Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 12, 2006, Capital One Financial Corporation, a Delaware corporation ( Capital One ), and North Fork Bancorporation, Inc., a Delaware corporation ( North Fork ), announced they had signed an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of March 12, 2006 (the Merger Agreement ), pursuant to which North Fork would merge (the Merger ) with and into Capital One, with Capital One continuing as the surviving corporation.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, which has been unanimously approved by the Boards of Directors of both companies, each holder of North Fork common stock will have the right, subject to proration, to elect to receive, for each such share of North Fork common stock, cash or Capital One common stock, in either case having a value equal to $11.25 plus 0.2216 of a share of Capital One common stock. Based on Capital One's closing NYSE stock price of $89.92 on Friday, March 10, 2006, the transaction is valued at $31.18 per North Fork share, for a total transaction value of approximately $14.6 billion. North Fork stock options that are outstanding as of the closing will be converted into options on shares of Capital One common stock in connection with the closing (on the same terms as applied before the Merger, except to the extent the options vest as a result of the closing), if not exercised before that time, with appropriate adjustment to the number of shares and exercise price to reflect the Merger. Each outstanding North Fork restricted share will be converted into the right to receive the per share Merger consideration (on the same terms as applied before the Merger, including transfer restrictions, except to the extent the restricted shares vest and transfer restrictions lapse at the Merger date) elected by the holder of the North Fork restricted share, subject to proration. Outstanding North Fork deferred shares will be converted into deferred share units (on the same terms as applies before the Merger, except to the extent the deferred shares vest) with respect to shares of Capital One, with appropriate adjustment to the number of shares to reflect the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of Capital One and North Fork, including, among others, covenants (i) to conduct their respective businesses in the ordinary course during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger and (ii) not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during such period. The Board of Directors of each company has adopted a resolution recommending approval and adoption by its respective stockholders and both companies have agreed to submit the Merger Agreement to its respective stockholders for consideration. North Fork has also agreed not to (i) solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or (ii) subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions or an agreement concerning or provide confidential information in connection with any proposals for alternative business combination transactions.

The representations and warranties of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made solely for the benefit of the other party to the Merger Agreement. In addition, such representations and warranties (i) have been qualified by disclosures made to the other party in connection with the Merger Agreement, (ii) will not survive consummation of the Merger and cannot be the basis for any claims under the Merger Agreement by the other party after termination of the Merger Agreement except if willfully false as of the date of the Merger Agreement, (iii) are subject to the materiality standard contained in Section 9.2 of the Merger Agreement which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors and (iv) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including (i) approval of the holders of Capital One and North Fork common stock, (ii) receipt of regulatory approvals, and (iii) absence of any law or order prohibiting the closing. In addition, each party's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including (i) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, (ii) material compliance of the other party with its covenants and (iii) the delivery of customary opinions from counsel to Capital One and counsel to North Fork that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes.

Under the Merger Agreement, upon completion of the Merger North Fork's President and Chief Executive Officer, John Adam Kanas, will join Capital One's Board of Directors.

In connection with the Merger Agreement, the parties have entered into stock option agreements (the Stock Option Agreements) pursuant to which each party has granted to the other an irrevocable option (the Options) to purchase, under certain circumstances, up to 19.9% of its outstanding common shares at a price, subject to certain adjustments, of $25.40 per share (in the case of the Option granted by North Fork) and $89.92 per share (in the case of the Option granted by Capital One). Under certain circumstances, the granting party may be required to repurchase the Option or the shares acquired pursuant to the exercise of the Option; alternatively, the Option could be surrendered to the granting party, together with any shares purchased under such Option, in exchange for a cash payment of $585 million. The Stock Option Agreements limit the grantee's Total Profit (as defined in the Stock Option Agreements) to not more than $730 million.

The foregoing description of the Merger, the Merger Agreement and the Stock Option Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement and the Stock Option Agreements, which are attached hereto as Exhibits 2.1, 99.1 and 99.2, respectively, and are incorporated into this report by reference.
