Item 5. Other Events.

State Street Corporation and its subsidiaries (State Street) are broadly involved with the mutual fund industry, and governmental agencies have sought information from State Street in connection with investigations relating to that industry. In September 2003, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) disseminated letters throughout the industry requesting information about market timing and late trading activities. State Street responded to that request and since then has engaged in exchanges of requests and information with the SEC. Other regulatory agencies, including the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL), have also distributed broad requests for information relating to market timing and late trading activities. On Friday, March 5, 2004, State Street Corporation and some of its subsidiaries received subpoenas from the SEC seeking additional information. State Street continues to respond to the SEC and to the requests received from the DOL.
