PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

May 21, 2003

General

This Proxy Statement is furnished to shareholders of Cornerstone Bancorp, Inc. (the "Bancorp") in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Bancorp to be held on May 21, 2003, and any and all adjournments or postponements thereof (the "2003 Annual Meeting"). This Proxy Statement, the Notice of Annual Meeting, the enclosed form of Proxy and the 2002 Annual Report to Shareholders are first being mailed to shareholders on or about April 4, 2003. As used in this Proxy Statement, references to the "Bancorp" include references to Cornerstone Bancorp, Inc. and to its wholly-owned subsidiary, Cornerstone Bank.

Record Date, Voting Rights

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on March 14, 2003 (the "Record Date") are entitled to notice of and to vote at the 2003 Annual Meeting. On the Record Date, there were 1,219,515 shares of common stock of the Bancorp, par value $.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), outstanding and entitled to vote. Each shareholder is entitled to one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of Common Stock held of record in his or her name at the close of business on the Record Date. The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on the Record Date is necessary to constitute a quorum at the 2003 Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of votes represented at the 2003 Annual Meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum has been achieved.

Solicitation, Revocation and Use of Proxies

In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, proxies may also be solicited by telephone or personal interview by employees of the Bancorp who will not receive additional compensation therefor. The expense of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Bancorp. The Bancorp will also reimburse brokerage firms and others for their expenses in forwarding proxy materials to the beneficial owners of the Common Stock.

Edgar Filing: CORNERSTONE BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

A shareholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted by delivery of a written notice of such revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date to the Secretary of the Bancorp or by attending the 2003 Annual Meeting and revoking the proxy at such time. Attendance at the 2003 Annual Meeting will not itself revoke a proxy. Shares represented by properly executed proxies will be voted at the 2003 Annual Meeting in accordance with the specifications thereon. Shareholders of record who are present at the 2003 Annual Meeting may vote by ballot.

Each proxy received will be voted as directed; however, if no direction is indicated, the proxy will be voted in Item 1 FOR the election of the Bancorp's nominees to the Board of Directors; in Item 2 FOR the ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Bancorp's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003; and in the discretion of the proxy holder as to such other matters as may properly come before the 2003 Annual Meeting.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, required the Bancorp's directors, executive officers and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of the Common Stock to file certain reports with the SEC during and for the year ended December 31, 2002 concerning their beneficial ownership of the Common Stock. Based solely upon the Bancorp's review of the copies of such reports received by it, and on written representations by certain reporting persons, with the exception of Ronald C. Miller and Paul H. Reader, each of whom filed one late Form 4 regarding one transaction respectively, the Bancorp believes that during the year ended December 31, 2002, all such reports were filed on a timely basis.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors is classified into three classes. The directors serving in Class II have terms expiring at the 2003 Annual Meeting. The Board of Directors has nominated for re-election, four of the Class II directors currently serving on the Board of Directors, Stanley A. Levine, Ronald C. Miller, Martin Prince, and Joseph D. Waxberg, for election to serve as directors of the Bancorp until the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their successors are elected and qualified or until their earlier resignation or removal. Each nominee is currently a director of the Bancorp. In the event that any of the nominees becomes unable to serve, an event which the Board of Directors does not expect, the shares represented by proxy may be voted for a substitute nominee to be designated by the Board of Directors or a committee thereof, unless the proxy withholds authority to vote for all nominees.

If a quorum is present at the 2003 Annual Meeting, the election of directors will require the affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast by the shares of Common Stock entitled to vote. Abstentions by shareholders and broker non-votes with respect to the election of directors will not be included in determining whether nominees have received the vote of such plurality.

The following sets forth certain information regarding the nominees named above and the other directors of the Bancorp whose terms will continue after the 2003 Annual Meeting. There are no family relationships among the directors except that Norman H. Reader is the father of Paul H. Reader and the father-in-law of Merrill J. Forgotson, respectively, who are brothers-in-law.

Director Compensation

Directors who are not otherwise employed by the Bancorp (Outside Directors) receive $200 for each Board of Directors meeting attended and $200 for each committee meeting attended. During 2002, an attendance bonus of an additional $250 was paid for each board meeting attended. At the election of each Outside Director, fees may be paid either in cash or shares of Common Stock, or a combination thereof, pursuant to the Bancorp s Directors Compensation Plan. Under the plan, Outside Directors accumulate compensation credit for attending Board and committee meetings during each one-year period ending on the date of each annual meeting of the Bancorp. The Board of Directors, by a majority vote, may adjust the amount of the credits from time to time. Outside Directors may elect to receive their compensation earned under the plan in the form of cash or shares of Common Stock, based on an annual election made by each Outside Director at the first Board meeting subsequent to each annual meeting. Outside Directors who elect cash receive such compensation at each Board meeting. Outside Directors who elect to receive shares of Common Stock are issued a certificate for a whole number of shares equal to their accumulated compensation credit divided by the fair market value of the shares of Common Stock as of the date of each Board meeting and a cash payment in lieu of fractional shares on the last business day of May of each year for the last twelve months. The Board of Directors, by a majority vote, may amend or terminate the Directors Compensation Plan at any time provided, however, that certain material amendments may not be made without shareholder approval. During 2002, 899 shares of Common Stock were issued under the Directors Compensation Plan.

Outside Directors also receive a formula grant of non-qualified stock options (NQOs) under the Bancorp s 1996 Stock Plan. At the annual meeting, each Outside Director is granted NQOs to purchase 250 shares of Common Stock. The exercise price of such NQOs is the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. The NQOs do not vest until the Outside Director has served five full consecutive years on the Board, except that NQOs for any Outside Director who has completed such service vest immediately. All NQOs granted to Outside Directors expire ten years after the date of grant.

Officers or employees of the Bancorp who serve on the Board of Directors receive no additional compensation for their services in that capacity.

Certain Transactions

Edgar Filing: CORNERSTONE BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

As of December 31, 2002, loans to directors, principal officers and their associates and affiliated businesses totaled $4,043,000, or approximately 21% of the Bancorp's equity capital accounts. All loans made by the Bancorp to such persons were made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rates, collateral and repayment terms, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons. Such loans do not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features.

Stock Plans

The Bancorp has adopted plans under which directors, the Named Executive Officers and other employees may receive awards. They are the Bancorp's 1996 Stock Plan and the predecessor plan (which has outstanding awards), the 1986 Incentive and Non-Qualified Stock Plan, and the 2001 Restricted Stock Plan (the "Stock Plans"). Under the 1996 Stock Plan, the Compensation Committee may grant awards of stock options, stock appreciation rights and restricted stock. Under the 1996 Stock Option Plan, the exercise price of such options is the fair market value of common stock on the date of the grant. The options vest immediately. All options expire ten years after the date of the grant. The 1996 Incentive and Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan enables Bancorp to design a flexible compensation package in order to attract and retain those officers, directors and other key employees and other individuals who will most effectively advance the interests of Bancorp and its shareholders. Under this Plan, Bancorp may grant incentive stock options, non-qualified stock options and stock appreciation rights.

The 1996 Plan is administered by a Stock Option Committee appointed by the Board of Directors of Bancorp. The Committee consists of not less than three (3) non-employee members of the Board. The Committee is authorized to determine the officers, and other key employees and other individuals to whom awards shall be granted, to determine the number of shares to be covered by each award, the terms and conditions of each award, to amend any award, accelerate any vesting period or exchange any such grant with a new grant.

Under the 2001 Restricted Stock Plan, the Bancorp may grant awards of restricted stock to officers, directors and other key employees and other individuals who will most effectively address the interests of Bancorp and its shareholders. The Plan is administered by a stock committee, which consists of not less than three (3) non-employee members of the Board. The Committee is authorized to determine the officers, directors and other key employees and other individuals to whom shares of Restricted Stock shall be awarded, to determine the number of shares to be covered by each award, the terms and conditions of each award, to amend any award, and to make all determinations required or provided and the 2001 Restricted Stock Plan. The Restricted Shares granted to employees during 2002 vest in installments and the vesting schedules are as follows: 40% 2004, 20% 2005, 20% 2006, 20% 2007.

The employment agreement will terminate on the earlier of June 30, 2005, or the earlier of (i) Mr. Reader's death or disability, (ii) voluntary termination by Mr. Reader or (iii) termination of Mr. Reader by the Bancorp (either for cause or otherwise). If Mr. Reader's employment is terminated by the Bancorp without cause, the Bancorp is obligated to pay him a lump sum cash payment as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the present value as of the date of termination of (i) the scheduled salary amounts provided for in the agreement, each reduced by $65,000, and (ii) an amount deemed paid in each remaining year of the term of the employment agreement equal to the highest discretionary bonus paid to Mr. Reader during the term of the agreement. In addition, for twelve months following any termination of Mr. Reader's employment without cause, or for 36 months following termination due to a change in control of the Bancorp, Mr. Reader shall be entitled to continue to participate in the Bancorp's compensation plans and to receive all benefits as if such termination had not occurred.

If there is a change in control of the Bancorp or the Bancorp seeks to terminate Mr. Reader's employment agreement following a potential change in control, but prior to the potential change in control being effected, he is entitled to the following: (i) all of the benefits he was entitled to in the event of a termination without cause and (ii) a single lump sum payment equal to three times the highest annual salary provided under the employment agreement plus three times the highest discretionary bonus paid to him at any time during the term of the employment agreement.

Effective July 1, 1995, the Bancorp entered into an employment agreement with James P. Jakubek pursuant to which Mr. Jakubek serves as Executive Vice President of the Bancorp. The employment agreement provides for an initial annual base salary of $125,000, which amount is subject to annual increases as determined by the Board. The employment agreement will terminate on the earlier of (i) Mr. Jakubek's death or disability, (ii) voluntary termination by Mr. Jakubek or (iii) termination of Mr. Jakubek by the Bancorp (either for cause or otherwise). If Mr. Jakubek's employment is terminated by the Bancorp without cause, the Bancorp would be obligated to pay him a lump sum cash payment in an amount equal to the sum of (x) his then current annual salary, plus (y) the highest bonus awarded to him at any time during the 36-month period ending with the date of termination. The employment agreement will terminate on the earlier of (i) Mr. Reader's death or disability, (ii) voluntary termination by Mr. Reader or (iii) termination of Mr. Reader by the Bancorp (either for cause or otherwise). If Mr. Reader's employment is terminated by the Bancorp without cause, the Bancorp would be obligated to pay him a lump sum cash payment in an amount equal to the sum of (x) his then current annual salary, plus (y) the highest bonus awarded to him at any time during the 36-month period ending with the date of termination. In addition, for twelve months following any termination of Mr. Reader's employment without cause, or for 36 months following termination due to a change in control of the Bancorp, Mr. Reader shall be entitled to continue to participate in the Bancorp's compensation plans and to receive all benefits as if such termination had not occurred. The employment agreement was updated effective July 15, 1998 and May 17, 2001.

If there is a change in control of the Bancorp, or if the Bancorp seeks to terminate Mr. Reader's employment agreement following a potential change in control but prior to the potential change in control being effected, he is entitled to the following: (i) an adjustment in his then current salary to give him cumulative cost of living increases for the period from July 15, 1998 through the date of the change in control, and annual increases based on the Consumer Price Index (the "CPI") on each anniversary of the change in control; (ii) a credit for years of service with the Bancorp, plus five additional years, for purposes of vesting and calculation of benefits under any benefit plan of the Bancorp or of any successor entity; (iii) eighteen months' notice of termination of employment, during which period he would be entitled to receive, without offset for any reason, payment of his CPI adjusted salary, plus the highest bonus received by him during the period commencing with the 36th month preceding the change in control and ending with the date of termination; and (iv) following the 18-month period referred to in (iii) above, at his election, either a lump sum cash payment or 36 monthly periodic payments in an amount equal to the sum of three times his CPI adjusted salary, plus three times the highest bonus received by him during the period commencing with the 36th month preceding the change in control and ending with the date of termination.

For purposes of the employment agreements and the change of control agreement, the definition of Change in Control of the Bancorp is the same as the definition of Change of Control in the Stock Plans. The Stock Plans provide for certain Change Events : (i) a reorganization, merger, or consolidation of the Bancorp in which the Bancorp is not the surviving corporation; (ii) the dissolution or liquidation of the Bancorp; (iii) a sale or lease of 50% or more, computed on the basis of book value, of the Bancorp's consolidated assets; or (iv) a Change of Control. A Change of Control is deemed to have occurred if (i) any person becomes the beneficial owner of 25% or more of the total number of voting shares of the Bancorp, (ii) any person holds revocable or irrevocable proxies, as to the election or removal of directors of the Bancorp, for 25% or more of the total number of voting shares of the Bancorp, (iii) any person has entered into an agreement or received an option for the acquisition of beneficial ownership of 25% or more of the total number of voting shares of the Bancorp, whether or not the requisite approval for such acquisition has been received under the applicable laws or the respective regulations issued thereunder, or (iv) as the result of or in connection with any cash tender or exchange offer, merger, or other business combination, sale of assets or contested election, or any combination of the foregoing transactions, the persons who were directors of the Bancorp before such transaction shall cease to constitute at least two-thirds of the Board of Directors of the Bancorp or any successor corporation. In the event such a Change Event occurs, any then-existing deferral periods for exercising any stock option shall be accelerated and all outstanding options will be exercisable in full on or before a date fixed by the Compensation Committee prior to the effective time of the Change Event and any then-existing vesting periods for restricted stock shall be accelerated and all outstanding awards of restricted stock shall become fully vested prior to the effective time of the Change Event.

Effective April 1, 2002, the Bank entered into a Salary Continuation Agreement with Bancorp executives Merrill J. Forgotson, James P. Jakubek, Paul H. Reader, and Ernest J. Verrico to encourage these executives to remain employees of the Bank. Typically, normal retirement benefits will be paid to these executives upon termination of their employment on or after the normal retirement age (age 65) for reasons other than death or termination for cause and will be paid from the general assets of the Bank. The Bank will pay the annual benefit to the executive in 12 equal monthly installments commencing with the month following the executive's normal retirement date paying the annual benefit for a period of 15 years. Commencing on the first anniversary of the first benefit payment, and continuing on each subsequent anniversary, the Bank's Board of Directors, at its sole discretion, may increase the benefit. The amount of the normal annual benefit and normal retirement date for each Bancorp executive is as follows: Merrill J. Forgotson $100,700, December 2007; James P. Jakubek $96,800, September 2014; Paul H. Reader $113,200, May 2023; and Ernest J. Verrico $108,900, May 2020. In the event of voluntary early termination, the benefit will be determined by each employee's vesting schedule and will be paid to the executive at normal retirement age. In the event of involuntary early termination, the benefit will be the normal retirement benefit and will be paid to the executive at normal retirement age. In the event of disability, the benefit will be determined by each employee's vesting schedule and will be paid to the executive at normal retirement age. In the event of death during active employment, the benefit will be the retirement benefit and paid to the employee's beneficiary in either 12 equal monthly installments commencing with the month following the executive's death and paying the annual benefit for a period of 15 years or the executive's beneficiary may petition the Bank to pay the present value of the death benefit in a lump sum. In the event of death during the payment of the benefit, the Bank will pay the remaining benefits to the executive's beneficiary at the same time and in the same amounts they would have been paid to the executive had the executive survived. In the event of the executive's death after termination of employment but before payment of the benefit, the Bank will pay the same benefit payments to the executive's beneficiary that the executive was entitled to prior to death except that the benefit payments will commence on the first day of the month following the date of the executive's death. In the event that the executive was terminated for cause, the Bank will not pay any benefit under the agreement. The Bank will not pay any benefit if the executive commits suicide within three years after the date of the agreement. The Bank will not pay any benefits if the executive, within 18 months after termination of employment and without the prior written consent of the Bank engages in any enterprise, which is competitive with any business carried on by the Bank. This will not apply following an involuntary early termination. The executive and beneficiary are general unsecured creditors of the Bank for the payment of benefits under the agreement. The benefits represent the mere unsecured promise by the Bank to pay such benefits.

The Bank has recognized certain officers who have performed services for the Bank. In recognition of these services, the Bank acquired life insurance pursuant to Split Dollar arrangements on certain selected officers including Messrs. Jakubek, Paul Reader and Norman H. Reader for which the Bank pays the entire amount of each premium. The Bank's interest in the policies is the aggregate of the premiums paid by the Bank. The Bank is designated the named fiduciary under the Split Dollar plan and controls and manages the operation of the plan. The Split Dollar plan is evidenced by an agreement between the officer and the Bank and the agreement will automatically terminate on the termination of the employment of the officer, the bankruptcy of the Bank or the surrender or lapse of the policy. The officer, for the thirty (30) days immediately following the date on which any such termination occurs, has the right to purchase the policy by paying the Bank an amount equal to the Bank's interest in the policy.

When Mr. Forgotson joined the Bank in November, 2000, the Bank assumed the Split Dollar payment obligations and collateral lien positions previously held by his former employer. The collateral assignment provided the Bank with a lien on the death benefit and cash surrender value of the policies only to the extent of and to secure the repayment of the Bank's payments (without interest) thereon. The assumption of the Split Dollar policies and all other payments were collateralized by a lien on the subject policies and repayable at the earlier of Mr. Forgotson's demise, January 1, 2010, the date the policies were terminated or when Mr. Forgotson left the employment of the Bank.

In January 2003, the Bank at Mr. Forgotson's request, and in recognition of the implications of changes in the law effecting such arrangement, made the payments, which were then due under the Policies. As has been the case in recent years, Mr. Forgotson then paid the Bank the amount of the economic value of the term component of the insurance. The Bank has determined that the appropriate methodology for Mr. Forgotson to retain this perquisite, is to treat the Bank's payment on his behalf as additional compensation to Mr. Forgotson. Implicit in this decision is the fact that without any other payment to Mr. Forgotson, he would have substantial additional tax liabilities on the additional compensation. The Bank negotiated this matter with Mr. Forgotson. As a result thereof, it was agreed that the Bank would partially gross-up such the additional compensation to Mr. Forgotson for 2003 and the four subsequent years. Likewise, the Bank agreed to modify Mr. Forgotson's Employment Contract and Split Dollar Insurance Agreement accordingly. The additional compensation received by Mr. Forgotson as a result hereof would be considered as a part of his total compensation with respect to any annual review of merit increases and/or bonuses.

RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF KPMG LLP AS THE BANCORP'S INDEPENDENT

AUDITORS FOR FISCAL YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2003

The Audit Committee, in its capacity as a committee of the Board of Directors, has selected KPMG LLP as independent auditors to audit the consolidated financial statements of the Bancorp for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. KPMG LLP served as the Bancorp's independent auditors for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 and has reported on the Bancorp's consolidated financial statements for such year. Before appointing KPMG LLP, the Audit Committee considered the matters discussed under the heading "Audit Committee Report" and also determined that KPMG LLP's provision of non-audit services (i.e., services giving rise to fees other than the audit fees discussed below) was compatible with maintaining KPMG LLP's independence. Fees billed by KPMG LLP to the Bancorp were as follows:

Audit Fees

Fees of $93,000 were billed by KPMG LLP for the audit of the Bancorp's annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002 and for the review of interim consolidated financial statements included in Form 10-QSB filings made during the year.

Financial Information Systems and Implementation Fees

No such fees were billed by KPMG LLP for services rendered to the Bancorp during the year ended December 31, 2002.

All Other Fees

Fees billed by KPMG LLP for services rendered to the Bancorp in 2002, other than those included in the two categories listed above, totaled $30,662.

While shareholder ratification is not required for the selection of KPMG LLP and since the Audit Committee has the responsibility for selecting the Bancorp's independent auditors, the selection is being submitted for ratification at the 2003 Annual Meeting with a view toward soliciting the shareholders' opinions, which the Audit Committee and Board of Directors will take into consideration in future deliberations. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the 2003 Annual Meeting in person or by proxy is necessary for the ratification of the appointment by the Audit Committee, in its capacity as a committee of the Board of Directors, of KPMG LLP as independent auditors. Abstentions will be counted as a vote against this matter; broker non-votes will have no effect on this matter.
