Report of Independent Auditors

The Partners of
Westcor Realty Limited Partnership

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Westcor Realty Limited Partnership as of December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the related consolidated statements of income, partners' capital and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2001. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Partnership's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall consolidated financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Westcor Realty Limited Partnership at December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the consolidated results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2001, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Westcor Realty Limited Partnership

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

December 31, 2001

1. The Partnership

Westcor Realty Limited Partnership (the Partnership or WRLP) was formed on July 28, 1994 for the purpose of acquiring and operating, either directly or through one or more wholly or partially owned entities, the assets of The Westcor Company Limited Partnership (TWC), The Westcor Company II Limited Partnership (TWC II) and Westcor Partners. TWC, TWC II and Westcor Partners acquire, develop, operate and invest in real property. Eastrich No. 128 Corporation (Eastrich), a Massachusetts corporation, is general partner; Telephone Real Estate Equity Trust (TREET) and Owens-Illinois Master Retirement Trust (Owens-Illinois) are Class A limited partners, and certain individual partners (Westcor Individuals) are Class B limited partners. Each partners' interest in the Partnership is as follows:

Eastrich, as general partner	1 percent
Class A Limited Partners:
TREET	59.4685 percent
Owens-Illinois	12.8163 percent
Class B Limited Partners:
Westcor Individuals, in the aggregate	26.7152 percent

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Principles of Consolidation and Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Partnership, and its wholly owned partnership entities, TWC, TWC II, and Westday Associates Limited Partnership (Westday). Investments in entities in which the Partnership, through its ownership of TWC and TWC II, owns in excess of 50 percent of the respective entity are consolidated; investments in entities in which the Partnership owns 50 percent or less (Joint Ventures) are accounted for using the equity method. Intercompany balances and profits are eliminated in consolidation.

Cash

Cash consists of noninterest bearing checking accounts and U.S. Treasury money market accounts.

Properties

Land, buildings, improvements and equipment are stated at the agreed upon value determined by the partners at the date of formation, which approximated fair market value or cost if purchased after the formation date. Buildings, improvements and equipment are depreciated using five to 40 years as an estimate of useful lives. The Partnership capitalized construction period interest of approximately $3,643,000, $3,776,000 and $2,259,000 during the years ended December 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively.

Property to be held and used is reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the related carrying amount may not be recoverable. When the undiscounted cash flows estimated to be generated by those assets are less than the assets' carrying amount, impairment losses are recognized based on the excess of the property's carrying value over the fair value of the property. The determination of impairment is based not only upon future cash flows, which rely upon estimates and assumptions including expense growth, occupancy and rental rates, but also upon discount rates and other market indicators. Management believes that the estimates and assumptions used are appropriate in evaluating the carrying amount of the Partnership's properties. However, changes in market conditions and circumstances may occur which could cause the amounts ultimately realized upon the sale or other disposition of the properties to differ materially from their estimated fair value. Amounts estimated to be recoverable from future operations and ultimate sales are greater than the carrying value of each property owned at December 31, 2001 and 2000. The Partnership does not consider impairment conditions to be present at December 31, 2001. Property to be disposed of is reported at the lower of carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell.

Direct Leasing and Deferred Financing Costs

Deferred financing costs incurred in connection with long-term financing and direct leasing costs incurred to obtain tenants for properties held for lease are stated at cost and are amortized over the terms of the related financing obligations and the lives of the leases, respectively.

Other Assets

Other assets are primarily comprised of supplemental retirement plan assets stated at market value, other deposits, predevelopment costs, deferred financing costs relating to the revolving line of credit, stated on the basis of cost, net of accumulated amortization, and interest rate cap agreement fees, net of accumulated amortization.

Revenue Recognition

Rental income includes amounts received and accrued from operating leases. The straight-line basis is used to recognize base rents under leases which provide for varying rents over the lease terms. Rentals based on a percentage of tenant sales over a specified threshold are accrued after the threshold is exceeded. Payments received from tenants to induce the Partnership to release the tenant from its lease obligation prior to expiration are recognized upon termination of the lease. Amounts due from tenants as reimbursements of common area maintenance, real estate taxes and insurance are accrued as the related expenses are incurred.

Income Taxes

Under the Internal Revenue Code, a partnership is not a taxable entity; accordingly, no provision for income taxes is included in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Cash, accounts and notes receivable, amounts due from affiliates, other assets, accounts payable, accrued compensation, other accrued expenses, accrued interest payable, security deposits and other liabilities and notes payable are stated at their historical cost. These amounts approximate fair value.

401(k) Retirement Plan

The Partnership maintains a 401(k) retirement savings plan that is available to substantially all employees. Under the terms of the plan, the Partnership matches 50 percent of each participant's voluntary contributions up to six percent of the participant's compensation. Each participant vests ratably in the matching contributions over the first five years of employment (20 percent per year).

Incentive Compensation Plan

On January 1, 1998, the Partnership adopted an incentive compensation plan to encourage the successful long-term growth of the Partnership and to attract and retain key employees. The term of the Plan is January 1, 1998 through December 31, 2002. Cash payments relating to the plan are not made until the year following the plan's term. Accruals of $10,692,000, $2,142,000 and $3,631,000 relating to the plan are included in general and administrative expenses for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively.

The total accrual associated with the incentive compensation plan is $17,715,000 and $7,023,000 at December 31, 2001 and 2000, and is included in accrued compensation. Also included in accrued compensation is $1,650,000 and $1,070,000 of bonuses payable under a related incentive compensation plan at December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Deferred Compensation Plan

During 1998, the Partnership established a Deferred Compensation Plan (the Plan) to which eligible employees may elect to contribute from their compensation. Employee contributions are not matched by the Partnership. Distributions from this Plan vary based upon elections made by the eligible Plan participants. All contributions under the Plan are deposited in what is commonly referred to as a "rabbi trust" arrangement pursuant to which the assets of the trust are subject to the claims of general creditors in the event of the Partnership's insolvency. In accordance with SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities," management has classified these assets as trading securities. Accordingly, at December 31, 2001 and 2000, the Partnership has recorded the Plan assets (and corresponding liabilities) to participants at market value ($3,855,000 and $3,876,000, respectively); these amounts are included in other assets and other liabilities. During 2001, 2000 and 1999, dividends and realized capital gains (losses) of $(62,000), $291,000 and $232,000, respectively, relating to the Plan were recorded in income, with an offsetting compensation expense included in general and administrative expense.

Derivative Instruments

During 2001, the Partnership adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities (SFAS 133), as amended by SFAS 138, to account for its hedging activities. These pronouncements require the Partnership to recognize all of its derivative instruments as either assets or liabilities in the balance sheet at fair value. The accounting for changes in the fair value (i.e., gains or losses) of a derivative instrument depends on whether it has been designated and qualifies as part of a hedging relationship and further, on the type of hedging relationship. At December 31, 2001, the Partnership has designated its swap agreements as qualified cash flow hedges.

For derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as cash flow hedges (i.e., hedging the exposure to variability in expected future cash flows that is attributable to a particular risk), the effective portion of the gain or loss on the derivative instrument is reported as a component of other comprehensive income and reclassified into earnings in the same period or periods during which the hedged transaction affects earnings. The remaining gain or loss on the derivative instrument in excess of the cumulative change in the present value of future cash flows of the hedged item, if any, is recognized in current earnings during the period of change.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to the 2000 and 1999 consolidated financial statements to conform with the 2001 presentation.

- (1) The Partnership through its various investments effectively owns 75 percent of Camelback Colonnade Associates (CCA). The Partnership does not control CCA and accounts for its interest under the equity method. At December 31, 2001, CCA's balance sheet includes approximately $42,319 in property and $34,076 of a 7.5 percent long-term note payable which matures in 2006.
- (2) These amounts are the cumulative intercompany elimination of the Partnership's proportionate share of capitalized leasing and development fees paid to Westcor Partners.
- (3) Scottsdale Fashion Square (SFS) is owned 100 percent by WRLP through TWC and TWC II's 50 percent ownership interest each at December 31, 2001. SFS is not consolidated as control is temporary.

7. Derivative Financial Instruments and Hedging Activities

The Partnership and its affiliates borrow from institutional lenders on both a fixed interest rate basis and a variable interest rate basis. Variable interest rate borrowings are based on a credit spread over LIBOR and are subject to interest rate risk. Significant interest rate risk is managed through the use of derivative financial instruments.

Effective January 1, 2002, an interest rate swap with a $50 million notional amount was entered into by management. The swap matures December 1, 2003, and is designated as a cash flow hedge. This swap serves to reduce exposure to interest rate risk effectively converting the LIBOR rate on $50 million of the Partnership and its affiliates' variable interest rate borrowings to a rate of 3.215 percent. The $217,500 in premiums paid for the purchase of the interest rate cap were expensed in 2001. No amounts were received from such contracts in 2001.

The Partnership manages the potential credit exposure from interest rate contracts through careful evaluation of the counterparties' credit standing. The Partnership is exposed to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by counterparties on the interest rate contracts; however, the Partnership does not anticipate nonperformance by any of the counterparties.

8. Leases

Shopping center and office building space is leased to tenants pursuant to noncancelable operating lease agreements. Tenant leases typically provide for guaranteed minimum rent, percentage rent and other charges to cover certain operating costs. Included in the terms of many of the properties' leases are various rent holidays and scheduled future rent escalations. Rental income includes contingent rentals, based on tenant sales, of approximately $1,505,000, $1,125,000 and $1,188,000 in 2001, 2000 and 1999, respectively.

Following is a summary of future minimum lease payments receivable under noncancelable operating leases as of December 31, 2001 (excluding amounts reimbursable by tenants for property taxes, insurance, and maintenance costs) (in thousands). Remaining lease terms vary from one to 55 years.

Notes to Interim Consolidated Financial Statements

1. The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Westcor Realty Limited Partnership ("Westcor") have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") for interim financial information. They do not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements and have not been audited by independent public accountants.

The unaudited interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and related notes included in this Form 8-K/A. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) necessary for a fair presentation of the financial statements for the interim periods have been made. The results for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for a full year.

2. Investments in Unconsolidated Joint Ventures

During the first half of 2002, Westcor sold a 50% interest in a property, known as Scottsdale Fashion Square, for $96.6 million at a gain of $3.6 million. Additionally, a joint venture known as FlatIron Crossing distributed $42 million to Westcor. These proceeds were the result of an earlier payoff of a development agreement with the City of Bloomfield, Colorado. Also, during the first six months of 2002, construction costs of approximately $25 million were spent to complete recent developments known as Chandler Fashion Center and Prescott Gateway.

3. Accrued Compensation

In the six months ended June 30, 2002, Westcor opened two 100% owned properties and had several other unconsolidated joint venture expansions. Because of the corresponding net operating income generated, compensation under Westcor's incentive compensation plan resulted in $14.9 million of charges to general and administrative expenses for this period.

4. Notes Payable

In connection with the sale described in Note 2 above, sales proceeds were used to payoff a $90 million bridge financing that was outstanding at December 31, 2001.

Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Data

The following unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information reflects the acquisition of Westcor Realty Limited Partnership and its affiliated companies ("Westcor") by The Macerich Partnership, L.P., a subsidiary and the operating partnership of The Macerich Company (the "Company"). The total purchase price was approximately $1.475 billion which included the assumption of $733 million in existing debt and the issuance of approximately $72 million of convertible preferred operating partnership units at a price of $36.55 per unit in a private placement. Each preferred operating partnership unit is convertible into a common operating partnership unit which is in turn redeemable for, at the election of the Company, shares of the Company's common stock or cash. The balance of the purchase price was paid in cash which was provided primarily from a $380 million interim loan with a term of up to 18 months bearing interest at an average rate of LIBOR plus 3.25% and a $250 million term loan with a maturity of up to five years with an interest rate ranging from LIBOR plus 2.75% to LIBOR plus 3.00% depending on the Company's overall leverage. The pro forma consolidated statements of operations for the six months ending June 30, 2002 and 2001 and the twelve months ending December 31, 2001 assumes the Westcor acquisition occurred on January 1, 2001. The pro forma consolidated balance sheet assumes the Westcor acquisition occurred on June 30, 2002.

Edgar Filing: MACERICH CO - Form 8-K/A

The historical financial information of the Company and Westcor as of June 30, 2002 and for the six months ended June 30, 2002 and 2001 and the twelve months ending December 31, 2001 have been derived from the Company and Westcor's consolidated financial statements. The pro forma consolidated financial information should be read in conjunction with the accompanying notes thereto and with the financial statements of the Company and Westcor. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information does not purport to be indicative of the financial position or operating results which would have been achieved had the Westcor acquisition been consummated as of the dates indicated and should not be construed as representative of future financial position or operating results. In the opinion of the Company's management, all adjustments necessary to reflect the effects of the acquisition have been made.

The purchase allocation adjustments made in connection with the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information are based on the information available at this time. Subsequent adjustments to the allocation may be made based on additional information.
