AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM

STARBOARD VALUE LP

TO

FELLOW STOCKHOLDERS OF

BRISTOL-MYERS SQUIBB COMPANY

We Do Not Believe the Proposed Merger with Celgene Is in the Best Interests of Bristol-Myers Stockholders

We Are Not the Only Investment Firm to Come Out Publicly Against This Ill-Advised Transaction

One of the Largest Holders of Bristol-Myers Common Stock Has Also Publicly Expressed Its Disapproval of This Proposed Transaction

Starboard Has Filed Preliminary Proxy Materials to Solicit Votes Against the Proposed Acquisition of Celgene

We Expect to Mail Proxy Materials and a BLUE Proxy Card by Mid-March and Urge All Bristol-Myers Stockholders to Vote Against the Deal

Dear Fellow Bristol-Myers Squibb Stockholders:

You may have already received a proxy statement and white proxy card from Bristol-Myers Squibb Company (“Bristol-Myers” or the “Company”) in connection with its upcoming Special Meeting of Stockholders scheduled to take place on April 12, 2019 (the “Special Meeting”), at which you are being asked to vote on the issuance of shares of Bristol-Myers common stock pursuant to the proposed merger (the “Merger”) with Celgene Corporation (“Celgene”). Starboard Value LP (together with its affiliates, “Starboard” or “we”), a stockholder of the Company, has recently filed preliminary proxy materials in opposition to the Merger with the Securities & Exchange Commission and expects to mail a proxy statement and BLUE proxy card to Bristol-Myers stockholders by mid-March.

STARBOARD STRONGLY URGES YOU TO VOTE AGAINST THE MERGER, WHICH YOU CAN DO NOW ON THE PROXY CARD BEING MAILED TO YOU BY BRISTOL-MYERS, OR ON THE BLUE PROXY CARD THAT STARBOARD EXPECTS TO BE MAILING TO YOU BY MID-MARCH.

It is important for you to understand that Starboard is not alone in our decisive position against this ill-advised Merger. Just last week, one of Bristol-Myers’ largest institutional common stockholders also came out publicly to oppose the transaction.

As detailed in our February 28th open letter to stockholders, our conclusion that this transaction is ill-advised and not in the best interests of stockholders is based on five primary views:

1. Bristol-Myers is buying a company with a massive patent cliff – among the largest in pharmaceutical industry history – which we believe will serve as a major overhang on the Company’s shares in the years to come. Based on our analysis, the patent cliff caused by REVLIMID alone will require Celgene to replace over 60% of its total revenue in the next 7 years.
2. We believe the Celgene pipeline is extremely risky and will continue to require significant research & development (R&D) funding. Bristol-Myers management’s projections contemplate Celgene essentially rebuilding its entire current revenue base from its pipeline over the next 8 years, as essentially all of Celgene’s marketed products lose patent protection over this timeframe. We believe this is an aggressive assumption and may not be realistic based on historical precedents.

3. The process and diligence timelines leading up to the announcement of the acquisition, as outlined in the Company's S-4, lead us to believe that this transaction was hastily construed and perhaps done to thwart potential strategic interest in Bristol-Myers. We believe that if the Company remains independent, it is quite possible that there may be strategic interest in Bristol-Myers at a substantial premium to the current stock price.

We believe Bristol-Myers' analysis of the financial merits of the transaction – specifically its allocation of value 4. between Celgene's marketed products, the combined synergies, and the Celgene pipeline – is potentially misleading based on our diligence.

5. We believe there is a better path forward for Bristol-Myers, either as a more profitable standalone company with a more focused, lower-risk strategy, or in a potential sale of the whole Company.

The full February 28th open letter to Bristol-Myers stockholders can be viewed at www.shareholdersforbristol.com

Notice: Starboard's proxy card for the Special Meeting will be BLUE.
