Weekly Communiqué #05 Merger Update April 15, 2011

Having introduced the 5 Types of Mergers last week and how they apply to our (1) IT infrastructure, (2) Health & Welfare programs and (3) Financial processes, we wanted to share a few more examples of current integration decisions and identify how we are approaching them.

In addition to incorporating the 5 Types into our decision making process, we have also prioritized our decisions across 3 Tiers. Understandably, each and every decision being made is important and has urgency, but some decisions are more time sensitive than others. Similarly, there are a number of future-oriented decisions that are contingent on nearer-term ones.

Employee FAQs

Employee FAQs

1. Mine isn't really a question, so much...it's more of a request: please be transparent with us throughout this transition.

2. Will you change the 401(k) matching and thrift contribution?

3. Will our health insurance change?

4. When will we see the new Org Charts? Who stays...who goes?

5. The logo contest was a great idea. I know a lot of us have participated. How else can we help?

Integration Team Response

We appreciate your comment and will continue to communicate as much as we possibly can. Remember, if you have any questions or hear any rumors you'd like answers to, contact your local HR Department or drop us a note.

We expect to have a single program for the merged company beginning in 2012. This will involve some amount of change versus the legacy plans since they are not identical. Our goal is to have a competitive and attractive benefits program for our employees.

It will remain the same through 12/31/11 but will change for 2012.

WhoWe are working our way through the organization charts now and expect to communicate them by May 1st.

Thank you for your contributions. We are excited to pour through the submissions! In May, we will announce another fun front project and hope the participation will be equally robust.

Submitting Questions or Suggestions to our Integration Team

For those of you who have questions, suggestions or concerns about the Integration process or have heard rumors and would like to surface these for a response, you may either submit them to your local HR Department which will, in turn, share them with us or you may email the HollyFrontier Integration Team at hollyfrontier\_merger\_questions@hollycorp.com.

On the fun front, only two weeks remain in the HollyFrontier Corporation Logo Contest. It concludes on Friday, April 29th and the competition is FIERCE. The submissions to local HR Departments are flooding in; be sure to share yours by the deadline! The designer of our future logo wins an iPad 2, so keep those ideas and sketches coming. We will remind you of this opportunity only one more time, as April 29th is drawing near.

Next week (#06) we intend to articulate the HollyFrontier Mission & Values. Soon thereafter, we will describe the Compensation Process and announce Organization Structure. Remember (in May) some of the Communiqués are expected to occur by video (rather than in writing) so we can include a few brief interviews with leaders. In the summer, we intend to continue these dialogues in person by hosting a few on-site Q&A sessions with our respective managers.

Stay tuned; more is forthcoming next Thursday, April 21st, 2011.

On behalf of the broader HollyFrontier Integration Team,

Dave Lamp
