Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On November 6, 2008, the Board of Directors of Dover Corporation amended the provisions of Articles II and III of Dover's Bylaws relating to stockholder proposals and nominations of directors, and the provisions of Article XII relating to indemnification and advancement of expenses, among other matters: (1) to modify the specified periods in advance of stockholder meetings within which stockholders must provide notice of nominations or proposals of other business; (2) to expand the information that must be provided by any stockholder who submits a nomination or proposal of other business to be considered at a meeting to include, for example, a description of any hedging or other transactions entered into by the proponent or any beneficial owner(s) as of the date of the proposal and as of the record date, the intent or effect of which is to increase or decrease the voting power or economic risk of the stockholder or any such beneficial owner(s) with respect to Dover's stock; (3) to provide that a stockholder proponent or a qualified representative must appear at the stockholder meeting and present the proponent's nomination or proposal; and (4) to clarify that the rights to indemnification and advancement provided for in Article XII vest when a covered person first becomes a director, officer, employee or agent and not when an action, suit or proceeding that is subject to indemnification and advancement is first threatened, commenced or completed.

The foregoing is only a brief summary of the Bylaws amendments and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Company's Bylaws, as amended on November 6, 2008, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3(ii) and incorporated herein by reference.
