ITEM 7.01. REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE.

As previously reported, on January 2, 2006, an explosion occurred at our Sago Mine in Tallmansville, West Virginia. The Sago Mine is operated by our subsidiary Wolf Run Mining Company (f/k/a Anker West Virginia Mining Company, Inc.). We have committed our full cooperation with the investigation by federal and state mine regulatory authorities to determine the true cause of the explosion.

Based on currently available information, management believes that the temporary closure of the Sago Mine is not expected to have any material negative effect on ICG's financial condition or operations. Through November 30, 2005, operations at the Sago Mine accounted for 2.3% of our consolidated revenues. Production for the Sago Mine for 2004 was 396,757 tons and for 2005 was 507,775 tons. In the State of West Virginia, each employer is required to maintain worker's compensation insurance for each employee employed in the state. ICG participates in the West Virginia workers compensation system through a private insurer. In addition, ICG has excess liability insurance coverage to address potential damage claims outside the scope of the workers compensation program.

On January 23, 2006, Bennett K. Hatfield, our President and Chief Executive Officer, testified before the United States Senate Committee on Appropriations - Subcommittee on Labor, Health and Human Services, Education and Related Agencies at the Hearing on Sago Mine Disaster and Overview of Mine Safety. Mr. Hatfield's testimony discussed the explosion at the Sago Mine, the ensuing rescue efforts, and the on-going federal and state investigations by the Mine Safety and Health Administration (MSHA) and the State of West Virginia into the cause of the Sago Mine explosion. The full text of Mr. Hatfield's written statement to the subcommittee is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Report.

The information in this Item 7.01 and Item 9.01(b) is being furnished and will not be deemed "filed" for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section.

Such information shall not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement or other document pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933 or the Exchange Act, except as may be expressly set forth by specific reference in any such filing.
