Enrollment

If you own CSX common stock not enrolled in CSX DirectInvestSM and the shares are registered in your name, you may join the Plan by completing the enclosed Enrollment Form and returning it by mail to Computershare.

If you own shares of CSX common stock, but they are held in the name of a bank nominee or a broker in street name, you may ask your bank or a broker to register some or all of your CSX shares directly in your name, or you may have them send your shares directly to Computershare (contact Computershare for delivery instructions). In either case, you may then enroll in the Plan as explained above. Alternatively, you may leave your existing shares in street name and separately enroll as a non-CSX Shareholder as explained in the paragraph below.

If you do not own any shares of CSX common stock, or if you own only shares registered in street name which you do not want to enroll in the Plan, you may enroll in the Plan by completing the enclosed Enrollment Form and returning it by mail to Computershare. Enclose a check or money order, payable to Computershare Trust Company, Inc. in U.S. dollars, for your initial investment of at least $500, plus an initial enrollment fee of $10.

Your Investment Options

Once enrolled in CSX DirectInvestSM, you have the following investment choices:

Full or partial automatic reinvestment of dividends. At your election, cash dividends on some or all of your shares enrolled in the Plan are automatically reinvested in additional CSX shares. Dividends declared on any shares not enrolled for automatic reinvestment will be paid to you by check.

Optional cash investments by mail. You can purchase additional CSX shares at any time by using the Plan's optional cash investment feature. You must invest at least $50 at any one time and your optional cash investments during any one calendar month cannot exceed $10,000. Your additional investments may be made by mailing a check or money order in U.S. dollars payable to Computershare using the tear-off form on your Plan statement.

Automatic monthly investment. You can also purchase additional CSX shares by authorizing an automatic monthly withdrawal of at least $50 but not more than $10,000 from your bank account. Automatic monthly investments will generally occur on the second Monday of every month if a business day, or if not, on the next business day. In order to allow for orderly purchases, the funds will be deducted from your bank account on the first Monday of every month if a business day, or if not, on the next business day. Automatic monthly withdrawals will begin in the month after your initial cash investment has been processed. Your first purchase under the Plan must be made by check or money order.

Purchasing Your Shares

Source of Shares. Computershare may purchase shares either in the open market or directly from CSX. Shares purchased from CSX may be from authorized but unissued shares.

Reinvested Dividends. Computershare will purchase shares for dividend reinvestment on a quarterly basis. Purchases may be made over a number of days at the discretion of Computershare. Your price will be the weighted average price of CSX shares purchased to satisfy Plan requirements.

Initial and Additional Plan Investments. Computershare will make purchases for initial and optional cash investments on a weekly basis. Generally, funds received by Thursday will be invested on the first business day of the following week.

For Plan shares purchased on the open market, your purchase price will be the weighted average price, without commission, paid by Computershare during the week the shares are purchased. If you elect to make automatic monthly investments (by authorizing Computershare to deduct at least $50 but not more than $10,000 from your bank account monthly), your money will be transferred on the first Monday of every month if a business day, or if not, on the next business day, and such funds generally will be invested no later than the first business day of the following week.

For Plan shares purchased from CSX, your price will be the average of the daily high and low sales prices of CSX shares as reported by The New York Stock Exchange on the purchase date.

After each transaction, Computershare will send you a statement that will include the purchase price of your shares.

Timing and Control of Purchases. Computershare will arrange for the purchase of all CSX shares for the Plan. Neither CSX nor any Plan participant will control either the timing or pricing of shares purchased. Accordingly, you will bear any risk associated with fluctuations in the market price of CSX common stock while your funds are held pending investment. In addition, you will not earn interest on initial or optional cash investments held by the Plan.

All Cash Investments are Subject to Collection by Computershare. If your check or automatic monthly withdrawal is rejected because of insufficient funds, Computershare will cancel your purchase request and will immediately remove any CSX shares purchased on the credit of the uncollected funds. Computershare may sell such shares to satisfy any uncollected amounts plus a $25 fee. If the proceeds of that sale are insufficient, Computershare may sell additional shares from your Plan account until the uncollected balance is satisfied in full.

Transfers Of Shares

You may transfer shares from your CSX DirectInvestSM account by writing to Computershare at the address listed on page 6 and providing the company name,

your account number,

the number of shares to be transferred, and

Guarantee can be obtained from your bank or broker. After the transfer is complete, the recipient will be enrolled in the Plan and will receive a statement showing the transfer of the shares to the recipient. If the recipient prefers not to be enrolled in the Plan, the recipient should request a stock certificate.

Certificateless Holding Of Your CSX Shares

By doing so, shares that you deposit and all shares purchased under the Plan will be held in book-entry form and no certificate will be issued. You can sell or transfer stock simply by giving Computershare written instructions. Any time that you want certificates for some or all of your shares, they will be sent to you upon written request sent by mail or fax to Computershare.

You can make changes to your investment options or stop automatic monthly investments by writing to Computershare at the address listed on page 6. Computershare must receive your written request at least five business days before the date you want the change to be effective.

Selling Your Shares

You can sell some or all of your shares held in the Plan by mailing or faxing the tear-off form on your Plan statement to Computershare.

Edgar Filing: CSX CORP - Form 424B3

Computershare will generally sell shares on a weekly basis, usually on the first business day of the week. Consequently, sale instructions received on any given business day will generally be executed within five business days. Your sales price will be the weighted average price received by Computershare for all sales made on the day on which your shares are sold. The cash proceeds that you will receive for the shares sold will be equal to this weighted average daily sales price, less both a sales service charge and a per share brokerage commission. Please note that Computershare cannot accept instructions to sell on a specific day or at a specific price.

Computershare will mail you a check for the net proceeds from the sale of your shares within three business days after the settlement date.

If you prefer, you can withdraw your CSX shares from the Plan and sell them through your broker.

If the shares in your Plan account fall below one full share, Computershare will automatically liquidate the fractional share, close your Plan account, and send the net proceeds to you.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

All dividends paid to you, whether or not they are reinvested automatically under the Plan, as well as brokerage commissions on shares purchased on the open market, are considered taxable income to you in the year they are paid. The total amount will be reported to you on a Form 1099 and to the Internal Revenue Service shortly after the close of each year. Computershare will not withhold income taxes for U.S. citizens or entities.

If you are a non-resident alien or a non-U.S. entity, you generally are subject to a withholding tax on dividends, and Computershare is required to withhold an appropriate amount based on U.S. Treasury regulations or a treaty provision. (Any dividends reinvested will be reinvested net of any withholding taxes.)

All CSX shares that are sold through Computershare will also be reported to the IRS as required by law. Any profit or loss you incur should be reflected when you file your income tax returns. A transfer of shares to the Plan or withdrawal of shares which are not actually sold will not generate a gain or loss for federal income tax purposes.

Be sure to keep your Plan statements for income tax purposes. If you have any questions about the tax treatment of any transaction or your participation in the Plan, please consult your tax advisor.

Changes To The Plan

CSX may terminate or change the Plan, including its fees and charges, at any time. CSX will send you written notice of any significant changes. CSX and Computershare also have the right to adopt other rules and regulations from time to time in order to enhance the operation of the Plan.

Stock Splits, Stock Dividends And Other Distributions

If CSX distributes common stock in connection with any stock dividend, stock split or similar transaction, Computershare will credit your Plan account to reflect the receipt of the distributed shares in book-entry form. Your Plan statement will reflect these adjustments.
