Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On July 25, 2005, The Valspar Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), announced the resignation of Richard M. Rompala as the Company's Chairman of the Board, effective as of July 22, 2005 in connection with his retirement from the Company.

The Company also announced the election of Thomas R. McBurney to serve as non-executive Chairman of the Board.

Mr. McBurney, 67, has been a member of Valspar's board of directors since 1987. He is currently President of McBurney Management Advisors and serves as a director on the boards of Wenger Corporation, Meritex Enterprises, Inc., American Express Certificate Company, Transport Corporation of America, Inc. and Greenspring Companies. Additionally, he has served as board chair of numerous non-profit organizations, including Minnesota Public Radio, Minnesota Opera and Freedom From Hunger.

Prior to forming McBurney Management Advisors, Mr. McBurney was a senior executive of The Pillsbury Company, where he worked from 1968 to 1989. Mr. McBurney is a graduate of Dartmouth College, and he received his MBA from the Amos Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth.

As compensation for his new responsibilities as Chairman, the Company will pay Mr. McBurney $90,000 per year, in addition to the standard retainer, meeting fees and stock options that Mr. McBurney is eligible to receive as a director of the Company.

In connection with Mr. McBurney's election as Chairman, the Company's board of directors waived the years of service tenure limit under the Company's Principles of Corporate Governance. This will allow Mr. McBurney to serve the remainder of his unexpired term of office.
