by either Party of the breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach by either Party.

13.8

Severability. The obligations imposed by, and the provisions of, this Agreement are severable and should be construed independently of each other. The invalidity of one provision shall not affect the validity of any other provision.

13.9

Consideration. Execution of this Agreement is a condition of Executive's employment with the Company and Executive's employment and other benefits provided for herein by the Company constitutes the consideration for Executive's undertakings hereunder.

13.10

Governing Law. This Agreement shall in all respects be construed according to the laws of Wisconsin, without regard to its conflict of laws principles.

13.11

President and Chief Executive Officer

CHANGE OF CONTROL AGREEMENT

THIS CHANGE OF CONTROL AGREEMENT, dated as of this 15th day of November, 2013 is between ARI Network Services, Inc. (the Company) and William A. Nurthen (the Employee).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Employee has been employed by the Company since November 29, 2013 and currently serves as its Chief Financial Officer; and

WHEREAS, the President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Company has determined that he wishes to assure the continued availability of the Employee as Chief Financial Officer of the Company by entering into this Change of Control Agreement (the Agreement); and

WHEREAS, the President and CEO of the Company wants to assure that, in the event of a Change of Control (as hereinafter defined), the Employee s service to the Company will be recognized.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, the Company and the Employee hereby agree as follows:

Definitions. For Purposes of this Agreement:

Cause. Cause means (i) the willful and continued failure by the Employee to substantially perform the Employee s duties with the Company (other than any such failure resulting from the Employee s incapacity due to physical or mental illness) for a period of at least ten days after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered to the Employee which specifically identifies the manner in which the Employee has not substantially performed his duties, or (ii) the willful engaging by the Employee in misconduct which is demonstrably and materially injurious to the Company, monetarily or otherwise. For purposes of this Agreement, no act or failure to act on the Employee s part shall be considered willful unless done or omitted to be done by the Employee not in good faith and without reasonable belief that such action or omission was in the best interest of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Employee shall not be deemed to have been terminated for Cause unless and until there shall have been delivered to the Employee a copy of a resolution, duly adopted by the President and CEO of the Company (after reasonable notice to the Employee and an opportunity for the Employee, together with the Employee s counsel, to be heard before the President and CEO), stating that in the good faith opinion of the President and CEO the Employee was guilty of conduct constituting Cause as set forth above and specifying the particulars thereof in detail.

(b)

Change in Control. A Change in Control shall mean the first to occur of the following:

(i)

the acquisition by an individual, entity or group, acting individually or in concert (a Person) of beneficial ownership of more than 50% of the then outstanding shares of common stock of the Company (the Outstanding Common Stock); provided, however, that for purposes of this Subsection 1(b)(i), the following acquisitions shall not constitute a Change in Control: (A) any acquisition directly from the Company, (B) any acquisition by the Company, (C) any acquisition by any employee benefit plan (or related trust) sponsored or maintained by the Company or any corporation controlled by the Company, or (D) any acquisition by any corporation pursuant to a transaction which complies with clauses (A), (B) and (C) of Subsection 1(b)(ii) below; or

(ii)

consummation of a reorganization, merger or consolidation, share exchange, or sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (a Business Combination), in each case, unless, immediately following such Business Combination, (A) all or substantially all of the individuals and entities who were the beneficial owners of the Outstanding Common Stock immediately prior to such Business Combination beneficially own, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of, respectively, the then outstanding shares of common stock and the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, as the case may be, of the corporation resulting from such Business Combination (including, without limitation, a corporation which as a result of such transaction owns the Company or all or substantially all of the Company s assets either directly or through one or more subsidiaries) in substantially the same proportions as their ownership, immediately prior to such Business Combination of the Outstanding Common Stock, (B) no Person (excluding any employee benefit plan (or related trust) of the Company or such corporation resulting from such Business Combination) beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of, respectively, the then outstanding common stock of the corporation resulting from such Business Combination or the combined voting power of the then outstanding voting securities of such corporation except to the extent that such ownership existed prior to the Business Combination, and (C) at least a majority of the members of the Board of the corporation resulting from such Business Combination were members of the Board of the Company at the time of the execution of the initial agreement providing for such Business Combination; or approval by the shareholders of the Company of a complete liquidation or dissolution of the Company.

(c)

Date of Termination. Date of Termination means the date specified in the Notice of Termination where required (which date shall be on or after the date of the Notice of Termination) or in any other case during the Term, upon the Employee s ceasing to perform services for the Company.

(d)

Effective Date. Effective Date means the date on which the Change of Control occurs.

(e)

Good Reason. Good Reason means, without the Employee's written consent, the occurrence of one or more of the following during the Term:

(i)

a material diminution of or interference with the Employee's duties and responsibilities as Chief Financial Officer of the Company, including, but not limited to a material demotion of the Employee, a material reduction in the number or seniority of other Company personnel reporting to the Employee, or a material reduction in the frequency with which, or in the nature of the matters with respect to which, such personnel are to report to the Employee;

(ii)

a change in the principal workplace of the Employee to a location outside of a 50-mile radius from Milwaukee, WI;

(iii)

a reduction or adverse change in the salary, bonus, perquisites, benefits, contingent benefits or vacation time which had theretofore been provided to the Employee; or an unreasonable increase in the workload of the Employee.

For purposes hereof, any good faith determination made by the Employee that he has Good Reason to terminate his employment with the Company shall be conclusive. The Employee's continued employment or failure to give Notice of Termination will not constitute consent to, or a waiver of rights with respect to, any circumstance constituting Good Reason hereunder.

(f)

Notice of Termination. Any termination of the Employee's employment by the Company without Cause, or termination by the Employee for Good Reason, during the Term will be communicated by a Notice of Termination to the other party hereto. A Notice of Termination means a written notice which specifies a Date of Termination (which date shall be on or after the date of the Notice of Termination), indicates the provision in this Agreement applying to the termination and, if applicable, sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Employee's employment under the provision so indicated.

(g)

Term. The Term means a period beginning on the Effective Date and ending on the date two years after the occurrence of a Change of Control.

2.

Termination of Employment During the Term.

Termination by the Company Without Cause or by the Employee for Good Reason. If the Employee's employment is terminated during the Term by the Company without Cause or by the Employee for Good Reason, the Employee shall be entitled to the following:

(i)

the Company shall pay the Employee his full base salary and commissions (if applicable) through the Date of Termination at the rate in effect at the time the Notice of Termination is given;

(ii)

as the annual current year bonus for the year in which the Date of Termination occurs, the Company will pay the Employee an amount (not less than zero) equal to (A) the product of (i) the average of the Employee's annual current year bonus for the three fiscal years of the Company ending prior to the Date of Termination and (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days the Employee was employed by the Company during the fiscal year in which the Date of Termination occurs and the denominator of which is 365, minus (B) the aggregate payments previously made by the Company, if any, with respect to the current year annual bonus;

(iii)

the Company shall pay to the Employee as a severance benefit a lump-sum amount equal to two (2) times the sum of (a) the Employee's annual base salary as in effect on the Effective Date or Date of Termination, whichever is greater, without reduction for any mandatory or voluntary deferrals, (b) 100% of the targeted commissions, if any, for the year in which the Effective Date or Date of Termination occurs, whichever is greater, and (c) 100% of the targeted short-term annual bonus and long-term bonus for the year in which the Effective Date or Date of Termination occurs, whichever is greater, or, where the targeted short-term annual bonus or long-term bonus amounts have not been set as of the Effective Date or Date of Termination, 100% of the average of the Employee's targeted annual short-term and long-term bonus for the three fiscal years of the Company ending prior to the Date of Termination, without reduction for any amounts that would otherwise be deferred to future fiscal years, within thirty days after the Date of Termination;

any unpaid annual installments of long-term bonuses from prior fiscal years, which installments shall become immediately vested as if the targeted performance levels for future years were met if applicable; and for a 24-month period after the Date of Termination starting with the month immediately after the month in which the Date of Termination occurs, the Company will arrange to provide the Employee and the Employee's eligible dependents, at the Company's expense, with benefits under the medical and dental plans of the Company, or, if such benefits are not available, benefits substantially similar to the benefits the Employee was receiving during the 90-day period immediately prior to the Date of Termination; provided, however, that benefits otherwise receivable by the Employee pursuant to this Subsection 2(a)(iv) will be reduced to the extent other comparable benefits are actually received by the Employee from subsequent employment during the 24-month period following the Date of Termination, and any such benefits actually received by the Employee will be reported to the Company; and provided, further that any access to insurance continuation coverage that the Employee may be entitled to receive under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1986 (COBRA) will commence on the Date of Termination.

(b)

Termination for Any Other Reason. If the Employee's employment with the Company is terminated during the Term for any reason not specified in Subsection 2(a) above, the Employee will be entitled to the following:

(i)

the Company will pay the Employee his full base salary and commissions (if applicable) through the Date of Termination at the rate in effect on the Date of Termination; and as the annual current year bonus for the year in which the Date of Termination occurs, the Company will pay the Employee an amount (not less than zero) equal to (A) the product of (i) the average of the Employee's annual current year bonus for the three fiscal years of the Company ending prior to the Date of Termination and (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days the Employee was employed by the Company during the fiscal year in which the Date of Termination occurs and the denominator of which is 365, minus (B) the aggregate payments previously made by the Company, if any, with respect to the current year annual bonus. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no bonus will be paid to the Employee under this Subsection 2(b)(ii) if the Employee's employment is terminated for Cause.

(c)

Timing of Payments. Where a payment of benefits under any of Subsections 2(a) (ii), (iii) and (iv) or Subsection 2(b)(ii) is required to be delayed for six months after the Date of Termination under Internal Revenue Code Section 409A, the Company shall make payment of such amounts to the Employee on the date that is six months after the Date of Termination. Where a payment of benefits under Subsections 2(a)(ii), (iii) and (iv) and Subsection 2(b)(ii) is not required to be delayed for six months after the Date of Termination under Internal Revenue Code Section 409A, the Company shall make payment of such amounts to the Employee within thirty (30) days after the Date of Termination.

3.

Restrictions. As of the Effective Date, all restrictions limiting the exercise, transferability or other incidents of ownership of any outstanding award, including but not limited to restricted stock, options, stock appreciation rights, or other property or rights of the Company granted to the Employee shall lapse, and such awards shall become fully vested and be held by the Employee free and clear of all such restrictions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the term during which any vested option held by an Employee is permitted to be exercised shall not be extended. This provision shall apply to all such property or rights notwithstanding the provisions of any other plan or agreement to the contrary.

Limitation on Payments. Subsections 2(a)(iii), (iv) and (v) and Section 3, above, provide for certain payments to be made or benefits to be given to the Employee if the Employee's employment with the Company terminates during the Term (the Change of Control Payments). Notwithstanding such subsections, the Change of Control Payments will be reduced such that the present value of the payments to the Employee or for the Employee's benefit, receipt of which is deemed to be contingent on a change of control under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), shall not exceed an amount equal to the maximum which the Company may pay without loss of deduction under Section 280G(a) of the Code (the Golden Parachute Threshold). If the Golden Parachute Threshold is exceeded, the payments made pursuant to Subsections 2(a)(iii) and (iv) will be reduced, but not below zero, so that the total amount paid to the Employee or for the Employee's benefit is not in excess of the Golden Parachute Threshold.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if not reducing the Change of Control Payments would result in a greater after-tax amount to the Employee, such payments shall not be reduced. All calculations required pursuant to this Section 4 shall be made in accordance with proposed, temporary or final regulations promulgated under Section 280G of the Code or other applicable authority by the Company's public accountants, the Company's lawyers or such other third party as is mutually agreed between the Employee and the Company. In the event that the provisions of Sections 280G and 4999 of the Code or any successor provision are repealed without succession this Section 4 shall be of no further force or effect.

No Mitigation. The Employee shall not be required to mitigate the amount of any salary or other payment or benefit provided for in this Agreement by seeking other employment or otherwise, nor shall the amount of any payment or benefit provided for in this Agreement be reduced by any compensation earned by the Employee as a result of employment by another employer other than as provided in subsection 2(a)(v), above, by retirement benefits distributed after the Date of Termination, or otherwise.

6.

No Assignments.

Successors and Assigns. This Agreement is personal to the Employee, and the Employee may not assign or delegate any of the Employee's rights or obligations hereunder without first obtaining the written consent of Company. The Company will require any successor or assign (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company, by an assumption agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Employee, to expressly assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform it if no such succession or assignment had taken place. If such succession or assignment does not take place, and if this Agreement is not otherwise binding on the Company's successors or assigns by operation of law, the Employee is entitled to compensation from the Company in the same amount and on the same terms as the compensation pursuant to Subsection 2(a) hereof.

(b)

Inurement. This Agreement and all rights of the Employee hereunder shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Employee's personal and legal representatives, executors, administrators, successors, heirs, distributees, devisees and legatees. If the Employee should die while any amount would still be payable to the Employee hereunder if the Employee had continued to live, all such amounts, unless otherwise provided herein, shall be paid in accordance with the terms of this Agreement to the Employee's devisee, legatee or other designee or if there is no such designee, to the Employee's estate.

Notice. For the purposes of this Agreement, notices and all other communication provided for in the Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when personally delivered or sent by fax with confirmation printed on the sending fax machine, or five days after mailing certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to the respective addresses set forth opposite the parties' signatures to this Agreement (provided that all notices to the Company shall be directed to the attention of the President and CEO of the Company with a copy to the Secretary of the Company), or to such other address as either party may have furnished to the other in writing in accordance herewith.

Prior Agreements. This Agreement shall replace and supersede all prior agreements between the Company and the Employee relating to the subject matter hereof.

9.

Amendments. No amendments or additions to this Agreement shall be binding unless in writing and signed by both parties hereto.

10.

Severability. The provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed severable and the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions hereof.

11.

Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Wisconsin, without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of laws.

12.

Arbitration. Any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with this Agreement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration by a single arbitrator mutually agreed to by the disputing parties in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect. Such arbitration shall be held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, or such other place as is mutually agreeable to the parties hereto. Judgment may be entered on the Arbitrator's award in any court having jurisdiction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above written.

Conditional Assistance Benefits. In consideration of your undertakings set forth in Paragraph 3, below, and conditioned upon (i) your acceptance of the terms contained in this agreement, and (ii) your decision not to exercise your revocation rights (described in Paragraph 4(D), below), you will receive the following additional assistance benefits:

(A)

The Company will pay you, as severance, the pre-tax total of $107,499.99 (which is equivalent to 26 weeks of your regular base wages at the regular base wage rate in effect on the Separation Date), payable in equal installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll practices and schedule, beginning on the first regular Company pay date that occurs at least five (5) business days following expiration of the Revocation Period (defined below). These severance installments will be subject to normal deductions for income and employment taxes. For unemployment compensation purposes, you agree that you will immediately advise the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development of your receipt of such severance installments;

(B)

Following expiration of the Revocation Period (defined below), the Company will allow you to exercise your 77,500 options that were vested prior to the Separation Date until February 14, 2014, the last trading day that is within the 90-day period following the Separation Date; and

(C)

Following expiration of the Revocation Period (defined below), the Company will not contest your claim for unemployment insurance benefits; provided, however, that the Company may report to the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development your receipt of the severance installments provided to you pursuant to Paragraph 2(A), above.

(3)

Your Undertakings. In exchange for the benefits provided to you under Paragraph 2, above, you agree as follows:

(A)

You agree, on behalf of yourself, your heirs, successors, and assigns, to release the Company, its parents, subsidiaries, affiliates and related entities and their respective past and present officers, directors, shareholders, members, partners, agents, insurers, and employees (Released Parties), from any claims arising on or before the date you sign this agreement. This includes, but is not limited to, giving up any claims related in any way to your employment by the Company, the decision to terminate your employment, termination of our employment relationship, and wages and other remuneration, including, but not limited to, any current or former bonus or other incentive plans or programs offered by the Company. This release of claims includes any claims, whether they are presently known or unknown, or anticipated or unanticipated by you. Because you are age 40 or older, your acceptance of this agreement also will release any and all claims under the federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act. You should not construe this reference to age discrimination claims as in any way limiting the general and comprehensive nature of the release of claims provided under this Paragraph 3(A). You agree to waive and give up any benefit conferred on you by any order or judgment
