CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus includes or incorporates by reference forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. All statements other than statements of historical facts included in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus or in the documents incorporated by reference regarding the integration and benefits of acquisitions, contract backlog, fleet status, financial position, business strategy, construction, delivery and acceptance of newbuild rigs, contract commitments and terms of future contracts, dayrates, contract commencements, extensions or renewals, contract tenders, the outcome of any dispute, litigation or investigation, plans and objectives of management for future operations, foreign currency requirements, results of joint ventures or indemnity claims, timing of upgrades and deliveries, industry conditions including the effect of disruptions of drilling in the U.S. Gulf of Mexico, access to financing, taxes and tax rates, advantages of our worldwide internal restructuring, indebtedness covenant compliance, possible amendments to, waivers under or restructuring of credit facilities, timing for compliance with any new regulations, entrance into and the terms of a new credit facility, results of operations, future capital expenditures and commitments, transactions contemplated by any letter of intent or memorandum of understanding, specifications of newbuilds, impacts of any defaults, changes to credit ratings and use of the proceeds of this offering are forward-looking statements. When used in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus or in the documents incorporated by reference, the words anticipate, believe, estimate, expect, intend, may, plan, should and similar expressions are intended to be among the statements that identify forward-looking statements. Although NHIL and Noble-Cayman believe that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, they cannot assure you that such expectations will prove to be correct. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of the document in which they appear and NHIL and Noble-Cayman undertake no obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statement for any reason, except as required by law. NHIL and Noble-Cayman have identified factors that could cause actual plans or results to differ materially from those included in any forward-looking statements. Table of Contents

ENFORCEABILITY OF CIVIL LIABILITIES AGAINST FOREIGN PERSONS

NHIL and Noble-Cayman are Cayman Islands exempted companies with limited liability, and certain of their officers and directors may be residents of various jurisdictions outside the United States. All or a substantial portion of the assets of NHIL and Noble-Cayman and the assets of these persons may be located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for investors to effect service of process within the United States upon these persons or to enforce any U.S. court judgment obtained against these persons that is predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the Securities Act. NHIL and Noble-Cayman have agreed to be served with process with respect to actions based on offers and sales of the notes. To bring a claim against NHIL or Noble-Cayman, you may serve NHIL or Noble-Cayman, as the case may be, at its registered office in the Cayman Islands, which is at the offices of Maples Corporate Services Limited, P.O. Box 309 Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands.

Maples and Calder, our Cayman Islands legal counsel, has advised us that there is doubt as to whether Cayman Islands courts would enforce (1) judgments of U.S. courts obtained in actions against us or other persons that are predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the Securities Act or (2) original actions brought against us or other persons predicated upon the Securities Act. There is no statutory recognition in the Cayman Islands of judgments obtained in the United States nor any relevant treaty in place. However, the courts of the Cayman Islands will in certain circumstances recognize and enforce a non-penal judgment of a foreign court of competent jurisdiction without retrial on the merits. The courts of the Cayman Islands will recognize a foreign judgment as the basis for a claim at common law in the Cayman Islands provided such judgment:

is given by a competent foreign court;

imposes on the judgment debtor a liability to pay a liquidated sum for which the judgment has been given;

is final;

is not in respect of taxes, a fine or a penalty; and was not obtained in a manner and is not of a kind the enforcement of which is contrary to the public policy of the Cayman Islands.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights information contained elsewhere in this prospectus. This summary may not contain all of the information that is important to you. The information is qualified in its entirety by reference to detailed information appearing elsewhere in this prospectus and in the documents incorporated herein by reference and, therefore, should be read together with those documents. To understand fully the offering and the business of Noble Corporation, a Cayman Islands exempted company limited by shares (Noble-Cayman), and its subsidiaries, including Noble Holding International Limited, a Cayman Islands exempted company limited by shares (NHIL), we strongly encourage you to read carefully this entire prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus and the other documents incorporated herein by reference.

In the sections of this prospectus supplement that describe the business of Noble-Cayman, unless the context otherwise indicates, references to Noble, us, we, our and like terms refer to Noble-Cayman together with its subsidiaries. NHIL is an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble-Cayman. The notes are obligations of NHIL and, to the extent described in this prospectus supplement, are guaranteed by Noble-Cayman. The terms 20 notes, 20 notes and 20 notes refer to the % Senior Notes due 20 , the % Senior Notes due 20 and the % Senior Notes due 20 , respectively. The term notes in this prospectus supplement refers collectively to the 20 notes, the 20 notes and the 20 notes.

Noble Holding International Limited

NHIL is an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble-Cayman. NHIL owns, through its subsidiaries, a fleet of 64 mobile offshore drilling units which are used in the performance of worldwide contract drilling services, principally in the Middle East, India, the U.S. Gulf of Mexico, Mexico, the Mediterranean, the North Sea, Brazil and West Africa. As of January 20, 2011, NHIL's fleet consisted of 13 semisubmersibles, seven dynamically positioned drillships and 44 jackups. This fleet count includes six rigs currently under construction. NHIL is a Cayman Islands exempted company with limited liability. NHIL's principal offices are located at Suite 3D, Landmark Square, 64 Earth Close, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands, BWI, and its telephone number is (345) 938-0293.

Noble-Cayman

Noble-Cayman is a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble Corporation, a Swiss corporation (Noble-Swiss). Noble-Swiss, which is publicly traded and whose shares are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol NE , is a leading offshore drilling contractor for the oil and gas industry. Noble-Cayman is a holding company, and, through its subsidiaries, it performs contract drilling services with a fleet of mobile offshore drilling units.

In March 2009, we completed a series of transactions that effectively changed the place of incorporation of our parent holding company from the Cayman Islands to Switzerland. As a result of these transactions, Noble-Cayman, the previous publicly traded Cayman Islands parent holding company, became a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Noble-Swiss, the current publicly traded parent holding company. The consolidated financial statements of Noble-Swiss include the accounts of Noble-Cayman, and Noble-Swiss conducts substantially all of its business through Noble-Cayman and its subsidiaries.

Noble-Cayman performs, through its subsidiaries, including NHIL, contract drilling services with a fleet of 73 offshore drilling units located worldwide, including in the Middle East, India, the U.S. Gulf of Mexico, Mexico, the Mediterranean, the North Sea, Brazil, West Africa and Asian Pacific. This fleet consists of NHIL's 64 offshore drilling units, five additional drillships, two additional submersibles, one additional semisubmersible and one additional jackup. This fleet count includes eight rigs currently under construction. Noble-Cayman also owns and operates a dynamically positioned floating production, storage and offloading vessel.

Noble's long-standing business strategy is the active expansion of its worldwide offshore drilling and deepwater capabilities through acquisitions, upgrades and modifications, and the deployment of drilling assets in important oil and gas producing areas. Noble has also actively expanded its offshore drilling and deepwater capabilities in recent years through the construction of new rigs.

Noble-Cayman and its predecessors have been engaged in the contract drilling of oil and gas wells for others in the United States since 1921 and internationally during various periods since 1939. Noble-Cayman's principal executive offices are located at Suite 3D, Landmark Square, 64 Earth Close, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands, BWI, and its telephone number is (345) 938-0293.

Recent Developments

Results for Quarter and Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2010

Results of Operations for Quarter and Year Ended December 31, 2010

Consolidated earnings of Noble-Cayman for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2010 were $109 million and $816 million, respectively, compared with $468 million and $1.7 billion for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2009, respectively. The reduction in earnings between 2009 and 2010 resulted primarily from a decrease in contract drilling services revenues resulting primarily from the current drilling restrictions in the U.S. Gulf of Mexico and contractual re-pricing of our jackup rigs in Mexico, the North Sea and the Middle East.

Contract drilling services revenues for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2010 were $614 million and $2.7 billion, respectively, compared with $894 million and $3.5 billion for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2009, respectively. As discussed above, the decline in revenues from 2009 to 2010 of $814 million resulted primarily from a 34% decline in revenues from our jackups due to contractual re-pricing in Mexico, the North Sea and the Middle East, combined with a decline in revenues from the current drilling restrictions in the U.S. Gulf of Mexico. The U.S. government-ordered drilling limitations negatively impacted drilling revenues in 2010 by approximately $450 million.

Noble-Cayman generated $798 million and $1.7 billion in net cash provided by operating activities in the quarter and year ended December 31, 2010, respectively. Noble-Cayman invested $537 million and $1.4 billion in capital projects during the quarter and year ended December 31, 2010, respectively. As of December 31, 2010, Noble-Cayman had cash and cash equivalents of approximately $333 million.

Backlog as of December 31, 2010

Our contract drilling services backlog consists of commitments we believe to be firm and reflects estimated future revenues attributable to both signed contracts and letters of intent. For a number of reasons, however, including the risk that some customers with letters of intent may not sign definitive drilling contracts, our backlog as of any particular date may not be indicative of our actual operating results for the subsequent periods for which the backlog is calculated. See Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements. For a description of additional qualifications relating to our backlog, please see our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 and our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2010 that are incorporated in this prospectus by reference. See Incorporation of Certain Information by Reference.

As of December 31, 2010, our contract drilling services backlog aggregated $12.69 billion, of which $11.43 billion related to floaters (semisubmersibles, drillships and an FPSO) and $1.26 billion related to non-floaters (jackups and submersibles). Of the total amount of our backlog as of December 31, 2010, approximately 18.5% relates to 2011, 16.2% relates to 2012, 14.4% relates to 2013 and 50.9% relates to periods after 2013.

Our December 31, 2010 backlog includes approximately $269 million for potential performance bonuses in Brazil;

includes approximately $147 million related to contracts in Mexico that can be canceled on 30 days or less notice; and includes backlog related to our four current U.S. Gulf of Mexico rigs (which excludes the Noble Jim Day, whose drilling contract was terminated by the customer effective December 31, 2010) totaling approximately $1.4 billion, approximately $451 million of which represents backlog for 2011.

Our December 31, 2010 backlog does not reflect the impact of events occurring subsequent to December 31, 2010, including the previously announced proposed substitution of the Noble Phoenix for the Noble Muravlenko and letter of intent for a newbuild ultra-deepwater drillship with a subsidiary of Royal Dutch Shell plc, which are expected to contribute, on a net basis, approximately $455 million to our backlog. See Letter of Intent for New Five and a Half Year Contract and Update on Brazil Operations.

Shell and Petroleo Brasileiro S.A. (Petrobras) represent approximately 62% and approximately 26%, respectively, of our backlog as of December 31, 2010. For a brief description of the risk relating to our dependence on these key customers, please see Item 1A. Risk Factors We are substantially dependent on our customers Shell and Petrobras, and the loss of either customer could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2010 that is incorporated in this prospectus by reference. See Incorporation of Certain Information by Reference.

Estimated 2011 Capital Expenditure Budget

We currently estimate that our total capital expenditures budget for 2011 will be approximately $2.1 billion. Certain portions of this capital expenditures budget remain subject to approval of our board of directors. Our capital expenditures budget for 2011 includes both expenditures under commitments, including shipyard and purchase commitments, and additional expenditures that will generally be spent at our discretion. We may accelerate, delay or cancel certain capital projects, as needed.

Construction of Two New Ultra-Deepwater Drillships

In January 2011, we signed a contract with Hyundai Heavy Industries Co. Ltd. (HHI) for the construction of two ultra-deepwater drillships, increasing our floating drilling units to 26, 14 of which are dynamically positioned. The new ultra-deepwater drillships, to be named at a later date, will be constructed on a fixed price basis at HHI's shipyard in Ulsan, Korea, with expected deliveries from the shipyard in the second and fourth quarters of 2013, respectively. Operations are expected to commence 90-120 days after delivery following mobilization and acceptance testing. One of these drillships will perform under the contract with Shell to which the Letter of Intent described below relates.

The delivered cost of the new drillships is expected to be $605 million each, and includes the turnkey construction contract, equipment furnished by us, project management and spares, but excludes capitalized interest. The contract further includes a fixed price option for up to two additional drillships, which must be declared by early May 2011 for delivery in 2014.

The rigs are based on a Hyundai Gusto P10000 hull design and are designed for operations in waters of up to 12,000 feet, although either may be outfitted for less depending on specific contract requirements. The units are designed with DP-3 station keeping abilities, the ability to handle two complete BOP systems, a heave compensated construction crane to facilitate deployment of subsea production equipment and accommodations for up to 200 personnel.

Letter of Intent for New Five and a Half Year Contract and Update on Brazil Operations

In January 2011, we signed a Letter of Intent (LOI) with a subsidiary of Royal Dutch Shell plc for a new five and one-half year drilling contract on a newbuild ultra-deepwater drillship that is expected to commence in the second half of 2013. We agreed to model the drilling contract terms and conditions on the recently announced Noble Globetrotter II contract whereby a unit of at least the Noble Globetrotter II 's capabilities would receive a base operating dayrate of $410,000 and be eligible for a 15 percent performance bonus. In addition, the LOI provides for a lump sum mobilization fee of approximately $18 million and a separate performance-based lump sum amount of $10 million subject to the achievement of certain criteria. The LOI is subject to certain conditions, including Shell board approval.

In December 2010, we signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Petrobras regarding operations in Brazil. Under the terms of the MOU, we would substitute the dynamically positioned deepwater drillship Noble Phoenix, which was under contract with Shell in Southeast Asia, for the dynamically positioned drillship Noble Muravlenko. The Noble Muravlenko is currently operating under a six-year contract with Petrobras ending in 2015 at a base dayrate of $290,000, exclusive of a potential performance bonus of 15 percent. After the substitution, the Noble Phoenix would operate under the same terms. The swap of the Noble Phoenix for the Noble Muravlenko is expected to address certain reliability issues faced by the Noble Muravlenko. Following release by Shell, the Noble Phoenix is scheduled to undergo limited contract preparations, after which the unit would mobilize to Brazil. We expect that acceptance of the Noble Phoenix in Brazil by Petrobras would take place in the fourth quarter of 2011. The Noble Muravlenko is expected to continue operating in Brazil until the arrival and acceptance of the Noble Phoenix. Associated with the cancellation of the contract on the Noble Phoenix, we anticipate booking a first quarter 2011 non-cash gain of approximately $55 million. The gain is not taxable.

We decided, after analyzing available alternatives, that we will not proceed with the previously announced reliability upgrade to the Noble Muravlenko that was scheduled to take place in 2013. As a result of the cancellation of the upgrade, we expect that our first quarter 2011 results will include an associated non-cash impairment charge currently estimated to be approximately $40 million. There is no tax effect to the charge. We have begun exploring alternatives and potential opportunities for the Noble Muravlenko. The upgrade projects on the Noble Leo Segerius and Noble Roger Eason are expected to go forward and we anticipate that the Noble Leo Segerius will enter the shipyard in Brazil in the first quarter of 2011 to commence its upgrade.

The transactions contemplated by the MOU are contingent on Petrobras board approval and execution of definitive agreements with Petrobras. Our ability to deliver the Noble Phoenix to Petrobras as scheduled is subject to the timely release of the unit by Shell and completion of the contract preparation work.

Construction of High Specification Jackups

In December 2010, we entered into an agreement for the construction of two high-specification heavy duty, harsh environment jackup drilling rigs with Sembcorp Marine's subsidiary Jurong Shipyard in Singapore. The new units are scheduled for delivery in the fourth quarter 2012 and second quarter of 2013, respectively. Total delivered costs are estimated at approximately $220 million per rig, including project management, spares, and start-up costs, but excluding capitalized interest. Payment terms are twenty percent of the construction price due at contract signing, twenty percent due at steel cutting, and the remainder due at rig delivery. The contract also contains options for up to four additional units which must be exercised by January 1, 2012. Each option unit is priced based on the original unit price, plus a potential escalation factor, with future deliveries scheduled in six month increments beginning in late 2013.

The Friede & Goldman JU3000N design is an enhanced evolution of the JU2000E design and represents the latest generation of high specification jackup drilling rigs with greater capacities and capabilities than most existing units. The rigs are designed to operate in water depths of up to 400 feet and drill to depths of 30,000 feet.

Proposed New Revolving Credit Facility

Noble-Cayman is currently negotiating with certain banks (including affiliates of certain of the underwriters in this offering), serving as joint lead arrangers, to enter into an additional revolving credit facility in the first quarter of 2011. If entered into, this additional revolving credit facility is expected to have an initial capacity of $300 million. The facility will then be syndicated to a broader bank group and, subject to certain conditions, have a targeted capacity of $600 million. The facility is expected to mature in 2015 and provide Noble-Cayman with the ability to issue up to $150 million in letters of credit. We expect the covenants and events of default under the proposed additional revolving credit facility to be substantially similar to Noble-

Table of Contents

Cayman's existing revolving credit facility, which will remain in place. We also expect the facility to be guaranteed by NHIL and Noble Drilling Corporation.

Nigerian Customs Matter

In November 2010, Noble-Swiss reached a settlement with the U.S. Department of Justice and the SEC in connection with their investigation under the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of certain reimbursement payments made by its Nigerian affiliate to customs agents in Nigeria. In January 2011, the Nigerian Economic and Financial Crimes Commission and the Nigerian Attorney General Office initiated an investigation into these same activities. A subsidiary of Noble-Swiss has resolved this matter through the execution of a non-prosecution agreement dated January 28, 2011. Pursuant to this agreement, the subsidiary will pay $2.5 million to resolve all charges and claims of the Nigerian government.

The due and punctual payment of the principal of, premium, if any, interest on and all other amounts due under the notes will be fully and unconditionally guaranteed by Noble-Cayman. The guarantee will (a) be a general unsecured and unsubordinated senior obligation of Noble-Cayman, (b) rank equally with all existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of Noble-Cayman and to other guarantees of Noble-Cayman that are senior, unsecured obligations and (c) be effectively subordinated to any future secured indebtedness of Noble-Cayman and to all existing and future indebtedness of Noble-Cayman's subsidiaries.

As of September 30, 2010, after giving effect to this offering and the use of proceeds therefrom (assuming we issue $1.1 billion aggregate principal amount of notes), Noble-Cayman would have had $3.1 billion of indebtedness outstanding. Of this amount, Noble-Cayman and NHIL would be obligated as issuers and guarantors on $2.9 billion of indebtedness (including the notes offered hereby) and Noble-Cayman and certain of its subsidiaries other than NHIL would be obligated as issuers, co-issuers and guarantors on $201.7 million of indebtedness. As a result, as of September 30, 2010, after giving effect to this offering and the use of proceeds therefrom, the notes offered hereby will be effectively subordinated to the obligations of certain subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman other than NHIL (but which are subsidiaries of NHIL) on $201.7 million of indebtedness. Until a portion of the net proceeds from this offering are used, as described in Use of Proceeds, in connection with repayment of the indebtedness owed by the joint ventures that own the Bully I and Bully II drillships, the notes offered hereby will also be effectively subordinated to the obligations of such joint ventures on an aggregate of $693 million (as of January 26, 2011) of secured indebtedness (to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness).

In addition to the debt described above, Noble-Cayman has a $600 million unsecured revolving credit facility and NHIL and Noble Drilling Corporation (Noble Drilling) have guaranteed any borrowings outstanding under that facility. As of January 26, 2011, there were $240 million of borrowings outstanding under that facility.

Noble-Cayman is currently negotiating with certain banks, serving as joint lead arrangers, to enter into an additional revolving credit facility in the first quarter of 2011. If entered into, this additional revolving credit facility is expected to have an initial capacity of $300 million. The facility will then be syndicated to a broader bank group and, subject to certain conditions, have a targeted capacity of $600 million. We expect the covenants and events of default under the proposed additional revolving credit facility to be substantially similar to Noble-Cayman's existing revolving credit facility, which will remain in place. We also expect the facility to be guaranteed by NHIL and Noble Drilling. See Summary Proposed New Revolving Credit Facility.

Certain Covenants	The indenture governing the notes will contain covenants that, among other things, will limit the ability of Noble-Cayman and its subsidiaries, including NHIL, to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">create certain liens;engage in certain sale and lease-back transactions; andamalgamate, merge, consolidate and sell assets, except under certain conditions. These covenants have various exceptions and qualifications, which are described under Description of the Notes Certain Covenants in this prospectus supplement.
Future Issuances	Initially, the 20 notes will be limited to $ million in aggregate principal amount, the 20 notes will be limited to $ million in aggregate principal amount and the 20 notes will be limited to $ million in aggregate principal amount. NHIL may, however, reopen any series of notes and issue an unlimited amount of additional notes of that series in the future.
Use of Proceeds	We estimate that the net proceeds from this offering will be approximately $ million, after underwriting discounts and estimated offering expenses. NHIL intends to transfer the net proceeds to Noble-Cayman as advances, distributions, repayment of outstanding intercompany indebtedness or a combination of these. Noble-Cayman intends to use the net proceeds to repay indebtedness outstanding under its existing revolving credit facility, to repay in full its portion of indebtedness outstanding under the Bully I credit facility and the Bully II credit facility and for general corporate purposes, including its 2011 capital expenditure program. See Use of Proceeds in this prospectus supplement. Affiliates of certain of the underwriters are lenders under our existing revolving credit facility, the Bully I credit facility or the Bully II credit facility and, accordingly, will receive a portion of the net proceeds from the offering. RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the following risk factors, in addition to the other information contained in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and the periodic reports of Noble-Cayman that are incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement, including the information set forth in Part I, Item 1A, Risk Factors, of Noble-Cayman's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 and Part II, Item 1A, Risk Factors, of Noble-Cayman's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2010, before purchasing any notes offered hereby.

Risks Relating to the Notes

There is no established trading market for the notes of any series, and therefore there are uncertainties regarding the price and terms on which a holder could dispose of the notes, if at all.

Each series of the notes will constitute a new issue of securities with no established trading market. We have not applied and do not intend to apply to list the notes on any national securities exchange or inter-dealer quotation system. The underwriters have advised us that they intend to make a market in the notes, but they are not obligated to do so. The underwriters may discontinue any market-making in the notes at any time, in their sole discretion. As a result, we are unable to assure you as to the presence or the liquidity of any trading market for the notes of any series.

We cannot assure you that you will be able to sell your notes at a particular time or that the prices that you receive if and when you sell will be favorable. We also cannot assure you as to the level of liquidity of the trading market for the notes. Future trading prices of the notes will depend on many factors, including:

- our operating performance and financial condition;
- the interest of securities dealers in making a market and the number of available buyers;
- the market for similar securities; and
- prevailing interest rates.

You should not purchase the notes unless you understand, and know you can bear, all of the investment risks involving the notes.

The notes are obligations exclusively of NHIL and Noble-Cayman, as guarantor, and not of our subsidiaries or Noble-Cayman's other subsidiaries, and payments to holders of the notes will be effectively subordinated to the claims of such other subsidiaries' creditors.

The notes are obligations exclusively of NHIL and Noble-Cayman, as guarantor of payment of the notes, and not of our subsidiaries or Noble-Cayman's other subsidiaries. We conduct our operations primarily through our subsidiaries, and our subsidiaries generate substantially all of our operating income and cash flow. As a result, distributions or advances from our subsidiaries are important sources of funds to meet our debt-service obligations. Contractual provisions or laws, as well as our subsidiaries' financial condition and operating requirements, may limit our ability to obtain from our subsidiaries cash that we need to pay our debt-service obligations, including payments on the notes. Our subsidiaries will be permitted under the terms of the indenture governing the notes to incur additional indebtedness that may restrict or prohibit the making of distributions, the payment of dividends or the making of loans by such subsidiaries to us. We cannot assure you that the agreements governing the current and future indebtedness of our subsidiaries will permit our subsidiaries to provide us with sufficient dividends, distributions or loans to fund payments on the notes when due.

Our right to receive any assets of any of our subsidiaries upon their liquidation or reorganization, and, therefore, the right of the holders of the notes to participate in those assets, will be structurally subordinated to all indebtedness and other liabilities of such subsidiaries. As a result, holders of the notes have a junior position to the claims of creditors of such subsidiaries on their assets and earnings.

As of September 30, 2010, after giving effect to this offering and the use of proceeds therefrom (assuming we issue $1.1 billion aggregate principal amount of notes), Noble-Cayman would have had $3.1 billion of indebtedness outstanding. Of this amount, Noble-Cayman and NHIL would be obligated as issuers and guarantors on $2.9 billion of indebtedness (including the notes offered hereby) and Noble-Cayman and certain of its subsidiaries other than NHIL would be obligated as issuers, co-issuers and guarantors on $201.7 million of indebtedness. As a result, as of September 30, 2010, after giving effect to this offering and the use of proceeds therefrom, the notes offered hereby will be effectively subordinated to the obligations of certain subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman other than NHIL (but which are subsidiaries of NHIL) on $201.7 million of indebtedness and to any secured debt (as described in the following risk factor).

Payments on the notes, including under the guarantee, will be effectively subordinated to claims of secured creditors.

The notes represent unsecured obligations of NHIL. Accordingly, any secured creditor of NHIL or any subsidiary of NHIL will have claims that are superior to the claims of holders of the notes to the extent of the value of the assets securing that other indebtedness. Similarly, the guarantee of the notes will effectively rank junior to any secured debt of Noble-Cayman, as the guarantor, or any of its subsidiaries, to the extent of the value of the assets securing the debt. In the event of any distribution or payment of assets of NHIL or Noble-Cayman or any of their respective subsidiaries in any foreclosure, dissolution, winding-up, liquidation, reorganization or other bankruptcy proceeding, secured creditors of NHIL, Noble-Cayman and such subsidiaries, respectively, will have a superior claim to their collateral. If any of the foregoing events occur, we cannot assure you that there will be sufficient assets to pay amounts due on the notes. Holders of the notes will participate ratably with all holders of unsecured senior indebtedness of NHIL, and with all of our other general senior creditors, based upon the respective amounts owed to each holder or creditor, in the remaining assets of NHIL. As a result, holders of notes may receive less, ratably, than secured creditors of NHIL. As of January 26, 2011, NHIL and its subsidiaries had no secured indebtedness outstanding, except that the joint ventures that own the Bully I and Bully II drillships were obligated on an aggregate of $693.0 million of secured indebtedness, of which our portion was $185.0 million and $161.6 million respectively.

As described under Use of Proceeds, we currently expect to repay in full indebtedness outstanding under the Bully I credit facility and the Bully II credit facility with a portion of the net proceeds of this offering. Such repayment is subject to certain conditions and approvals, however, including approval of our joint venture partner, which we believe will be provided. In December, 2010, we received a waiver under the Bully I credit facility relating to a delay in the delivery date for the Bully I drillship, which was originally scheduled for December 30, 2010 and is currently scheduled for August 2011. If we are unable to repay and terminate the facility or to amend or restructure the facility or obtain an extension of the waiver prior to its expiration on February 28, 2011, an event of default may result under the Bully I credit facility. If the lenders declared an event of default under the Bully I credit facility, the aggregate principal amount could come due.

We could enter into various transactions that could increase the amount of our outstanding debt, adversely affect our capital structure or credit ratings or otherwise adversely affect holders of the notes.

The terms of the notes do not prevent us from entering into a variety of acquisition, change-of-control, refinancing, recapitalization or other highly leveraged transactions. As a result, we could enter into a variety of transactions that could increase the total amount of our outstanding indebtedness, adversely affect our capital structure or credit ratings or otherwise adversely affect the holders of the notes.

To service our indebtedness, we will use a significant amount of cash. Our ability to generate cash to service our indebtedness depends on many factors beyond our control.

Our ability to make payments on our indebtedness, including the notes, and to fund planned capital expenditures will depend on our ability to generate cash in the future. This ability, to a certain extent, is subject to general economic, financial, competitive, legislative, regulatory and other factors that are beyond our control. We cannot assure you that cash flow generated from our business and other sources of cash, including future borrowings by Noble-Cayman under its existing revolving credit facility, will be sufficient to enable us to pay our indebtedness, including the notes, and to fund our other liquidity needs.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We estimate that the net proceeds from this offering will be approximately $ million, after underwriting discounts and estimated offering expenses. NHIL intends to transfer the net proceeds to Noble-Cayman as advances, distributions, repayment of outstanding intercompany indebtedness or a combination of these. Noble-Cayman intends to use approximately $240 million of the net proceeds to repay indebtedness outstanding under its existing revolving credit facility, approximately $347 million of the net proceeds to repay in full its portion of indebtedness outstanding under the Bully I credit facility and the Bully II credit facility and the remaining net proceeds for general corporate purposes, including the 2011 capital expenditure program. Repayment of the Bully I and Bully II credit facilities is subject to certain conditions and approvals, however, including approval of our joint venture partner, which we believe will be provided. Pending use of the portion of the net proceeds to be used to repay indebtedness under the Bully I and Bully II credit facilities and for general corporate purposes, we intend to invest such net proceeds in U.S. government obligations, bank deposits or in other secure, short-term investments.

As of January 26, 2011, there were $240 million of borrowings outstanding under our revolving credit facility. The weighted average interest rate on the total amount outstanding at January 26, 2011 was 0.50%. Our revolving credit facility matures on March 15, 2013. Our borrowings under the credit facility in the most recent year were incurred for working capital purposes and capital expenditures.

Affiliates of certain of the underwriters are lenders under our revolving credit facility and, accordingly, will receive a portion of the net proceeds from this offering. See Underwriting .

As of January 26, 2011, there were $370 million of borrowings outstanding under the Bully I credit facility and our portion of such indebtedness was $185 million. The weighted average interest rate on the total amount outstanding at January 26, 2011 under the Bully I credit facility was 2.8%. The Bully I credit facility matures in 2016. The Bully I joint venture s borrowings under the credit facility in the most recent year were incurred to fund the construction of the Bully I drillship.

As of January 26, 2011, there were $323 million of borrowings outstanding under the Bully II credit facility and our portion of such indebtedness was $162 million. The weighted average interest rate on the total amount outstanding at January 26, 2011 under the Bully II credit facility was 2.6%. The Bully II credit facility matures in 2018. The Bully II joint venture s borrowings under the credit facility in the most recent year were incurred to fund the construction of the Bully II drillship.

Affiliates of certain of the underwriters are lenders under the Bully I credit facility or Bully II credit facility and, accordingly, will receive a portion of the net proceeds from this offering. See Underwriting.

The following table sets forth Noble-Cayman's consolidated (1) cash and cash equivalents and (2) capitalization, all as of September 30, 2010 on an actual basis and on an as adjusted basis to give effect to the offering of the notes and the use of proceeds therefrom and assuming repayment of 50% of the outstanding indebtedness under the Bully I and Bully II credit facilities by our joint venture partner.

Table of ContentsDESCRIPTION OF CERTAIN OTHER INDEBTEDNESS*Indebtedness of Noble-Cayman and NHIL and Related Guarantees

At January 26, 2011, Noble-Cayman and its subsidiaries, including NHIL and its subsidiaries, had approximately $2.0 billion of unsecured long-term senior notes (including current maturities) outstanding. At that date, Noble-Cayman had $240 million of borrowings outstanding under its $600 million unsecured revolving credit facility, described below.

The $2.0 billion of long-term senior notes of Noble-Cayman and its subsidiaries outstanding at January 26, 2011 was originally issued by Noble-Cayman ($300 million original principal amount), NHIL ($1.5 billion original principal amount) and Noble Drilling ($250 million original principal amount; $202 million aggregate principal amount outstanding as of January 26, 2011). At the time of issuance of such senior notes or subsequent to such issuance, Noble-Cayman or one or more subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman was or became a co-issuer or guarantor or otherwise became obligated on such senior notes, such that at January 26, 2011 the issuers, co-issuers and guarantors of such senior notes were as follows:

Notes	Issuer (Co-Issuer(s))	Guarantor(s)
$300 million 5.875% Senior Notes due 2013	Noble-Cayman	Noble Drilling; NHIL
$250 million 7.375% Senior Notes due 2014	NHIL	Noble-Cayman
$350 million 3.45% Senior Notes due 2015	NHIL	Noble-Cayman
$500 million 4.90% Senior Notes due 2020	NHIL	Noble-Cayman
$400 million 6.20% Senior Notes due 2040	NHIL	Noble-Cayman
$202 million 7.50% Senior Notes due 2019	Noble Drilling; (Noble Drilling Holding LLC); (Noble Drilling Services 6 LLC)	Noble-Cayman; Noble Holding (U.S.) Corporation

As a result, at January 26, 2011, each of Noble-Cayman and NHIL was an issuer or guarantor of $1.98 billion aggregate principal amount of senior notes. In addition, Noble-Cayman was a guarantor of an additional $202 million aggregate principal amount of senior notes issued by Noble Drilling and as to which several additional subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman (as shown in the table above) were guarantors or co-issuers (and effectively guarantors). All of the entities listed in the table above, other than Noble-Cayman, are indirect subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman. None of the entities listed in the table above are subsidiaries of NHIL except for Noble Drilling Holding LLC and Noble Drilling Services 6 LLC, which are direct, wholly owned subsidiaries of NHIL.

At January 26, 2011, none of the outstanding indebtedness of Noble-Cayman and its subsidiaries, including NHIL, was secured, except for an aggregate of $693 million of secured indebtedness issued by the joint ventures that own the Bully I and Bully II drillships.

Noble-Cayman Unsecured Revolving Credit Facility

Noble-Cayman has a $600 million unsecured revolving credit facility, which is scheduled to mature on March 15, 2013. From March 15, 2012 through March 15, 2013, the total amount available under the credit facility will be $575 million, but we have the right to seek an increase of the total amount available to $600 million. We may, subject to certain conditions, including lender consent, request that the term of the credit facility be extended for an additional one-year period. Noble Drilling and NHIL have guaranteed the obligations under the credit facility. Pursuant to the terms of the credit facility, we may, subject to certain conditions, including lender consent, elect to increase the amount available up to $800 million. The credit facility provides Noble-Cayman with the ability to issue up to $150 million in letters of credit. While Noble-Cayman's issuance of letters of credit does not increase its borrowings outstanding, it does reduce the amount available. Borrowings may be made under the facility (a) at the sum of Adjusted LIBOR (as defined) plus an applicable margin (currently 0.235 percent based on our current credit ratings), or (b) at the base rate (the greater of the prime rate for U.S. dollar loans announced by Citibank, N.A. or the sum of the weighted average overnight federal funds rate published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York plus 0.50 percent).

Table of Contents

The margin applicable to the interest rate under the credit facility may increase if we are subject to a ratings downgrade.

As of January 26, 2011, we had $240 million of borrowings outstanding under this credit facility, leaving $360 million remaining available under this credit facility.

Noble-Cayman is currently negotiating with certain banks (including affiliates of certain of the underwriters in this offering), serving as joint lead arrangers, to enter into an additional revolving credit facility in the first quarter of 2011. If entered into, this additional revolving credit facility is expected to have an initial capacity of $300 million. The facility will then be syndicated to a broader bank group and, subject to certain conditions, have a targeted capacity of $600 million. The facility is expected to mature in 2015 and provide Noble-Cayman with the ability to issue up to $150 million in letters of credit. We expect the covenants and events of default under the proposed additional revolving credit facility to be substantially similar to Noble-Cayman's existing revolving credit facility, which will remain in place. We also expect the facility to be guaranteed by NHIL and Noble Drilling.

Certain Letters of Credit, Surety and Other Bonds and Guarantees

Noble-Cayman had letters of credit of approximately $128 million and performance and tax assessment bonds totaling approximately $364 million supported by surety bonds outstanding at September 30, 2010. Additionally, certain of Noble's subsidiaries issue, from time to time, guarantees of the temporary import status of rigs or equipment imported into certain countries in which they operate. These guarantees are issued in lieu of payment of custom, value added or similar taxes in those countries.

Secured Credit Facilities and Unsecured Notes for Bully I and Bully II Joint Ventures

On July 28, 2010, Noble-Swiss and Noble AM Merger Co, a Cayman Islands company and indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Noble-Swiss, completed the acquisition of FDR Holdings Limited, a Cayman Islands company and the parent entity of the Frontier companies. In connection with this transaction, we acquired a 50% interest in two joint ventures that are constructing and own the rights to the Bully I and Bully II drillships. Each of these joint ventures is consolidated in our consolidated financial statements. Each of the Bully I and Bully II joint ventures has a secured credit facility in place to finance the construction of the drillship being constructed by such joint venture. The indebtedness under each of the Bully I and Bully II credit facilities is non-recourse to Noble-Cayman and NHIL. None of Noble-Cayman, NHIL and Noble-Swiss, and no other subsidiary of Noble-Swiss, has guaranteed the indebtedness under the Bully I or Bully II credit facilities.

As described under Use of Proceeds, we currently expect to repay in full indebtedness outstanding under the Bully I credit facility and Bully II credit facility with a portion of the net proceeds of this offering. Such repayment is subject to certain conditions and approvals, however, including approval of our joint venture partner, which we believe will be provided. Until a portion of the net proceeds from this offering are used, as described in Use of Proceeds, in connection with repayment of the indebtedness owed by the joint ventures that own the Bully I and Bully II drillships, the notes offered hereby will also be effectively subordinated to the obligations of such joint ventures on an aggregate of $693 million (as of January 26, 2011) of secured indebtedness (to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness).

The Bully I secured credit facility provides for a $465 million senior secured term loan and credit facility, including a $375 million senior secured term loan, a $40 million senior secured credit facility revolver and a $50 million junior secured credit facility. As of January 26, 2011, $370 million of senior secured loans were outstanding under this facility. The senior secured term loan requires 20 quarterly payments of $15.75 million, starting at the end of the first complete quarter after the earlier of delivery and acceptance of the Bully I drillship or December 30, 2010. In addition to the final quarterly payment of $15.75 million, a final balloon payment of up to $60 million is due on the earlier occurrence of five years after the delivery and acceptance of the Bully I or December 31, 2015. The senior secured credit facility revolver is also due in full on the final balloon payment date. The junior secured credit facility requires quarterly payments, based on an excess cash flow calculation defined in the facility agreement, commencing after the third complete quarter following delivery and acceptance of the Bully I drillship with final payment to be made on the final balloon payment date. The senior secured term loan provides for floating interest rates that are fixed for one-, three- or six-month periods at LIBOR plus 2.5% prior to delivery and acceptance of the drillship and 1.5% thereafter. The Bully I credit facility is secured by assignments of the major contracts for the construction of the drillship and its equipment, the drilling contract for the drillship, and various other rights. In addition, when the drillship is registered following completion of construction, the credit facility will be secured by a first-preferred ship mortgage. In December, 2010, we received a waiver under the Bully I credit facility relating to a delay in the delivery date for the Bully I drillship, which was originally scheduled for December 30, 2010. If we are unable to repay and terminate the facility or to amend or restructure the facility or obtain an extension of the waiver prior to its expiration on February 28, 2011, an event of default may result under the Bully I credit facility. See Risk Factors Payments on the notes, including under the guarantee, will be effectively subordinated to claims of secured creditors.

The Bully II secured credit facility provides for a $495 million senior secured term loan and credit facility, including a $435 million senior secured term loan, a $10 million senior secured credit facility revolver and a $50 million secured cost overrun term loan. As of January 26, 2011, $323 million of senior secured loans were outstanding under this facility. The senior secured term loan requires 28 quarterly payments beginning soon after commencement of operations by the Bully II drillship or July 15, 2011. The final quarterly payment will be paid together with a one-time balloon payment of up to $90 million plus any other amount outstanding under the senior secured revolving credit facility on the final 28th quarterly installment payment date. The senior secured term loan provides for floating interest rates that are fixed for three months or such other period selected by the borrower and agreed by the agent, at LIBOR plus 2.5% prior to the occurrence of the delivery date of the hull, thereafter LIBOR plus 2.3% until contract commencement, and thereafter LIBOR plus 2.25% until the first day of the sixth anniversary of the contract commencement, and thereafter 2.4%. Interest under this facility has been deferred and capitalized as principal. The secured cost overrun term loan has floating interest rates of LIBOR plus 3.5% prior to the occurrence of the contract commencement and 3.25% thereafter. The Bully II credit facility is secured by assignments of the major contracts for the construction of the drillship and its equipment, the drilling contract for the drillship, and various other rights. In addition, when the drillship is registered following completion of construction, the credit facility will be secured by a first-preferred ship mortgage. If we are unable to repay and terminate the Bully II credit facility or to amend or restructure the facility or obtain a waiver prior to March 30, 2011, an event of default may result under the Bully II credit facility. See Risk Factors Payments on the notes, including under the guarantee, will be effectively subordinated to claims of secured creditors.

In September 2010, the Bully I and Bully II joint venture partners advanced a total of $70 million to the Bully I and Bully II joint ventures. The advances are represented by unsecured notes, and the interest rate on these notes is 10%, payable semi-annually in arrears and in kind on June 30 and December 31 commencing in December 2010. The purpose of these notes is to provide additional liquidity to these joint ventures in connection with the shipyard construction of the Bully vessels. Our portion of the joint venture partner notes totaled $35 million, which was eliminated in our balance sheets. The non-eliminated portions of these notes totaled $18 million for the Bully I joint venture and $17 million for the Bully II joint venture and are due in 2016 and 2018, respectively.

DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES

The notes of each series offered by this prospectus supplement will constitute a separate series of senior debt securities of NHIL as described below and in the accompanying prospectus. The notes will be issued under an indenture between NHIL, as issuer, and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee, and a third supplemental indenture among NHIL, as issuer, the trustee and Noble-Cayman, as guarantor. In this section, references to the indenture refer to the indenture as supplemented and amended by the third supplemental indenture. The summary of selected provisions of the notes and the indenture referred to below supplements, and to the extent inconsistent supersedes and replaces, the description of the general terms and provisions of the senior debt securities and the indenture contained in the accompanying prospectus under the caption Description of Debt Securities. This summary is not complete and is qualified by reference to provisions of the notes and the indenture. Forms of the notes and the indenture, including the third supplemental indenture providing for the guarantee by Noble-Cayman, have been or will be filed by Noble-Cayman with the SEC, and you may obtain copies as described under Where You Can Find More Information in the accompanying prospectus. Capitalized terms used and not defined in this description have the meaning given them in the accompanying prospectus or the indenture.

In this section, references to NHIL, we, our, us and the Company mean NHIL, excluding, unless otherwise expressly stated or the context otherwise requires, its subsidiaries, and references to Noble-Cayman mean Noble-Cayman, excluding, unless otherwise expressly stated or the context otherwise requires, its subsidiaries.

General

The 20 notes, the 20 notes and the 20 notes will each constitute a separate series of senior debt securities under the indenture, initially limited to $ million aggregate principal amount of 20 notes, $ million aggregate principal amount of 20 notes and $ million aggregate principal amount of 20 notes. We may, from time to time, without giving notice to or seeking the consent of the holders of the debt securities, issue additional notes having the same ranking, interest rate, maturity and other terms as the 20 notes, the 20 notes or the 20 notes issued in this offering. Any additional 20 notes having such similar terms together with the previously issued 20 notes will constitute a single series of debt securities under the indenture, any additional 20 notes having such similar terms together with the previously issued 20 notes will constitute a single series of debt securities under the indenture and any additional 20 notes having such similar terms together with the previously issued 20 notes will constitute a single series of debt securities under the indenture.

The 20 notes will mature on , 20 and will bear interest at the rate of % per annum, accruing from , 2011. The 20 notes will mature on , 20 and will bear interest at the rate of % per annum, accruing from , 2011. The 20 notes will mature on , 20 and will bear interest at the rate of % per annum, accruing from , 2011. Interest on the notes of each series will be paid semi-annually, in arrears, on and to the holders of record at the close of business on the and immediately preceding the applicable interest payment date. Interest on the notes will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months.

If any interest payment date, redemption date or the maturity date of the notes is not a business day at any place of payment, then payment of the principal, premium, if any, and interest may be made on the next business day at that place of payment. In that case, no interest will accrue on the amount payable for the period from and after the applicable interest payment date, redemption date or maturity date, as the case may be.

Edgar Filing: NOBLE CORP - Form 424B3

The notes of each series initially will be issued in book-entry form and represented by one or more global notes deposited with, or on behalf of, The Depository Trust Company, as Depository, and registered in the name of Cede & Co., its nominee. This means that you will not be entitled to receive a certificate for the notes that you purchase except under the limited circumstances described below under the caption Book-Entry, Delivery and Form. If any of the notes are issued in certificated form they will be issued only in fully registered form without coupons, in denominations of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof.

So long as the notes are in book-entry form, you will receive payments and may transfer notes only through the facilities of the Depository and its direct and indirect participants. See Book-Entry, Delivery and Form below. We will maintain an office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York where notices and demands in respect of the notes and the indenture may be delivered to us and where certificated notes may be surrendered for payment, registration of transfer or exchange. That office or agency will initially be the office of the agent of the trustee in the City of New York, which is currently located at The Bank of New York Mellon, 101 Barclay Street 7 East, New York, New York 10286.

So long as the notes are in book-entry form, we will make payments on the notes to the Depository or its nominee, as the registered owner of the notes, by wire transfer of immediately available funds. If notes are issued in definitive certificated form under the limited circumstances described below under the caption Book-Entry, Delivery and Form, we will have the option of paying interest by check mailed to the addresses of the persons entitled to payment or by wire transfer to bank accounts in the United States designated in writing to the trustee at least 15 days before the applicable payment date by the persons entitled to payment.

We will pay principal of and any premium on the notes of each series at their stated maturity, upon redemption or otherwise, upon presentation of the notes at the office of the trustee, as our paying agent. In our discretion, we may appoint one or more additional paying agents and security registrars and designate one or more additional places for payment and for registration of transfer, but we must at all times maintain a place of payment of the notes and a place for registration of transfer of the notes in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York.

We will be entitled to redeem the notes at our option as described below under the caption Optional Redemption. You will not be permitted to require us to redeem or repurchase the notes. The notes will not be subject to a sinking fund.

Ranking of Notes; Guarantee

The notes will be our general unsecured and unsubordinated obligations and will rank on a parity in right of payment with any and all of our other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. The notes are our obligations exclusively, and are not the obligations of any of our subsidiaries or other subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman. Because we conduct our operations primarily through our subsidiaries and substantially all of our consolidated assets are held by our subsidiaries, we depend on the cash flow of our subsidiaries to meet our obligations, including our obligations under the notes. As a result, the notes will be effectively subordinated to any and all existing and future indebtedness and other liabilities and commitments (including trade payables and lease obligations) of our subsidiaries. In the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization of any of these subsidiaries, the subsidiaries will pay the holders of their debt and their trade creditors before they will be able to distribute any of their assets to us.

The due and punctual payment of the principal of, premium, if any, interest on and all other amounts due under the notes will be fully and unconditionally guaranteed by Noble-Cayman. The guarantee will be the general unsecured obligation as to payment of Noble-Cayman and will rank equally with all existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of Noble-Cayman, including other guarantees by Noble-Cayman in favor of its subsidiaries other than NHIL. Because Noble-Cayman conducts its operations primarily through its subsidiaries and substantially all of its consolidated assets are held by the subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman, Noble-Cayman depends on the cash flow of its subsidiaries to meet its obligations, including its obligations under the guarantee relating to the notes. As a result, the guarantee will be effectively subordinated to any and all existing and future indebtedness and other liabilities and commitments (including trade payables and lease obligations) of the subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman other than NHIL. In the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization of any of these subsidiaries, the subsidiaries will pay the holders of their debt and their trade creditors before they will be able to distribute any of their assets to Noble-Cayman.

As of September 30, 2010, after giving effect to this offering and the use of proceeds therefrom (assuming we issue $1.1 billion aggregate principal amount of notes), Noble-Cayman would have had $3.1 billion of indebtedness outstanding. Of this amount, Noble-Cayman and NHIL would be obligated as issuers and guarantors on $2.9 billion of indebtedness (including the notes offered hereby) and Noble-Cayman and certain of its subsidiaries other than NHIL would be obligated as issuers, co-issuers and guarantors on $201.7 million of indebtedness. As a result, as of September 30, 2010, after giving effect to this offering and the use of proceeds therefrom, the notes offered hereby will be effectively subordinated to the obligations of certain subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman other than NHIL (but which are subsidiaries of NHIL) on $201.7 million of indebtedness.

In addition to the debt described above, Noble-Cayman has a $600 million unsecured revolving credit facility and NHIL and Noble Drilling Corporation have guaranteed any borrowings outstanding under that facility. As of January 26, 2011, there were $240 million of borrowings outstanding under that facility. Noble-Cayman is currently negotiating with certain banks, serving as joint lead arrangers, to enter into an additional revolving credit facility in the first quarter of 2011. If entered into, this additional revolving credit facility is expected to have an initial capacity of $300 million. The facility will then be syndicated to a broader bank group and, subject to certain conditions, have a targeted capacity of $600 million. See Summary Proposed New Revolving Credit Facility.

Optional Redemption

The notes of each series will be redeemable, at our option, at any time or from time to time, in whole or in part, on any date prior to maturity (the Redemption Date) in principal amounts of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof at a price (the Redemption Price) equal to 100% of the principal amount of the notes of the series being redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the Redemption Date (subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on an Interest Payment Date that is on or prior to the Redemption Date), plus a Make-Whole Premium, if any is required to be paid. The Redemption Price will never be less than 100% of the principal amount of the notes of the series being redeemed plus accrued and unpaid interest to the Redemption Date.

The amount of the Make-Whole Premium with respect to any note (or portion of a note) to be redeemed will be equal to the excess, if any, of:

(i) the sum of the present values, calculated as of the Redemption Date, of:

(A) each interest payment that, but for the redemption, would have been payable on the note (or its portion) being redeemed on each Interest Payment Date occurring after the Redemption Date (excluding any accrued interest for the period before the Redemption Date); and

(B) the principal amount that, but for the redemption, would have been payable at the final maturity of the note (or its portion) being redeemed;

(ii) the principal amount of the note (or its portion) being redeemed.

The present values of interest and principal payments referred to in clause (i) above will be determined in accordance with generally accepted principles of financial analysis. Those present values will be calculated by discounting the amount of each payment of interest or principal from the date that each payment would have been payable, but for the redemption, to the Redemption Date at a discount rate equal to the Treasury Yield (as defined below) plus basis points in the case of the 20 notes, basis points in the case of the 20 notes and basis points in the case of the 20 notes.

The Make-Whole Premium will be calculated by an independent investment banking institution of national standing appointed by us, provided that if we fail to make such appointment at least 45 business days prior to the Redemption Date, or if the institution so appointed is unwilling or unable to make the calculation, such calculation will be made by Barclays Capital Inc. or, if that firm is unwilling or unable to make the calculation, by an independent investment banking institution of national standing appointed by the trustee (in any such case, an Independent Investment Banker).

For purposes of determining the Make-Whole Premium, Treasury Yield means a rate of interest per annum equal to the weekly average yield to maturity of United States Treasury Notes that have a constant maturity that corresponds to the remaining term to maturity of the applicable series of notes, calculated to the nearest 1/12 of a year (the Remaining Term). The Treasury Yield will be determined as of the third business day immediately before the applicable Redemption Date.

The weekly average yields of United States Treasury Notes will be determined by referring to the most recent statistical release published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and designated H.15(519) Selected Interest Rates or any successor release (the H.15 Statistical Release). If the H.15 Statistical Release contains a weekly average yield for United States Treasury Notes having a constant maturity that is the same as the Remaining Term, then the Treasury Yield will be equal to that weekly average yield. In all other cases, the Treasury Yield will be calculated by interpolation, on a straight-line basis, between the weekly average yields on the United States Treasury Notes that have a constant maturity closest to and greater than the Remaining Term and the United States Treasury Notes that have a constant maturity closest to and less than the Remaining Term (in each case as set forth in the H.15 Statistical Release). Any weekly average yields as calculated by interpolation will be rounded to the nearest 1/100th of 1% with any figure of 1/200% or above being rounded upward. If weekly average yields for United States Treasury Notes are not available in the H.15 Statistical Release or otherwise, then the Treasury Yield will be calculated by interpolation of comparable rates selected by the Independent Investment Banker.

We will mail a notice of redemption at least 30 days but not more than 60 days before the redemption date to each holder of notes to be redeemed. If less than all of the notes are to be redeemed, the trustee will select the notes to be redeemed by such method as the trustee shall deem fair and appropriate. The trustee may select for redemption notes and portions of notes in denominations of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof. Unless we default in payment of the redemption price, on and after the redemption date, interest will cease to accrue on the notes or portions thereof called for redemption.

Certain Covenants

Limitation on Liens. The indenture provides that Noble-Cayman will not, and will not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, issue, assume or guarantee any Indebtedness for borrowed money secured by any Lien upon any Principal Property or any shares of stock or indebtedness of any Subsidiary that owns or leases a Principal Property (whether such Principal Property, shares of stock or indebtedness are now owned or hereafter acquired) without making effective provision whereby the notes (together with, if Noble-Cayman shall so determine, any other Indebtedness or other obligation) shall be secured equally and ratably with (or, at Noble-Cayman's option, prior to) the Indebtedness so secured for so long as such Indebtedness is so secured. The foregoing restrictions do not, however, apply to Indebtedness secured by Permitted Liens.

Permitted Liens means (i) Liens existing on the date of original issuance of notes; (ii) Liens on property or assets of, or any shares of stock of, or other equity interests in, or indebtedness of, any Person existing at the time such Person becomes a Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman or at the time such Person is merged into or consolidated with Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries or at the time of a sale, lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the properties and assets of a Person to Noble-Cayman or a Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman; (iii) Liens in favor of Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries; (iv) Liens in favor of governmental bodies to secure progress or advance payments; (v) Liens securing industrial revenue or pollution control bonds, or similar indebtedness; (vi) Liens on property securing (a) all or any portion of the cost of acquiring, constructing, altering, improving or repairing any property or assets, real or personal, or improvements used or to be used in connection with such property or (b) Indebtedness incurred by

Noble-Cayman or any Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman prior to or within one year after the later of the acquisition, the completion of construction, alteration, improvement or repair or the commencement of commercial operation thereof, which Indebtedness is incurred for the purpose of financing all or any part of the purchase price thereof or construction or improvements thereon; (vii) statutory liens or landlords , carriers , warehouseman s, mechanics , suppliers , materialmen s, repairmen s or other like Liens arising in the ordinary course of business and with respect to amounts not yet delinquent or being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings; (viii) Liens on current assets of Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries securing its Indebtedness or Indebtedness of any such Subsidiary, respectively; (ix) Liens on the stock, partnership or other equity interest of Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries in any Joint Venture or any Subsidiary that owns an equity interest in such Joint Venture to secure Indebtedness, provided the amount of such Indebtedness is contributed and/or advanced solely to such Joint Venture; (x) Liens under workers compensation or similar legislation; (xi) Liens in connection with legal proceedings or securing tax assessments, which in each case are being contested in good faith; (xii) good faith deposits in connection with bids, tenders, contracts or Liens; (xiii) deposits made in connection with maintaining self-insurance, to obtain the benefits of laws, regulations or arrangements relating to unemployment insurance, old age pensions, social security or similar matters or to secure surety, appeal or customs bonds; and (xiv) any extensions, substitutions, replacements or renewals in whole or in part of a Lien enumerated in clauses (i) through (xiii) above.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Noble-Cayman and its Subsidiaries may, without securing the notes, issue, assume or guarantee secured Indebtedness that would otherwise be subject to the foregoing restrictions in an aggregate principal amount that, together with all other such Indebtedness of Noble-Cayman and its Subsidiaries that would otherwise be subject to the foregoing restrictions (including Indebtedness permitted to be secured under clause (i) under the definition of Permitted Liens but excluding Indebtedness permitted to be secured under clauses (ii) through (xiv) thereunder) and the aggregate amount of Attributable Indebtedness deemed outstanding with respect to Sale/Leaseback Transactions (other than those in connection with which we have voluntarily retired any of the notes, any Pari Passu Indebtedness or any Funded Indebtedness pursuant to clause (c) below under the heading Limitation on Sale/Leaseback Transactions), does not at any one time exceed 15% of Noble-Cayman s Consolidated Net Tangible Assets.

Limitation on Sale/Leaseback Transactions. The indenture provides that Noble-Cayman will not, and will not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, enter into any Sale/Leaseback Transaction with any person (other than Noble-Cayman or a Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman) unless: (a) Noble-Cayman or such Subsidiary would be entitled to incur Indebtedness in a principal amount equal to the Attributable Indebtedness with respect to such Sale/Leaseback Transaction secured by a Lien on the property subject to such Sale/Leaseback Transaction pursuant to the covenant described under Limitation on Liens above without equally and ratably securing the notes pursuant to such covenant; (b) after the date of the first series of notes issued under the indenture and within a period commencing nine months prior to the consummation of such Sale/Leaseback Transaction and ending nine months after the consummation thereof, Noble-Cayman or such Subsidiary shall have expended for property used or to be used in the ordinary course of Noble-Cayman s business and that of its Subsidiaries an amount equal to all or a portion of the net proceeds of such Sale/Leaseback Transaction and Noble-Cayman shall have elected to designate such amount as a credit against such Sale/Leaseback Transaction (with any such amount not being so designated to be applied as set forth in clause (c) below or as otherwise permitted); or (c) we or Noble-Cayman, during the nine-month period after the effective date of such Sale/Leaseback Transaction, shall have applied to either (i) the voluntary defeasance or retirement of any notes, any Pari Passu Indebtedness or any Funded Indebtedness or (ii) the acquisition of one or more Principal Properties at fair value, an amount equal to the greater of the net proceeds of the sale or transfer of the property leased in such Sale/Leaseback Transaction and the fair value, as determined by the Board of Directors of Noble-Cayman, of such property as of the time of entering into such Sale/Leaseback Transaction (in either case adjusted to reflect the remaining term of the lease and any amount expended by Noble-Cayman as set forth in clause (b) above), less an amount equal to the sum of the principal amount of notes, Pari Passu Indebtedness and Funded Indebtedness voluntarily defeased or retired by us or Noble-Cayman plus any amount expended to acquire any Principal Properties at fair value, within such nine-month period and not designated as a credit against any other Sale/ Leaseback Transaction entered into by Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries during such period.

Consolidation, Merger and Sale of Assets. The indenture provides that (a) we will not consolidate or amalgamate with or merge into any person, or sell, lease, convey, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of our properties and assets to any person, other than one of our direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries and (b) Noble-Cayman will not consolidate or amalgamate with or merge into any person, or sell, lease, convey, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person, other than one of its direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries, in each case, unless:

either (i) we or Noble-Cayman, as applicable, shall be the continuing person or (ii) the person formed by such consolidation or amalgamation or into which we or Noble-Cayman, as applicable, are merged, or the person which acquires, by sale, lease, conveyance, transfer or other disposition, all or substantially all of our or Noble-Cayman's assets, as applicable, shall expressly assume, by a supplemental indenture, the due and punctual payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the notes and the performance of our or Noble-Cayman's, as applicable, covenants and obligations under the indenture and the notes, or, in the case of Noble-Cayman, the guarantee, in which case such person would be substituted for us or Noble-Cayman, as applicable, in the indenture with the same effect as if it had been an original party to the indenture;

immediately after giving effect to such transaction or series of transactions, no default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing or would result therefrom; and we or Noble-Cayman deliver to the applicable trustee an officers' certificate and an opinion of counsel, each in the form required by the indenture and stating that the transaction and the supplemental indenture comply with the indenture.

Tax Additional Amounts

We will pay any amounts due with respect to payments on the notes without deduction or withholding for any and all present and future withholding taxes, levies, imposts and charges (a withholding tax) imposed by or for the account of the Cayman Islands or any other jurisdiction in which we are resident for tax purposes or any political subdivision or taxing authority of such jurisdiction (the Taxing Jurisdiction), unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. If such deduction or withholding is at any time required, we will (subject to compliance by you with any relevant administrative requirements) pay you additional amounts as will result in your receipt of such amounts as you would have received had no such withholding or deduction been required.

If the Taxing Jurisdiction requires us to deduct or withhold any of these taxes, levies, imposts or charges, we will (subject to compliance by the holder of a note with any relevant administrative requirements) pay these additional amounts in respect of the principal amount, redemption price and interest (if any) in accordance with the terms of the notes and the indenture. However, we will not pay any additional amounts in the following instances:

if any withholding would not be payable or due but for the fact that (1) the holder of a note (or a fiduciary, settlor, beneficiary of, member or shareholder of, the holder, if the holder is an estate, trust, partnership or corporation) is a domiciliary, national or resident of, or engaging in business or maintaining a permanent establishment or being physically present in, the Taxing Jurisdiction or otherwise having some present or former connection with the Taxing Jurisdiction other than the holding or ownership of the note or the collection of the principal amount, redemption price and interest (if any), in accordance with the terms of the note and the indenture, or the enforcement of the note or (2) where presentation is required, the note was presented more than 30 days after the date such payment became due or was provided for, whichever is later;

if any withholding tax is attributable to any estate, inheritance, gift, sales, transfer, excise, personal property or similar tax, levy, impost or charge;

if any withholding tax is attributable to any tax, levy, impost or charge that is payable otherwise than by withholding from payment of the principal amount, redemption price and interest (if any);

if any withholding tax would not have been imposed but for the failure to comply with certification, identification, information, documentation or other reporting requirements concerning the nationality, residence, identity or connections with the relevant tax authority of the holder or beneficial owner of the note, if (A) this compliance is required by statute or by regulation as a precondition to relief or exemption from such withholding tax and (B) at least 30 days prior to the first scheduled payment date for which compliance will be required, Noble-Cayman has notified holders or beneficial owners of notes that they must comply with such certification, identification, information, documentation or other reporting requirements;

to the extent a holder of a note is entitled to a refund or credit in such Taxing Jurisdiction of amounts required to be withheld by such Taxing Jurisdiction; or any combination of the instances described in the preceding bullet points.

With respect to the fifth bullet point listed above, in the absence of evidence satisfactory to us we may conclusively presume that a holder of a note is entitled to a refund or credit of all amounts required to be withheld. We also will not pay any additional amounts to any holder who is a fiduciary or partnership or other than the sole beneficial owner of the note to the extent that a beneficiary or settlor with respect to such fiduciary, or a member or such partnership or a beneficial owner thereof, would not have been entitled to the payment of such additional amounts had such beneficiary, settlor, member or beneficial owner been the holder of the note.

Noble-Cayman will, with respect to its guarantee of the notes, pay additional amounts, subject to the above requirements and limitations, with respect to any withholding tax imposed by or for the account of any Taxing Jurisdiction with respect to any payments made under the guarantee.

Noble-Cayman will furnish to the trustee documentation reasonably satisfactory to the trustee evidencing the payment of any withholding taxes with respect to payments on the notes. Copies of such receipts will be made available to the holders of the notes or beneficial owners of the notes upon written request.

Events of Default

Events of Default means, with respect to the notes, any of the following events:

failure to pay principal on any notes when due and payable at maturity, upon redemption or otherwise;

failure to pay any interest on any notes when due and payable and such default continues for 30 days;

default in the performance or breach of any covenant in the indenture, which default continues uncured for a period of 90 days after we receive written notice from the trustee or we and the trustee receive written notice from the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the outstanding notes as provided in the indenture;

the guarantee of the notes by Noble-Cayman ceases to be in full force and effect or Noble-Cayman denies or disaffirms its obligations under such guarantee;

certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization, as the case may be, involving Noble-Cayman or us; and default under any bond, debenture, note or other evidence of Indebtedness (other than Non-Recourse Indebtedness) by Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries or under any mortgage, indenture or instrument under which there may be issued or by which there may be secured or evidenced any Indebtedness (other than Non-Recourse Indebtedness) of Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries resulting in the acceleration of such Indebtedness (other than Non-Recourse Indebtedness), or any default in payment of such Indebtedness (other than Non-Recourse Indebtedness) (after expiration of any applicable grace periods and presentation of any debt instruments, if required), if the aggregate amount of all such Indebtedness (other than Non-Recourse Indebtedness) that has been so accelerated and with respect to which there has been such a default in payment shall exceed $25,000,000 and there has been a failure to obtain rescission or annulment of all such accelerations or to discharge all such defaulted indebtedness within 20 days after there has been given, by registered or certified mail, to Noble-Cayman by the trustee or to Noble-Cayman and the trustee by the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of all outstanding notes a written notice specifying such default or breach and requiring it to be remedied and stating that such notice is a Notice of Default under the indenture.

For purposes of the foregoing, Non-Recourse Indebtedness means any of Noble-Cayman's Indebtedness or any Indebtedness of any of its Subsidiaries in respect of which (a) the recourse of the holder of such Indebtedness, whether direct or indirect and whether contingent or otherwise, is effectively limited to (i) Liens on specified assets and (ii) in respect of Indebtedness of a Subsidiary, Liens on assets of the Subsidiary acquired after the date of original issuance of the notes, and with respect to such Indebtedness of Noble-Cayman's or any of its Subsidiaries, neither Noble-Cayman nor any of its Subsidiaries (other than the issuer of such Indebtedness) provides any credit support or is otherwise liable or obligated and (b) the occurrence of any event, or the existence of any condition under any agreement or instrument relating to such Indebtedness, shall not at any time have the effect of accelerating, or permitting the acceleration of, the maturity of any other Indebtedness of Noble-Cayman or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise permitting any such other Indebtedness to be declared due and payable, or to be required to be prepaid, purchased or redeemed, prior to the stated maturity thereof (it being understood, for the avoidance of doubt, that the Indebtedness of the joint ventures that own the Bully I and Bully II drillships and any of their respective Subsidiaries under the credit facilities existing on the date of original issuance of the notes shall constitute Non-Recourse Indebtedness).

The holders of a majority in principal amount of the notes may waive any past default with respect to the notes under the indenture and its consequences, and the holders of a majority in principal amount of all notes of any series outstanding under the indenture may waive on behalf of the holders of all notes of such series outstanding under the indenture any other past default under the indenture and its consequences, except:

in the case of the payment of the principal of, premium (if any) or interest on any notes; or except as described below under the caption Amendment, Supplement and Waiver.

Discharge and Defeasance

The terms of the notes provide that we will be permitted to terminate certain of our obligations and those of Noble-Cayman under the indenture, including the covenants described above under Certain Covenants, pursuant to the indenture's covenant defeasance provisions only if we deliver to the Trustee an opinion of counsel that covenant defeasance will not cause holders of the notes to recognize income, gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes.

The terms of the notes also provide for legal defeasance. Legal defeasance is permitted only if we have received from, or there has been published by, the United States Internal Revenue Service a ruling to the effect that legal defeasance will not cause holders of the notes to recognize income, gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes.

Amendment, Supplement and Waiver

We generally may amend the indenture or the notes and the guarantee with the written consent of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding notes affected by the amendment. The holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of (i) any series may also waive our compliance in a particular instance with any provision of the applicable indenture with respect to such series of debt securities and (ii) all series may waive our compliance in a particular instance with any provision of the applicable indenture with respect to all series of debt securities issued thereunder. We must obtain the consent of each holder of notes affected by a particular amendment or waiver, however, if such amendment or waiver:

changes the stated maturity of the notes, or any installment of principal of or interest on any note;

reduces the principal amount of or the interest rate applicable to any note;

changes any place of payment for any note;

changes the currency in which the principal, premium, or interest of any note may be repaid;

Table of Contents

impairs the right of the holder of any note to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment due in respect of any note on or after stated maturity;

reduces the amount of notes whose holders must consent to an amendment, supplement or waiver;

waives any default in the payment of principal of, or premium or interest on, any note due under the indenture; or releases Noble-Cayman from any of its obligations under the guarantee or the indenture, except in accordance with the terms of the indenture.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we may amend the indenture or the notes without the consent of any holder:

to cure any ambiguity, defect or inconsistency;

to comply with the indenture's provisions with respect to successor corporations;

to comply with any requirements of the SEC to effect or maintain qualification under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended;

to make any change that does not adversely affect the rights of any holder of notes in any material respect; to issue additional notes as permitted by the indenture; or to allow a guarantor to execute a supplemental indenture or a guarantee with respect to the notes.

Definitions

Attributable Indebtedness, when used with respect to any Sale/Leaseback Transaction, means, as at the time of determination, the present value (discounted at the rate set forth or implicit in the terms of the lease included in such transaction) of the total obligations of the lessee for rental payments (other than amounts required to be paid on account of taxes, maintenance, repairs, insurance, assessments, utilities, operating and labor costs and other items that do not constitute payments for property rights) during the remaining term of the lease included in such Sale/Leaseback Transaction (including any period for which such lease has been extended). In the case of any lease that is terminable by the lessee upon the payment of a penalty, such net amount shall be the lesser of the net amount determined assuming termination upon the first day such lease may be terminated (in which case the net amount shall also include the amount of the penalty, but no rent shall be considered as required to be paid under such lease subsequent to the first date upon which it may be so terminated) or the net amount determined assuming no such termination.

Capitalized Lease Obligations of any Person means the obligations of such Person to pay rent or other amounts under any lease of (or other arrangement conveying the right to use) real or personal property, or a combination thereof, which obligations are required to be classified and accounted for as capital leases on a balance sheet of such Person under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States, and the amount of such obligations shall be the capitalized amount thereof determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

Consolidated Net Tangible Assets means the total amount of assets (less applicable reserves and other properly deductible items) after deducting (1) all current liabilities (excluding the amount of those that are by their terms extendable or renewable at the option of the obligor to a date more than 12 months after the date as of which the amount is being determined and current maturities of long-term debt) and (2) all goodwill, trade names, trademarks, patents, unamortized debt discount and expense and other like intangible assets, all as set forth on the most recent quarterly balance sheet of Noble-Cayman and its consolidated Subsidiaries and determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

Funded Indebtedness means all Indebtedness (including Indebtedness incurred under any revolving credit, letter of credit or working capital facility) that by its terms matures on, or that is renewable at the option of any obligor thereon to, a date more than one year after the date on which such Indebtedness is originally incurred.

Indebtedness of any Person means, without duplication, (i) all indebtedness of such Person for borrowed money (whether or not the recourse of the lender is to the whole of the assets of such Person or only to a portion thereof), (ii) all obligations of such Person evidenced by bonds, debentures, notes or other similar instruments, (iii) all obligations of such Person in respect of letters of credit or other similar instruments (or reimbursement obligations with respect thereto), other than standby letters of credit, performance bonds and other obligations issued by or for the account of such Person in the ordinary course of business, to the extent not drawn or, to the extent drawn, if such drawing is reimbursed not later than the third business day following demand for reimbursement, (iv) all obligations of such Person to pay the deferred and unpaid purchase price of property or services, except trade payables and accrued expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business, (v) all Capitalized Lease Obligations of such Person, (vi) all Indebtedness of others secured by a Lien on any asset of such Person, whether or not such Indebtedness is assumed by such Person (provided that if the obligations so secured have not been assumed in full by such Person or are not otherwise such Person's legal liability in full, then such obligations shall be deemed to be in an amount equal to the greater of (a) the lesser of (1) the full amount of such obligations and (2) the fair market value of such assets, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of such Person, which determination shall be evidenced by a Board Resolution, and (b) the amount of obligations as have been assumed by such Person or that are otherwise such Person's legal liability), and (vii) all Indebtedness of others (other than endorsements in the ordinary course of business) guaranteed by such Person to the extent of such guarantee.

Joint Venture means any partnership, corporation or other entity in which up to and including 50% of the partnership interests, outstanding voting stock or other equity interests is owned, directly or indirectly, by Noble-Cayman and/or one or more Subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman.

Lien means any mortgage, pledge, lien, encumbrance, charge or security interest. For purposes of the indenture, Noble-Cayman or any Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman shall be deemed to own subject to a Lien any asset that it has acquired or holds subject to the interest of a vendor or lessor under any conditional sale agreement, Capitalized Lease Obligation or other title retention agreement relating to such asset.

Pari Passu Indebtedness means any Indebtedness of Noble-Cayman, whether outstanding on the issue date of the notes or thereafter created, incurred or assumed, unless, in the case of any particular Indebtedness, the instrument creating or evidencing the same or pursuant to which the same is outstanding expressly provides that such Indebtedness shall be subordinated in right of payment to the guarantee.

Principal Property means any jackup, semisubmersible, drillship, submersible or other mobile offshore drilling unit, or integral portion thereof, owned or leased by Noble-Cayman or any Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman and used for drilling offshore oil and gas wells, which, in the opinion of Noble-Cayman's Board of Directors, is of material importance to the business of Noble-Cayman and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole, but no such jackup, semisubmersible, drillship, submersible or other mobile offshore drilling unit, or portion thereof, shall be deemed of material importance if its net book value (after deducting accumulated depreciation) is less than 2.0% of Consolidated Net Tangible Assets of Noble-Cayman and its consolidated Subsidiaries.

Sale/Leaseback Transaction means any arrangement with any Person pursuant to which Noble-Cayman or any Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman leases any Principal Property that has been or is to be sold or transferred by Noble-Cayman or the Subsidiary to such Person, other than (1) temporary leases for a term, including renewals at the option of the lessee, of not more than five years, (2) leases between Noble-Cayman and a Subsidiary of Noble-Cayman or between its Subsidiaries, or (3) leases of Principal Property executed by the time of, or within 12 months after the latest of, the acquisition, the completion of construction, alteration, improvement or repair, or the commencement of commercial operation of the Principal Property.

Subsidiary means, with respect to Noble-Cayman at any date, any corporation, limited liability company, partnership, association or other entity the accounts of which would be consolidated with those of Noble-Cayman in Noble-Cayman's consolidated financial statements if such financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States as of such date, as well as any other corporation, limited liability company, partnership, association or other entity (a) of which securities or other ownership interests representing more than 50% of the equity or more than 50% of the ordinary voting power or, in the case of a partnership, more than 50% of the general partnership interests are, as of such date, owned, controlled or held, or (b) that is, as of such date, otherwise controlled, by Noble-Cayman or one or more subsidiaries of Noble-Cayman.

Book-Entry, Delivery and Form

The notes of each series initially will be issued in book-entry form and represented by one or more global notes. The global notes will be deposited with, or on behalf of, The Depository Trust Company, or DTC, New York, New York, as Depository, and registered in the name of Cede & Co., the nominee of DTC. Unless and until it is exchanged for individual certificates evidencing notes under the limited circumstances described below, a global note may not be transferred except as a whole by the Depository to its nominee or by the nominee to the Depository, or by the Depository or its nominee to a successor Depository or to a nominee of the successor Depository.

DTC has advised us that it is:

- a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law;
- a banking organization within the meaning of the New York Banking Law;
- a member of the Federal Reserve System;
- a clearing corporation within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code; and
- a clearing agency registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act.

DTC holds securities that its participants deposit with DTC. DTC also facilitates the settlement among its participants of securities transactions, including transfers and pledges, in deposited securities through electronic computerized book-entry changes in participants' accounts, which eliminates the need for physical movement of securities certificates. Direct participants in DTC include securities brokers and dealers, including underwriters, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and other organizations. DTC is owned by a number of its direct participants and by the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., the American Stock Exchange, Inc. and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority Inc. Access to the DTC system is also available to others, which we sometimes refer to as indirect participants, that clear transactions through or maintain a custodial relationship with a direct participant either directly or indirectly. The rules applicable to DTC and its participants are on file with the SEC.

Purchases of notes within the DTC system must be made by or through direct participants, which will receive a credit for those notes on DTC's records. The ownership interest of the actual purchaser of a note, which we sometimes refer to as a beneficial owner, is in turn recorded on the direct and indirect participants' records. Beneficial owners of notes will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchases. However, beneficial owners are expected to receive written confirmations providing details of their transactions, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the direct or indirect participants through which they purchased notes. Transfers of ownership interests in global notes are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of participants acting on behalf of beneficial owners. Beneficial owners will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in the global notes except under the limited circumstances described below.

To facilitate subsequent transfers, all global notes deposited with DTC will be registered in the name of DTC's nominee, Cede & Co. The deposit of notes with DTC and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. will not change the beneficial ownership of the notes. DTC has no knowledge of the actual beneficial owners of the notes. DTC's records reflect only the identity of the direct participants to whose accounts the notes are credited, which may or may not be the beneficial owners. The participants are responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

Table of Contents

Conveyance of notices and other communications by DTC to direct participants, by direct participants to indirect participants and by direct participants and indirect participants to beneficial owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any legal requirements in effect from time to time.

Redemption notices will be sent to DTC or its nominee. If less than all of the notes are being redeemed, DTC will determine the amount of the interest of each direct participant in the notes to be redeemed in accordance with DTC's procedures.

In any case where a vote may be required with respect to the notes, neither DTC nor Cede & Co. will give consents for or vote the global notes. Under its usual procedures, DTC will mail an omnibus proxy to us as soon as possible after the record date. The omnibus proxy assigns the consenting or voting rights of Cede & Co. to those direct participants to whose accounts the notes are credited on the record date identified in a listing attached to the omnibus proxy.

Principal and interest payments on the notes will be made to Cede & Co., as nominee of DTC. DTC's practice is to credit direct participants' accounts on the relevant payment date unless DTC has reason to believe that it will not receive payment on the payment date. Payments by direct and indirect participants to beneficial owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is the case with securities held for the account of customers in bearer form or registered in street name. Those payments will be the responsibility of participants and not of DTC or us, subject to any legal requirements in effect from time to time. Payment of principal and interest to Cede & Co. is our responsibility, disbursement of payments to direct participants is the responsibility of DTC, and disbursement of payments to the beneficial owners is the responsibility of direct and indirect participants.

Except under the limited circumstances described below, purchasers of notes will not be entitled to have notes registered in their names and will not receive physical delivery of notes. Accordingly, each beneficial owner must rely on the procedures of DTC and its participants to exercise any rights under the notes and the indenture.

The laws of some jurisdictions may require that some purchasers of securities take physical delivery of securities in definitive form. Those laws may impair the ability to transfer or pledge beneficial interests in notes.

DTC is under no obligation to provide its services as Depository for the notes and may discontinue providing its services at any time. Neither we nor the trustee will have any responsibility for the performance by DTC or its direct participants or indirect participants under the rules and procedures governing DTC.

As noted above, beneficial owners of notes generally will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in the notes. However, if:

DTC notifies us that it is unwilling or unable to continue as a Depository for the global notes or if DTC ceases to be a clearing agency registered under the Exchange Act at a time when it is required to be registered and a successor Depository is not appointed within 90 days of the notification to us or of our becoming aware of DTC's ceasing to be so registered, as the case may be;

we determine, in our sole discretion, not to have the notes represented by one or more global notes; or an Event of Default, as defined above under the caption "Events of Default," under the indenture has occurred and is continuing with respect to the notes, we will prepare and deliver certificates for the notes in exchange for beneficial interests in the global notes. Any beneficial interest in a global note that is exchangeable under the circumstances described in the preceding sentence will be exchangeable for notes in definitive certificated form registered in the names that the Depositary directs. It is expected that these directions will be based upon directions received by the Depositary from its participants with respect to ownership of beneficial interests in the global notes.

We obtained the information in this section and elsewhere in this prospectus supplement concerning DTC and DTC's book-entry system from sources that we believe to be reliable, but we take no responsibility for the accuracy of this information.

CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the notes. This discussion is limited to holders of notes that purchase notes in the initial offering at their issue price (i.e., the first price at which a substantial amount of notes are sold for cash to persons other than bond houses, brokers or similar persons or organizations acting in the capacity of underwriters, placement agents or wholesalers) and that hold such notes as capital assets. The term holder means either a U.S. holder (as defined below) or a non-U.S. holder (as defined below) or both, as the context may require.

This discussion does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to you in light of your particular circumstances. For example, this discussion does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences to holders of notes that are subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, such as:

dealers or traders in securities or foreign currency;

tax-exempt entities;

banks, thrifts, insurance companies, and other financial institutions;

regulated investment companies;

mutual funds;

real estate investment trusts;

persons that hold the notes as part of a straddle, a hedge, a conversion transaction or other integrated transaction;

U.S. holders that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;

holders subject to the alternative minimum tax;

pass-through entities (e.g., S corporations, partnerships or grantor trusts) and simple trusts and investors who hold the notes through such entities;

certain former citizens or residents of the United States;

U.S. holders that, at any time, are treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as owning 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote of Noble-Cayman or of any subsidiary of Noble-Cayman that is treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

non-U.S. holders that, at any time, are treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as owning 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote of Noble-Cayman or of any subsidiary of Noble-Cayman that is treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes or 10% or more of the capital or profits interest in any subsidiary of Noble-Cayman that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes; and non-U.S. holders that are controlled foreign corporations that are related to Noble-Cayman or any of its subsidiaries, within the meaning of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (the Code).

Moreover, this discussion does not address any aspect of non-income taxation, any state, local or foreign taxation or the effect of any tax treaty. In addition, this discussion does not address the tax consequences of an investment in the notes arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010.

This discussion is based upon the provisions of the Code, its legislative history, existing and proposed U.S. Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, rulings and judicial decisions as of the date hereof. Those authorities may be changed, possibly with retroactive effect, so as to result in U.S. federal income tax consequences different from those discussed below. We have not sought and will not seek any rulings or opinions from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) or counsel regarding the matters discussed below. There can be no assurance that the IRS will not take, or that a court will not sustain, positions concerning the tax consequences of an investment in the notes that are different from those discussed below.

If you are an organization that is a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes or a partner in such organization, you are urged to consult with your own tax advisor as to the U.S. federal tax considerations that are applicable to you.

THIS DISCUSSION IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR AN INDIVIDUAL ANALYSIS OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES RELATING TO AN INVESTMENT IN THE NOTES. WE URGE YOU TO CONSULT YOUR OWN TAX ADVISOR CONCERNING THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO YOU IN LIGHT OF YOUR PARTICULAR FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES AND ANY CONSEQUENCES ARISING UNDER THE LAWS OF ANY STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN OR OTHER TAXING JURISDICTION OR UNDER ANY APPLICABLE TAX TREATY.

Consequences to U.S. Holders

The following is a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences that will apply to a U.S. holder of notes. The term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of a note that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is:

an individual citizen or resident alien of the United States;

a corporation (or any other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or a trust if it (1) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

Stated Interest

It is expected that the notes will be issued without original issue discount for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, stated interest paid or accrued on the notes will generally be taxable to a U.S. holder as ordinary income in accordance with the U.S. holder's method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Source of Interest Income

Under the present ownership structure of the Noble-Cayman group, the source of interest income on the notes depends upon the activities of a partnership within the Noble group that owns NHIL. Noble-Cayman presently intends to structure the activities of the partnership in such a manner that interest income on the notes will be foreign source income for foreign tax credit and other relevant purposes. However, there can be no assurance that Noble-Cayman will be successful in doing so or that the circumstances will not change.

Sale, Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of Notes

A U.S. holder will generally recognize capital gain or loss on the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of a note (including a redemption or retirement of a note) in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount realized on such disposition (excluding any amounts attributable to accrued but unpaid interest, which will be taxed as described under "Stated Interest" above), and (ii) the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the note. A U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in a note will generally be equal to the amount paid for the note reduced by any payments (excluding stated interest) received with respect to the note through the date of disposition.

Any such capital gain or loss on a sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of a note as described in the foregoing paragraph will generally be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder's holding period with respect to such note is more than one year. Long-term capital gain recognized by non-corporate U.S. holders is generally eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The ability to deduct capital losses is subject to certain limitations.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

U.S. holders of notes may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding on payments of interest and principal on, and on the gross proceeds from dispositions of, notes. If you are a U.S. holder, backup withholding applies only if you:

fail to furnish timely your social security or other taxpayer identification number;

furnish an incorrect taxpayer identification number;

have been notified by the IRS that you are subject to backup withholding for failure to report properly interest or dividends; or fail, under certain circumstances, to provide a certified statement, signed under penalties of perjury, that the taxpayer identification number provided is your correct number and that you are not subject to backup withholding;

and you fail to otherwise establish your entitlement to an exemption from backup withholding.

A U.S. holder may be eligible for an exemption from backup withholding by providing a properly completed IRS Form W-9 to us or our paying agent. Any amount withheld from a payment under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against your U.S. federal income tax liability, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Certain persons are exempt from information reporting and backup withholding, including financial institutions. You should consult your tax advisor as to your qualification for exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining and establishing such exemption.

Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders

The following is a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences that will apply to a non-U.S. holder of notes. The term non-U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of a note (other than a partnership) that is not a U.S. holder.

Stated Interest

As discussed above, Noble-Cayman presently intends to structure the relevant activities of the Noble-Cayman group in such a manner that interest income on the notes will be foreign source income. See Consequences to U.S. Holders Source of Interest Income. As long as interest income on the notes is foreign source income, and subject to the discussion of backup withholding below, a non-U.S. holder will generally not be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax or income tax in respect of interest income on the notes unless the non-U.S. holder has an office or other fixed place of business in the United States to which the interest is attributable and the interest is effectively connected with the non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we may, in our discretion, request non-U.S. holders to establish that they are eligible for the portfolio interest exemption from withholding tax. A non-U.S. holder could generally establish eligibility for this exemption by certifying to us or certain intermediaries on IRS Form W-8BEN that the holder is not a U.S. person.

If a non-U.S. holder is requested to but fails to establish eligibility for an exemption from withholding tax, then payments of interest to that holder may be subject to withholding tax at the 30% statutory rate.

Table of Contents

Sale, Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of Notes

Subject to the discussion of backup withholding below, any gain realized by a non-U.S. holder upon the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of a note will not be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax or income tax unless:

that gain is effectively connected with the non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment); or the non-U.S. holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of that disposition, and certain other conditions are met.

However, to the extent that the proceeds of the disposition represent accrued interest, a non-U.S. holder may be requested to establish an exemption from U.S. federal withholding tax. See Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders Stated Interest.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Non-U.S. holders of notes should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of information reporting and backup withholding in their particular situations, the availability of an exemption, and the procedure for obtaining such an exemption, if available. Any amount withheld from a payment to a non-U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules will be allowable as a credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Recently Enacted Legislation

Under recently enacted legislation, an individual that holds notes will be required in some cases to report such ownership in the individual's U.S. federal income tax return. Investors should consult with their own tax advisors regarding the possible implications of this recently enacted legislation on their investment in the notes.

CAYMAN ISLANDS TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a discussion of certain Cayman Islands income tax consequences of an investment in the notes. The discussion is a general summary of present law, which is subject to prospective and retroactive change. It is not intended as tax advice, does not consider any investor's particular circumstances, and does not consider tax consequences other than those arising under Cayman Islands law.

Under existing Cayman Islands laws, payments of interest and principal on the notes will not be subject to taxation in the Cayman Islands, withholding will not be required on the payment of interest and principal to any holder of the notes and gains derived from the disposal of the notes will not be subject to Cayman Islands income or corporation tax. The Cayman Islands currently have no income, corporation or capital gains tax and no estate duty, inheritance tax or gift tax. No stamp duty is payable in respect of the issue of the notes. The notes themselves and an instrument of transfer in respect of a note will be subject to stamp duty if executed in or brought into the Cayman Islands. There will be no Cayman Islands tax consequences with respect to holding notes or exchanging outstanding notes for new notes, except that, if the notes are taken into the Cayman Islands in original form, they will be subject to stamp duty in the amount of one quarter of one percent of the face value thereof, subject to a maximum of CI$250.00 per note.

NHIL, Noble-Cayman and the underwriters for the offering named below, for whom Barclays Capital Inc., Wells Fargo Securities, LLC and SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc. are acting as the representatives, have entered into an underwriting agreement with respect to the notes. Subject to certain conditions, NHIL has agreed to sell and each underwriter has severally agreed to purchase the principal amounts of notes indicated in the following table.

Underwriters	Principal Amount of 20 Notes	Principal Amount of 20 Notes	Principal Amount of 20 Notes
Barclays Capital Inc.	$	$	$
Wells Fargo Securities, LLC	$	$	$
SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc.	$	$	$

The underwriters have agreed to purchase all of the notes sold under the underwriting agreement, if any of the notes are purchased. The underwriting agreement provides that the obligations of the several underwriters to purchase the notes offered by this prospectus supplement are subject to the approval of specified legal matters by their counsel and several other specified conditions. If an underwriter defaults, the underwriting agreement provides that the purchase commitments of the non-defaulting underwriters may be increased or the underwriting agreement may be terminated.

The underwriters have advised us that they propose to offer the notes of each series offered by this prospectus supplement to the public at the initial public offering price set forth on the cover of this prospectus supplement and may offer the notes to certain securities dealers at such price less a concession not in excess of % of the principal amount in the case of the 20 notes, % of the principal amount in the case of the 20 notes and % of the principal amount in the case of the 20 notes. The underwriters may allow, and such dealers may reallow, a concession not in excess of % of the principal amount of the notes of each series on sales to certain other brokers and dealers. After the initial offering of the notes, the underwriters may change the offering price and the other selling terms. The offering of the notes by the underwriters is subject to receipt and acceptance and subject to the underwriters' right to reject any order in whole or in part.

The following table shows the underwriting discounts and commissions that we will pay to the underwriters in connection with this offering of notes (expressed as a percentage of the principal amount of the notes):

	Paid by Noble
Per 20 Note	%
Per 20 Note	%
Per 20 Note	%

We estimate that our share of the total expenses of this offering, excluding underwriting discounts and commissions, will be approximately $2.1 million.

Each series of the notes is a new issue of securities with no established trading market. The underwriters have informed us that they may make a market in the notes from time to time. The underwriters are not obligated to do this, and they may discontinue this market making for the notes at any time without notice. Therefore, no assurance can be given concerning the liquidity of the trading market for the notes or that an active market for the notes will develop. We do not intend to apply for listing of the notes on any securities exchange or automated quotation system.

In connection with the offering of the notes, the underwriters may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of the notes. Specifically, the underwriters may sell a greater number of notes than they are required to purchase in connection with the offering of the notes, creating a syndicate short position. In addition, the underwriters may bid for, and purchase, notes in the open market to cover syndicate short positions or to stabilize the price of the notes. Finally, the underwriting syndicate may reclaim selling concessions allowed for distributing the notes in the offering of the notes, if the syndicate repurchases previously distributed notes in syndicate covering transactions, stabilization transactions or otherwise. Any of these activities may stabilize or maintain the market price of the notes above independent market levels. Neither we nor any of the underwriters make any representations or predictions as to the direction or magnitude of any effect that the transactions described above may have on the price of the notes. The underwriters are not required to engage in any of these transactions and may end any of them at any time.

The underwriters also may impose a penalty bid. This occurs when a particular underwriter repays to the underwriters a portion of the underwriting discount received by it because the representatives have repurchased notes sold by or for the account of such underwriter in stabilizing or short-covering transactions.

NHIL and Noble-Cayman have agreed to indemnify the several underwriters against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or contribute to payments that each underwriter may be required to make in respect thereof.

In the ordinary course of their respective businesses, the underwriters and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in other investment banking or commercial banking transactions with Noble-Swiss, Noble-Cayman and their affiliates, for which they have received or will receive customary fees and commissions. Affiliates of Barclays Capital Inc., Wells Fargo Securities, LLC and SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc. are lenders under Noble-Cayman's existing revolving credit facility and, accordingly, will receive a portion of the net proceeds from this offering. Affiliates of certain of the underwriters are lenders under the Bully I credit facility or under the Bully II credit facility and, accordingly, will receive a portion of the net proceeds from this offering upon repayment of such facilities. Affiliates of Barclays Capital Inc., Wells Fargo Securities, LLC and SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc. are expected to serve as joint lead arrangers and lenders under Noble-Cayman's new revolving credit facility, for which they will receive customary fees.

No action has been or will be taken in any jurisdiction other than in the United States that would permit a public offering of the notes or the possession, circulation or distribution of any material relating to us in any jurisdiction where action for such purpose is required. Accordingly, the notes may not be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, nor may any offering material or advertisement in connection with the notes (including this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus and any amendment or supplement hereto or thereto) be distributed or published, in or from any country or jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable rules and regulations of any such country or jurisdiction.
