TELEFONICA ANNOUNCES TENDER OFFER TO ACQUIRE 100% OF THE SHARES OF COMPAÑÍA DE TELECOMUNICACIONES DE CHILE S.A.

The offer represents a premium over 32% to all CTC s shareholders in both Series.

Madrid, Spain, September 11, 2008 Telefónica has announced that it is going to launch during the next 5 business days a tender offer, through its wholly-owned subsidiary Inversiones Telefónica Internacional Holding Ltda. , to acquire all outstanding shares of Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A. (CTC) that Telefónica S.A does not already own and that amount for 55.1% of the total outstanding shares.

The offer will be simultaneously executed, and carried out under the same terms, in Chile and in the New York Stock Exchange and is structured as a cash offer, at a price of 1,000 Chilean Pesos for each Series A share, and 900 Chilean Pesos for each Series B share. An equivalent offer will be addressed to the ADR holders.

The offer implies a market premium over 32% both for A and B series, calculated according to the Chilean regulation for this kind of transaction: i.e. using the daily average prices between the 30th and 90th day before the closing of the transaction.

The transaction will be declared successful only if at the end of the process Telefonica reaches a minimum 75% stake in the company. As a previous requisite, CTC s shareholders will have to approve a change in CTC s bylaws in order to, among others, remove the current 45% ownership restriction.

Assuming acceptance by all shareholders to whom the offer is addressed to, the transaction would amount to 523,282 million of Chilean pesos, this is about 985 million US dollars (based on the Observed Exchange Rate published on September 11, 2008), or about 703 million Euros.
