Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On November 30, 2010, United Fire & Casualty Company, an Iowa corporation (United Fire), Red Oak Acquisition Corp., a Pennsylvania corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of United Fire and Mercer Insurance Group, Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation (Mercer) executed a definitive agreement and plan of merger (the Merger Agreement), which was announced via press release, as previously reported in United Fire s Current Report on Form 8-K filed November 30, 2010.

On December 1, 2010, United Fire will hold a conference call, which was also announced in the November 30, 2010 press release, to comment on the broad details and benefits of the proposed merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement to both United Fire and Mercer. A copy of the slides to be presented during the conference call are attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and are incorporated into this Item 7.01 by reference.

The foregoing information in this Item 7.01 (including the exhibit hereto) is being furnished under Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure. Such information (including the exhibit hereto) shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Exchange Act of 1933, as amended, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

Safe Harbor Statement

This communication contains certain statements related to future results, or states our intentions, beliefs and expectations or predictions for the future which are forward-looking statements as that term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from either historical or anticipated results depending on a variety of factors. Potential factors that could impact results include: the possibility that the expected efficiencies and cost savings from the proposed transaction will not be realized, or will not be realized within the expected time period; the ability to obtain governmental approvals of the merger on the proposed terms and schedule contemplated by the parties; the failure of shareholders of Mercer to approve the proposed merger; the risk that the United Fire and Mercer businesses will not be integrated successfully; disruption from the proposed transaction making it more difficult to maintain business and operational relationships; the possibility that the proposed transaction does not close, including, but not limited to, due to the failure to satisfy the closing conditions; general economic conditions in the jurisdictions in which United Fire and Mercer do business; changes in global equity and fixed income markets that could affect the return on invested assets; fluctuations in exchange and interest rates that could influence revenue and expense; changes in the competitive environment; changes in commercial property and casualty markets and commercial premium rates that could impact revenues; the impact of class actions and individual lawsuits including client class actions, securities class actions, derivative actions and ERISA class actions; and the cost of resolution of other contingent liabilities and loss contingencies. Further information concerning United Fire, Mercer, and their business, including factors that potentially could materially affect United Fire s and Mercer s financial results, is contained in United Fire s and Mercer s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). See United Fire s and Mercer s Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Annual Reports to Shareholders for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2009, and other public filings with the SEC for a further discussion of these and other risks and uncertainties applicable to United Fire s and Mercer s businesses. Neither United Fire nor Mercer undertakes, and each of them expressly disclaims, any duty to update any forward-looking statement whether as a result of new information, future events or changes in their respective expectations, except as required by law.

Additional Information

This communication does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy our securities or the solicitation of any vote or approval. This communication is being made in respect of the proposed transaction involving United Fire and Mercer. In connection with the proposed transaction, United Fire and Mercer will be filing documents with the SEC, including the filing by Mercer of a proxy statement regarding the proposed merger and the mailing of such proxy statement to the Mercer shareholders. Before making any voting or investment decision, investors and shareholders are urged to read carefully in their entirety the Mercer proxy statement regarding the proposed transaction and any other relevant documents filed by either United Fire or Mercer with the SEC when they become available because they will contain important information about the proposed transaction. You may obtain copies of all documents filed with the SEC regarding this transaction, free of charge, at the SEC's website (www.sec.gov) or in the Investors section of Mercer's web site at www.mercerins.com. The proxy statement and such other documents may also be obtained, when available, for free from Mercer by directing such request to Mercer Insurance Group, Inc., P.O. Box 278, Pennington, New Jersey 08534, telephone: (800) 762-6837.

Mercer and its directors and executive officers and certain other members of management and employees may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies in respect of the proposed transaction. You can find information about Mercer's directors and executive officers in its definitive proxy statement relating to the 2010 annual shareholder meeting and annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009, both filed with the SEC. Other information regarding the participants in the proxy solicitation and a description of their direct and indirect interests, by security holdings or otherwise, will be contained in the Mercer proxy statement and other relevant materials to be filed with the SEC when they become available. You can obtain free copies of these documents from Mercer using the contact information above.
