ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL AGREEMENT

On November 19, 2004, American Standard Companies Inc. (the Company) entered into a Seventh Supplemental Indenture (the Seventh Supplemental Indenture) among itself, American Standard Inc. (the Issuer), American Standard International Inc. (ASII), and The Bank of New York (the Trustee) amending the Issuer s Indenture dated as of January 15, 1998 (as from time to time amended, modified and supplemented and as amended, modified and supplemented by those six supplemental indentures, the Indenture), to provide for the issuance by ASII of a guaranty (the ASII Guaranty) in favor of the Trustee, guaranteeing the Issuer s obligations under the Indenture. ASII is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company.

Under the Guaranty, ASII fully and unconditionally guarantees to each holder of any security issued under the Indenture the due and punctual payment of the principal of (and premium, if any, on) and interest and any other additional amount due under the Indenture, when and as the same shall become due and payable. The ASII Guaranty applies to each security currently issued under the Indenture. In addition, ASII has agreed to observe, comply with and be bound by each and every covenant and other obligation in the Indenture to which the Company has agreed in the Indenture to observe, comply with or be bound by, to the same extent as if the definition of Guarantor in the Indenture included ASII.

The ASII Guaranty terminates on the date as of which the Issuer shall have made or is deemed to have made final payment in full of all outstanding amounts under the senior debt securities and the Indenture (including all principal, interest, fees and expenses) and the Indenture shall have otherwise been satisfied and discharged in accordance with Article IV of the Indenture.

The Company has presently guaranteed payment of these securities currently issued under the Indenture, and accordingly the credit of ASII has been indirectly available for payment of those securities. The ASII Guaranty will make the credit of ASII directly available for payment of those securities.
