SECTION 7 Regulation FD

Item 7.01 Regulation FD

On October 4, 2006, American Axle & Manufacturing Holdings, Inc., (the Company or AAM) issued a press release announcing that it will offer a special attrition program to all UAW associates at AAM's master agreement facilities in the fourth quarter of 2006. In conjunction with this special attrition program, AAM expects to initiate additional restructuring actions in 2006 to realign its production capacity and cost structure to current and projected operational and market requirements. These actions are expected to include salaried workforce reductions, the redeployment of machinery and equipment to support new programs, and other steps to rationalize underutilized capacity. As a result of these anticipated special charges, AAM withdraws its 2006 earnings and cash flow guidance provided on June 8, 2006.

A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1.

On October 4, 2006, the Company will conduct a webcast and teleconference and is expected to discuss the following:

AAM's special attrition program for UAW associates.

AAM currently estimates the total cost of benefits provided to associates on layoff will approximate $80 million in 2006. This estimate includes supplemental unemployment benefits, pension and postretirement benefit expense, medical and other benefits.

AAM currently has approximately 1,400 associates on layoff. Excluding the impact of the special attrition program, AAM expects the number of associates on layoff to increase in 2007.

AAM's production outlook for the major product programs it supports.

Full year 2006 program volumes are expected to be down approximately 8-10% year-over-year.

Third quarter 2006 program volumes were down approximately 20% as compared to the third quarter of 2005.

Fourth quarter 2006 program volumes are expected to be down approximately 15% as compared to the fourth quarter of 2005.

AAM's capital spending outlook.

AAM expects a reduction in capital spending in 2007 as compared to 2006.

AAM's liquidity position as of September 30, 2006.
