Record Date and Voting Securities

Our Board has fixed the close of business on September 24, 2018 as the record date for determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Special Meeting. As of September 24, 2018 we had issued and outstanding [] shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share, our only class of voting securities outstanding. Each of our shareholders is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock registered in his or her name on the record date.

Recommendation of the Board

The Board recommends that you vote “FOR” the Amendment Proposal and “FOR” the Adjournment Proposal.

Voting

There are several different methods shareholders can use to vote their shares:

1. By Internet: You can submit a proxy over the Internet to vote your shares by following the instructions provided on the proxy card or voting instruction included in the proxy materials you received;

2. By telephone: You can submit a proxy over the telephone by following the instructions provided on the proxy card or the letter included in your proxy materials;
3. By mail: You can submit a proxy by mail to vote your shares by completing, signing, and returning the proxy card or voting instruction form accompanying the proxy materials you received; or
4. During the Special Meeting: You may vote virtually via the Internet during the Special Meeting. If you desire to vote during the meeting, please follow the instructions for attending and voting during the Special Meeting posted at www.virtualshareholdermeeting.com/PRKR2018SM. Alternatively, you may vote in person at the Special Meeting by submitting the ballot that will be provided to you at the Special Meeting.

Shareholders of Record and Shareholders Who Hold Shares in “Street Name”

If your shares of common stock are registered in your name on the books and records of our transfer agent, then you are the shareholder of record. If you are the shareholder of record, you have the right to vote your shares by proxy or to attend the Special Meeting and vote virtually via the Internet or in person.

If you are a shareholder of record and you sign and return a proxy card without giving specific voting instructions or you indicate when voting on the Internet or by telephone that you wish to vote as recommended by the Board, then the proxy holders will vote your shares in the manner recommended by the Board on all matters presented in this proxy statement and as the proxy holders may determine in their discretion with respect to any other matters properly presented for a vote at the Special Meeting.

If your shares of common stock are held for you in the name of your broker, bank or other nominee, then your shares are held in “street name.” While you are the beneficial owner of those shares, you are not considered the record holder. As the beneficial owner of shares of the Company’s common stock, you have the right to instruct your bank, broker, or other nominee how to vote your shares. However, since you are not the record holder of your shares, you may not vote these shares in person at the Special Meeting unless you obtain a legal proxy from your bank, broker, or other nominee. If you hold your shares in “street name” through a bank, broker or other holder of record, please refer to the materials provided to you by your bank, broker or other holder of record for information on communicating your voting instructions.

Both the Amendment Proposal and Adjournment Proposal are considered “routine” matters, meaning that if you do not provide voting instructions, your bank, broker or other holder of record will be permitted to vote on the proposals on your behalf. To ensure that your vote is counted, please (i) communicate your voting instructions to your broker, bank, or other holder of record before the Special Meeting, (ii) obtain a legal proxy from your bank, broker, or other holder of record and vote online using the instructions posted on the Internet, (iii) or obtain a legal proxy from your bank, broker, or other holder of record and arrange to attend the Special Meeting in person.

Proxies and Revocation of Proxies

Your proxy is being solicited by our Board for use at the Special Meeting. By giving your proxy, you are appointing as your proxies the persons that have been designated by our Board. Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation and received in time for the Special Meeting will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If no instructions are given, proxies given by a shareholder will be voted “FOR” the amendment to our amended and restated articles of incorporation increasing the number of authorized shares of common stock.

Although we do not intend to bring before the Special Meeting any matters other than the Amendment Proposal and the Adjournment Proposal, if you give your proxy, your shares may be voted in the discretion of the persons designated as proxies with respect to any other matters properly brought before the Special Meeting and any postponements or adjournments thereof. If any other matters are properly brought before the Special Meeting, the persons designated as proxies will vote the proxies in accordance with their best judgment.

Any proxy may be revoked by (i) submitting a written notice of revocation that is received by our Corporate Secretary at any time prior to the voting at the Special Meeting, (ii) submitting a subsequent proxy prior to the voting at the Special Meeting or (iii) attending the Special Meeting and voting online or in person. Attendance by a shareholder at the Special Meeting does not alone serve to revoke his or her proxy. Shareholders may send written notice of revocation to the Corporate Secretary, ParkerVision, Inc., 7915 Baymeadows Way, Suite 400, Jacksonville, Florida 32256.

Quorum and Required Vote

The presence, in person, including online attendance, or by proxy, of a majority of the shares of common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote on the proposals to be considered at the Special Meeting will constitute a quorum at the meeting. A proxy submitted by a shareholder may indicate that all or a portion of the shares represented by his or her proxy are not being voted (“shareholder withholding”) with respect to a particular matter. Similarly, a broker may not be permitted to vote stock held in street name on a particular matter in the absence of instructions from the beneficial owner of the stock (“broker non-vote”). The shares subject to a proxy which are not being voted on a particular matter because of either shareholder withholding or a broker non-vote will not be considered shares present and entitled to vote on the matter. These shares, however, may be considered present and entitled to vote on other matters and will count for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, unless the proxy indicates that the shares are not being voted on any matter at the Special Meeting, in which case the shares will not be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

The Amendment Proposal and the Adjournment Proposal each require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Special Meeting. Abstentions are counted as “votes cast” with respect to the proposals, and therefore have the same effect as a vote against the proposals. Shares deemed present at the Special Meeting but not entitled to vote, either because of shareholder withholding or broker non-vote, are not deemed “votes cast” with respect to the proposals, and therefore will have no effect on the vote.

Appraisal Rights

No appraisal rights are available under Florida law, our amended and restated articles of incorporation, or our bylaws if you dissent from or vote against any of the proposals to be presented at the Special Meeting.

Solicitation of Proxies

Your proxy is being solicited by our Board for use at the Special Meeting. We have retained Advantage Proxy to act as a proxy solicitor in conjunction with the Special Meeting. We have agreed to pay Advantage Proxy a fee of $5,500, plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. If you are a shareholder and have questions about the proposals, including the procedures for voting your shares, please contact Advantage Proxy toll free at 1-877-8-8565 or by email at ksmith@advantageproxy.com. Our officers and other employees, without additional remuneration, may also assist in the solicitation of proxies in the ordinary course of their employment. In addition to the use of the mail and the Internet, solicitations may be made personally or by email or telephone, as well as by public announcement. We will bear the cost of this proxy solicitation. We may also request brokers, dealers, banks and their nominees to solicit proxies from their clients where appropriate, and may reimburse them for reasonable expenses related thereto.

PROPOSAL I: APPROVAL OF AN AMENDMENT TO THE AMENDED AND RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF AUTHORIZED SHARES OF COMMON STOCK

Our amended and restated articles of incorporation currently authorize the issuance of up to 40,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value, and up to 15,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $1.00 par value. As of September 24, 2018, the record date for the Special Meeting, the following shares were issued and outstanding or reserved for issuance:

- [] shares of common stock were issued and outstanding;
- [] shares of common stock were subject to outstanding options or restricted stock units (“RSUs”) issued under our equity compensation plans;
- [] shares of common stock were reserved for future issuance under our equity compensation plans;
- 10,350,000 shares of common stock were subject to outstanding warrants, including 5,000,000 immediately exercisable pre-funded warrants under our July 2018 purchase agreement with Aspire Capital Fund LLC;
- 1,100,000 shares of common stock were reserved for conversion of the convertible promissory notes issued on September 10, 2018 and September 19, 2018, as described more fully below; and
- 0 shares of preferred stock were issued and outstanding.

On September 10, 2018 and September 19, 2018, we consummated the sale of an aggregate of $900,000 and $425,000, respectively, in convertible 5-year promissory notes which are convertible, at the option of the holders, into shares of our common stock at a fixed conversion price of $0.40 and $0.57 per share, respectively (collectively, the “Notes”). Conversion of the Notes in full would result in the issuance of an aggregate of 2,995,614 shares of common stock, which exceeds the shares of our common stock available for issuance. We have currently reserved 1,100,000 shares of our common stock for conversion of the Notes. Under the securities purchase agreements with the holders of the Notes, our Board has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to amend our articles of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock by at least that number of shares of common stock as equals the outstanding principal balance of the Notes divided by the conversion price.

We are required to make quarterly interest payments under the Notes, commencing in March 2019 in an amount equal to eight percent (8%) per annum. The interest payments may be made, at our option, in (i) cash, (ii) shares of our common stock, subject to certain equity conditions (“Repayment Shares”) or (iii) a combination of cash and Repayment Shares. If we meet the equity conditions and elect to pay interest in Repayment Shares, the number of Repayment Shares will be determined based on the amount of interest payment amount divided by the prior day’s closing price of our common stock. Using the September 18, 2018 closing price of $0.62 as an assumed average closing price for calculation of Repayment Shares, payment of interest using solely Repayment Shares would result in the issuance of an aggregate of approximately 850,000 additional shares of common stock.

In addition, we may consummate the sale of additional convertible promissory notes (“Additional Notes”) in the near term. We expect that any Additional Notes will have substantially the same terms as the Notes, except for the conversion price, maturity date, and interest payment dates.

Description of the Amendment Proposal

On September 19, 2018, the Board unanimously adopted a resolution proposing to amend our amended and restated articles of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock, $0.01 par value, from 40,000,000 shares to 75,000,000 shares, and recommending the Amendment Proposal to our shareholders for approval. The form of amendment to our amended and restated articles of incorporation is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement.

The Board believes approval of the Amendment Proposal is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. Approval of the Amendment Proposal will enable us to reserve a sufficient number of shares of common stock under the Notes, and any Additional Notes that we may sell, while retaining flexibility to respond to future business needs and opportunities. For example, the additional shares may be used for financing our business, for acquiring other businesses, or for forming strategic partnerships and alliances.

Certain Considerations Related to the Amendment Proposal

If the Amendment Proposal is approved, the Board will be authorized to issue the additional shares of common stock for which authorization is sought, in its discretion, without further approval of the shareholders, and the Board does not intend to seek shareholder approval prior to any issuance of the shares of common stock, unless shareholder approval is required by applicable law or securities exchange rules. Although we review from time to time various transactions that could result in the issuance of common stock, we have no current plan, agreement, commitment, understanding or arrangement to issue additional shares of our common stock, except for the issuances of common stock upon the exercise of our outstanding options and warrants, vesting of our outstanding RSUs, and to meet our obligations under the Notes and any Additional Notes.

The additional shares of common stock for which authorization is sought would be identical to the shares of common stock we are presently authorized to issue. Holders of our common stock do not have preemptive rights to subscribe to additional securities which may be issued by us. The holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters to be voted on by shareholders. There is no cumulative voting with respect to the election of directors, with the result that the holders of more than 50% of the shares of our common stock voted in an election of directors can elect all of the directors to be elected at such time. The holders of our common stock are entitled to receive dividends when, as, and if declared by the Board out of funds legally available therefor. We have never paid dividends on our shares of common stock. In the event of our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the holders of our common stock are entitled to share ratably in all assets remaining available for distribution after payment of liabilities and after provision has been made for each class of stock, if any, having preference over the common stock. There are no redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to the common stock.

The issuance of additional shares of common stock for which authorization is sought may have a dilutive effect on earnings per share and on the equity and voting power of existing security holders of our capital stock. It may also adversely affect the market price of the common stock. However, if the issuance of additional shares of common stock allows us to pursue our business plan and grow our business, the market price of our common stock may increase.

While not intended as an anti-takeover provision, the additional shares of common stock for which authorization is sought could also be used by us to oppose a hostile takeover attempt or to delay or prevent changes in control or management of the Company. For example, without further shareholder approval, the Board could strategically sell shares of common stock to purchasers who would oppose a takeover or favor the current Board. Although the Amendment Proposal has been prompted by business and financial considerations and not by the threat of any hostile takeover attempt (nor is the Board currently aware of any such attempts directed at the Company), approval of the proposal could facilitate future efforts by us to deter or prevent changes in control of the Company, including transactions in which the shareholders might otherwise receive a premium for their shares over then current market prices. Our Board is not aware of any attempt, or contemplated attempt, to acquire control of the Company, and the Amendment Proposal is not being presented with the intent that it be utilized as a type of anti-takeover device or to secure management's positions within the Company.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Special Meeting is required to approve the Amendment Proposal. Abstentions are counted as "votes cast" with respect to the proposal, and therefore have the same effect as a vote against the proposal. Shares deemed present at the Special Meeting but not entitled to vote, either because of shareholder withholding or broker non-vote, are not deemed "votes cast" with respect to the proposal and therefore will have no effect on the vote.

Neither Florida law, nor our amended and restated articles of incorporation, nor our bylaws provides for appraisal or other similar rights for dissenting shareholders in connection with the Amendment Proposal. Accordingly, shareholders will have no right to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

If the Amendment Proposal is approved, the amendment to our amended and restated articles of incorporation will be filed with Department of State of the State of Florida promptly after the Special Meeting and will be effective on the date of filing.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" APPROVAL OF AN AMENDMENT TO OUR AMENDED AND RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO INCREASE THE AUTHORIZED NUMBER OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK.

PROPOSAL II: GRANT DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY TO ADJOURN THE SPECIAL MEETING, IF NECESSARY, TO SOLICIT ADDITIONAL PROXIES

We are soliciting proxies to grant discretionary authority to the holder of any proxy solicited by the Board to vote in favor of adjourning or postponing the Special Meeting and any later adjournments (the “Adjournment Proposal”) to solicit additional proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes to approve the Amendment Proposal. If the Adjournment Proposal is approved, the holders of any proxy solicited by our Board will have the discretion to decide whether or not to use the authority granted to them to adjourn the Special Meeting.

In addition to an adjournment of the Special Meeting upon approval of the Adjournment Proposal, if a quorum is not present at the Special Meeting, our Bylaws allow us to adjourn the Special Meeting for the purpose of achieving a quorum. Any such adjournment may be made without notice, other than the announcement made at the Special Meeting, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of common stock present and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting.

The Adjournment Proposal will only be presented at the Special Meeting if there are not sufficient votes represented in person or by proxy for the Amendment Proposal. The vote on the Adjournment Proposal is a vote separate and apart from the vote on the Amendment Proposal. If the Adjournment Proposal is presented at the Special Meeting and is not approved, management may not be able to adjourn the Special Meeting to a later date. As a result, we would not be permitted to increase our authorized shares of common stock.

If the stockholders approve the Adjournment Proposal, we could adjourn the Special Meeting, and any adjourned session of the Special Meeting, to use the additional time to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Amendment Proposal. Among other things, approval of the Adjournment Proposal could mean that, even if proxies representing a sufficient number of votes against the Amendment Proposal have been received, we could adjourn the Special Meeting without a vote on the Amendment Proposal, and seek to convince the holders of those shares to change their votes to votes in favor of the Amendment Proposal.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Special Meeting is required to approve the Adjournment Proposal. Abstentions are counted as “votes cast” with respect to the proposal, and therefore have the same effect as a vote against the proposal. Shares deemed present at the Special Meeting but not entitled to vote, either because of shareholder withholding or broker non-vote, are not deemed “votes cast” with respect to the proposal, and therefore will have no effect on the vote.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" APPROVAL OF GRANTING DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY TO ADJOURN OR POSTPONE THE SPECIAL MEETING I NTHE EVENT THERE ARE NOT SUFFICIENT VOTES TO APPROVE PROPOSAL I.
