CN announces three-for-two stock split, and 17 per cent increase in cash dividend

MONTREAL, Jan. 28, 2004 CN announced today that its Board of Directors has approved a three-for-two stock split of the company's common shares outstanding. The board has also approved a 17 per cent increase in CN's quarterly cash dividend.

The three-for-two stock split will take the form of a stock dividend. Shareholders will receive one-half additional common share of CN for each common share held (i.e., one additional share for each two shares held). The stock dividend will be payable on Feb. 27, 2004, to shareholders of record at the close of business on Feb. 23, 2004.

In addition, a quarterly cash dividend of nineteen and one-half cents (Cdn $0.195) per common share post-split will be paid on March 29, 2004, to shareholders of record at the close of business on March 8, 2004.

E. Hunter Harrison, president and chief executive officer of CN, said: "The stock split and dividend increase demonstrate the directors' confidence in the company, as evidenced by CN's continuing strong earnings and cash flow performance. The stock split will improve liquidity and increase the float of CN shares. This will benefit the company and its shareholders by ensuring CN shares are more accessible to individual investors."

Including today's dividend announcement, CN -- since the initial public offering of company shares in 1995 -- has increased its cash dividend annually eight times by a total of almost 200 per cent. In addition, CN's share price has increased by more than 500 per cent since 1995.

The stock split will have no unfavorable tax consequences in Canada or the United States, and will not dilute shareholders' equity.

Edgar Filing: CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAY CO - Form 6-K

All equity-based benefit plans will reflect the additional shares or options resulting from the declaration of the stock split. All share and per share data for future periods will also reflect the split.
