CONCERTO SOFTWARE, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

(In Thousands, Except Per Share Data)

1. Basis of Preparation

The unaudited consolidated financial statements presented herein have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q and do not include all of the information and note disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles. The statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Form 10-K, Commission File No. 000-15578, that was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 28, 2003. In the opinion of management, the accompanying consolidated financial statements include all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary to present fairly the Company's financial position and results of operations. The results of operations for the three-month period ended March 31, 2003 may not be indicative of the results that may be expected for the next quarter or the full fiscal year. On January 14, 2002 the Company acquired all of the outstanding stock of CellIt, Inc. (CellIt), by merging a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company into CellIt, with CellIt becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. CellIt's assets and liabilities and results of operations have been included in the Company's consolidated financial statements since the acquisition date.

2. Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

3. Revenue Recognition

The Company generates software revenue from licensing the rights to use its software products. The Company also generates service revenues from the sale of product maintenance contracts and implementation, education and consulting services. The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with the provisions of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Statement of Position (SOP) No. 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition and SOP No. 98-9, Modification of SOP 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition, With Respect to Certain Transactions. Revenue from software license fees are generally recognized upon delivery provided that there are no significant post delivery obligations, persuasive evidence of an agreement exists, the fee is fixed or determinable and collection of the related receivable is probable. If acceptance is required beyond our standard published specifications, software license revenue is recognized upon customer acceptance.

SOP 98-9 requires use of the residual method for recognition of revenues when vendor-specific objective evidence exists for undelivered elements but does not exist for the delivered elements of a multiple-element arrangement. In such circumstances, we defer the fair value of the undelivered elements and recognize, as revenue, the remaining value for the delivered elements.

Revenues for consulting, implementation and educational services are recognized over the period in which services are provided. Maintenance revenue is deferred at the time of software license shipment and is recognized ratably over the term of the support period, which is typically one year. Amounts collected prior to satisfying the revenue recognition criteria are reflected as deferred revenue in our balance sheet.

4. Stock-Based Compensation

At March 31, 2003, the Company has six stock-based employee compensation plans. The Company accounts for those plans under the recognition and measurement principles of Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations and adopted the disclosure only provisions of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized for its stock-based compensation plans under the fair value method as described in SFAS 123. In accordance with SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure, the following tables illustrate the assumptions used and the effect on net income (loss) and earnings per share if the Company had applied the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123 for all employee stock options granted using the Black-Scholes option pricing model prescribed by SFAS No. 123.

OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

CAUTIONARY STATEMENTS

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 contains certain safe harbors regarding forward-looking statements. Statements set forth herein may contain forward-looking information that involves risks and uncertainties. Actual future financial or operating results may differ materially from such forward-looking statements. Statements indicating that the Company expects, estimates, believes, is planning, or plans to are forward-looking, as are other statements concerning future financial or operating results, product offerings or other events that have not yet occurred. There are several important factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those anticipated by the forward-looking statements. Such factors are described in greater detail under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Certain Factors That May Affect Future Results. Although the Company has sought to identify the most significant risks to its business, the Company cannot predict whether, or to what extent, any of such risks may be realized nor can there be any assurance that the Company has identified all possible issues that the Company may face.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Three Months Ended March 31, 2003 and 2002

Total revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2003 increased approximately $2.2 millions or 9.6%, to $25.6 million compared to the same period in 2002.

Product revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2003 increased approximately $385,000, or 3.6%, to $11.0 million compared to the same period in 2002. The increase in product revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2003 is due primarily to the product revenue associated with the Company's sales of EnsemblePro, which was released in December 2002 offset by a decrease in demand for the Company's Unison, Ensemble and ContactPro products and a decrease in the product revenue contribution from our European operations. During the three month period ended March 31, 2003, EnsemblePro product revenue was approximately $2.1 million.

Cost of product revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2003 increased approximately $613,000, or 30.4%, to $2.6 million compared to the same period in 2002. As a percentage of product revenue, the cost of product revenue increased by 4.9% to 23.9% in the first quarter of 2003 compared to 19.0% for the same period in 2002. The decrease in product gross margin was due primarily to the mix of products sold during the three month period ended March 31, 2003, as the Company's EnsemblePro product has a higher cost of hardware components than the Company's Unison and Ensemble products. In addition, during the three months ended March 31, 2003, the Company resold third party software pursuant to an OEM relationship, which yielded a lower average overall gross margin than the Company's proprietary products.

Service revenue for the first quarter of 2003 increased approximately $1.9 million, or 14.6%, to $14.6 million compared to the same period in 2002. The increase in service revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was due primarily to increased implementation, professional services and educational services revenue combined with an increase in maintenance revenue as the Company's customer base continues to grow.

Cost of service revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2003 increased approximately $987,000, or 15.6%, to $7.3 million compared to the same period in 2002. As a percentage of service revenue, the cost of service revenue increased by 0.5% to 50.4% for the three months ended March 31, 2003 compared to the same period in 2002. The increase in service cost of revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was due primarily to an increase in outside consulting services of approximately $641,000 and an increase in payroll-related expenses of approximately $170,000 as a result of the increases in revenue compared to the same period in 2002, combined with an increase in other related operating expenses of approximately $167,000.

Research, development and engineering expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2003 decreased approximately $112,000, or 2.8%, to $4.0 million compared to the same period in 2002. The decrease in the first quarter of 2003 as compared to the same period in 2002 was primarily due to a decrease in overall occupancy charges allocated to research and development because of a reduction in the amount of office space utilized.

Selling, general and administrative (SG&A) expenses decreased by approximately $286,000, or 2.6%, to $10.9 million for the three months ended March 31, 2003 compared to the same period in 2002. As a result of reduced headcount, the net decrease in SG&A for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was primarily due to a $479,000 decrease in payroll-related expenses and a $216,000 reduction in travel costs, offset by a $433,000 increase in commissions earned compared, which was a result of the revenue increase compared to the same period in 2002.

In the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company recorded approximately $441,000 and $368,000, respectively, of amortization expense related to the purchased intangible assets from the acquisition of CellIt, Inc. in January 2002.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Other income for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was derived primarily from the receipt of $225,000 from the sale of an investment, which the Company had previously written off its books and interest income from investments in commercial paper, corporate bonds, Eurodollar bonds, Federal Agency Issued Coupons, Taxable Auction Securities, Tax Advantage Auction Securities and similar financial instruments, net of investment fees. Other income increased 0.8% for the three months ended March 31, 2003 compared to the same period in 2002.

In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the Company provides for income taxes on an interim basis using its estimated annual effective income tax rate. For the three months ended March 31, 2003, the Company recorded income before income taxes of $642,000. As a result, during the first quarter of 2003, the Company recorded a provision of $167,000 for income taxes using a 26% effective tax rate. The effective tax rate of 26% is less than the combined statutory federal and state tax rates primarily as a result of the utilization of available net operating losses and tax credits.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

As of March 31, 2003, the Company's principal sources of liquidity were its cash and cash equivalent balances of approximately $16.3 million, as well as its marketable securities of approximately $12.4 million. At December 31, 2002, the Company's cash and cash equivalent balances were approximately $19.3 million and its marketable securities were approximately $15.8 million. The overall decrease of approximately $6.4 million in the total cash and marketable securities balances was due primarily to the payment of $2.5 million related to the January 2003 settlement of litigation with Manufacturing Administration and Management Systems, Inc. (MAMS) and associated legal fees, the purchase of $1.3 million of capital equipment and the repurchase 262,200 shares of the Company's common stock under its stock repurchase program for approximately $1.6 million.

Net cash used in operating activities for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was approximately $3.8 million compared to $2.9 million for the same period in 2002. The increase in cash used in operating activities for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was due primarily to the payment of the above referenced MAMS settlement, payments of severance and leases in connection with the Company's 2002 restructuring, lower customer deposits, a decrease in value added tax payable due to lower sales in Europe and the increased accounts receivable balance.

Net cash provided by investing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was approximately $2.2 million compared to approximately $7.6 million for the same period in 2002. The Company converted approximately $3.4 million of investments in marketable securities to cash equivalents during the first three months of 2003, compared to the approximately $19.1 million during the same period in 2002, of which the Company used $10.9 million for the acquisition of CellIt. Property and equipment purchases were approximately $1.3 million during the first three months of 2003, compared to approximately $441,000 during the same period in 2002.

Net cash used in financing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was approximately $1.6 million compared to approximately $7.3 million for the same period in 2002. The Company used only $1.6 million of cash to repurchase 262,000 shares of its common stock for the three months ended March 31, 2003 compared to using $5.7 million to repurchase 658,500 shares of its common stock for the same period in 2002. The Company also used approximately $2.0 million less for the service of long-term debt for the three months ended March 31, 2003 as compared to the same period in 2002, which was related to the assumption and retirement of debt associated with the CellIt merger. The Company received $313,000 less in proceeds for the sale of its common stock for the three months ended March 31, 2003 compared to the same period in 2002.

The Company's contractual obligations for future payments as of March 31, 2003 were composed of operating leases for the various office spaces leased by the Company and capital equipment leases. A summary of the amounts due under these leases is as follows:

Contractual Obligation	Payments Due by Period (In Thousands)				Total
	Less than 1 year	1-3 years	3-5 years	After 5 years
Operating Leases	$ 2,853	$ 4,667	$ 3,983	$ 3,959	$ 15,462
Capital Leases	$ 530	$ 17			$ 547

Management believes, based on its current operating plan, that the Company's existing cash and marketable securities balances and anticipated cash generated from operations are sufficient to meet the Company's cash requirements for the next twelve months.

DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISKS

ITEM 3: QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISKS

Derivative Financial Instruments, Other Financial Instruments, and Derivative Commodity Instruments.

As of March 31, 2003, the Company did not participate in any derivative financial instruments or other financial and commodity instruments for which fair value disclosure would be required under SFAS No. 107, Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments . The Company's investments are primarily short-term, Euro dollars bonds, corporate bonds, investment-grade commercial paper, tax advantaged auctioned securities, and money market accounts that are carried on the Company's books at amortized cost, which approximates fair market value. Accordingly, the Company has no quantitative information concerning the market risk of participating in such investments.

As of March 31, 2003, the Company did not participate in any derivative financial instruments or other financial and commodity instruments for which fair value disclosure would be required under SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities .

Primary Market Risk Exposures.

The Company's primary market risk exposures are interest rate risk and foreign currency exchange rate risk. The Company's investment portfolio of cash equivalent and marketable securities is subject to interest rate fluctuations, but the Company believes this risk is immaterial due to the short-term nature of these investments.

The Company's exposure to currency exchange rate fluctuations has been and is expected to continue to be insignificant since that the operations of its international subsidiaries are almost exclusively conducted in their respective local currencies. International subsidiary operating results are translated into U.S. dollars and consolidated for reporting purposes. The impact of currency exchange rate movements on intercompany transactions was $74,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2003. Currently, the Company does not engage in foreign currency hedging activities
