Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

(a) On November 13, 2001, Information Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation ("IHI"), Fluid Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of IHI ("Fluid"), and Liquent, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Liquent"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement"). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, on November 21, 2001 Fluid commenced a cash tender offer for all outstanding shares of Liquent's common stock, par value $.001 per share (the "Shares"), at a purchase price of $2.27 per share, net to the seller in cash, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase dated November 21, 2001 (as amended and supplemented, the "Offer to Purchase") and in the related Letter of Transmittal (which, together with the Offer to Purchase, collectively constituted the "Offer"). The Offer, as amended, expired at 12:00 midnight, New York City time, on December 19, 2001 and pursuant to the Offer Fluid accepted for purchase 16,839,161 shares of Lipient common stock, which represented approximately 92% of the then outstanding shares of Lipient common stock. The description of the Merger Agreement contained herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as an exhibit hereto and incorporated herein by reference. The description of the Offer to Purchaser contained herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Offer to Purchaser, which is filed as an exhibit hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Following the Offer, on December 27, 2001 Fluid merged with and into Lipient under Section 253 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, and Lipient became a wholly owned subsidiary of IHI, and each remaining share of Lipient common stock was converted into the right to receive $2.27 per share pursuant to the Merger Agreement, subject to statutory appraisal rights. The purchase price of $2.27 for each share of Lipient common stock was established by negotiation at the time of the Merger Agreement. Assuming no statutory appraisal rights are exercised, the total aggregate consideration paid in the acquisition was approximately $43,493,000 in cash. The acquisition consideration was funded by the working capital of IHI.

(b) The assets of Lipient consist primarily of cash, accounts receivable, intangible assets, personal property, prepaid expenses, and plant and equipment. Lipient is a leading provider of application software and related services, primarily to the life sciences industry. Its products are used by leading pharmaceutical, biotechnology and contract research organizations to create new drug applications, reports, proposals and technical documentation. IHI intends to use the assets of Lipient's business substantially as previously used.

On December 28, 2001, IHI issued a press release relating to the merger, a copy of which is filed as an exhibit hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
