PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

This Proxy Statement is being furnished to stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of the Company for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Meeting") to be held at the time and place and for the purposes set forth in the accompanying notice. This Proxy Statement is first being mailed to stockholders on or about May 17, 2002.

The close of business on April 15, 2002, has been fixed as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting or any adjournment thereof (the "Record Date"). As of the Record Date, there were 7,406,137 shares of the Company's Common Stock ("Common Stock") outstanding each of which is entitled to one vote.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as of the Record Date is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted towards a quorum. If a quorum is not present, the stockholders present may adjourn the Meeting from time to time, without notice, other than an announcement at the Meeting, until a quorum is present. At any such adjourned Meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the original Meeting.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Meeting. Abstentions will have no effect on the election.

Brokers who hold shares in street name for customers are required to vote those shares in accordance with instructions received from the beneficial owners. In addition, brokers are entitled to vote on certain items, such as the election of directors, the ratification of auditors and "discretionary items," even when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. Brokers are not permitted to vote for "non-discretionary" items without specific instructions from the beneficial owners. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the election of directors.

All shares represented by properly executed proxies, unless previously revoked, will be voted at the Meeting in accordance with the directions set forth on such proxies. IF NO DIRECTION IS INDICATED, THE SHARES WILL BE VOTED (i) FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES NAMED HEREIN, AND (ii) IN THE DISCRETION OF THE PROXY HOLDER WITH RESPECT TO OTHER BUSINESS AS MAY PROPERLY COME BEFORE THE MEETING.

A proxy may be revoked at any time before it is voted by (a) the execution and submission of a revised proxy, (b) written notice to the Secretary of the Company, or (c) voting in person at the Meeting.

The Company will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies. In addition to the use of mail, proxies may be solicited by directors, officers and regular employees of the Company in person or by telephone or other means of communication. They will not be compensated for the solicitation, but may be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses. Arrangements are also being made with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation material to the beneficial owners of the Company's Common, and the Company will reimburse them for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

BOARD COMMITTEES AND MEETINGS

During 2001, the Board held four meetings. The Board maintains Audit and Compensation Committees which are both comprised solely of outside directors. The Board currently has no nominating committee or a committee performing a similar function. The Audit Committee met five times during the year and the Compensation Committee did not meet. Each director attended at least 75% of the total number of Board and committee meetings held on which he served.

The Audit Committee is responsible to review, in consultation with the independent auditors, the Company's financial statements, accounting and other policies, accounting systems and system of internal controls. The Audit Committee also recommends the engagement of the Company's independent auditors and reviews other matters relating to the relationship of the Company with its auditors. The Audit Committee is comprised of Jake L. Netterville, Ronald A. LaBorde, and Peter F. Ricchiuti.

The Compensation Committee is responsible to review and act on matters, including but not limited to, compensation levels and benefit plans for executives of the Company and the issuance of stock options under the Company's stock plans. The Compensation Committee is comprised of Peter F. Ricchiuti and David R. Pitts.

DIRECTORS' COMPENSATION

Each director receives a monthly retainer of $1,000.00, a per meeting fee of $250.00 for each meeting attended in person and $125.00 for each meeting attended via teleconference, and stock options. Directors who are employees do not receive per meeting fees or stock options.

During 2001, each director was granted stock options for 10,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $6.00 per share, the fair market value on the date of the grant. All directors are entitled to reimbursement for reasonable travel and lodging expenses incurred in attending meetings.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Mr. Borne entered into a five year employment agreement with the Company effective January 1, 1999, which provides for annual one-year renewals unless either party gives 30-day written notice of its election not to renew prior to the expiration of the term. The agreement provides for a base salary of $250,000 annually, with yearly increases of the greater of (i) 6% (ii) the percentage increase, if any, of a specified consumer price index or (iii) $25,000. If Mr. Borne's employment is terminated due to death, disability, without cause, upon Company default of the agreement, following a change of control of the Company, upon termination by the Company relating to automatic extensions of the agreement, or upon termination by Mr. Borne for failing to be elected to the

Board of Directors, he will be entitled to receive the greater of the base salary he would have received had his employment continued for the remaining term of the agreement or an amount equal to one month's base salary for each $10,000 of total compensation he received in either (i) the highest of the last five (5) years of the agreement or (ii) an amount equal to 150% of the total base salary for the previous fiscal year, whichever is greater. Graham and Nugent and twelve months in the case of Mr. Lutgring.

The Company paid Printing Dept, Inc., owned by Cecil Williams, father-in-law of Michael Lutgring, $465,000 in 2002 for printing of forms and other materials used in daily operations. COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

There have been no Compensation Committee interlocks or insider participation.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Company's executive compensation is supervised by the Compensation Committee of the Board. The Company seeks to provide executive compensation that will support the achievement of the Company's financial goals while attracting and retaining talented executives and rewarding superior performance. In performing this function, the Compensation Committee reviews executive compensation surveys and other available information and may from time to time consult with independent compensation consultants.

The Company seeks to provide an overall level of compensation to the Company's executives that is competitive within the healthcare industry and other companies of comparable size and complexity. Compensation in any particular case may vary from an industry average on the basis of annual and long-term Company performance, as well as individual performance. The Compensation Committee will exercise its discretion to set compensation based on its judgement and where external, internal or individual circumstances warrant it.

In general, the Company compensates its executive officers through a combination of base salary, annual incentive compensation in the form of cash and non-cash bonuses and long-term incentive compensation in the form of stock options.

BASE SALARY

Base salary levels for the Company's executive officers are set generally to be competitive in relation to the salary levels of executive officers in other companies within the healthcare industry or other companies of comparable size, taking into consideration the position's complexity, responsibility and need for special expertise. In reviewing salaries in individual cases, the Compensation Committee also takes into account individual experience, and performance.

ANNUAL INCENTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee has historically structured employment arrangements with incentive compensation. Payment of bonuses has generally depended upon the Company's achievement of budgeted operating income (loss) projections established at the beginning of each fiscal year or other significant corporate objectives. Individual performance is also considered in determining bonuses.

OTHER COMPENSATION

In addition to cash and equity compensation programs, the executive officers participate in various other employee benefit plans. Executive officer participation in various clubs, organizations, and associations may also be funded by the Company.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE COMPENSATION

The Company provides long-term incentive compensation through its stock option plan. The number of common shares covered by any grant is generally determined by the then-current stock price, subject in certain circumstances to vesting requirements. In special cases, however, grants may be made to reflect increased responsibilities or reward extraordinary performance.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER COMPENSATION

Mr. Borne has served as chief executive officer since 1982. Mr. Borne's annual base salary for fiscal year 2002 is $325,000 pursuant to his employment agreement described herein. He received no bonus in 2001.

The overall goal of the Compensation Committee is to ensure that compensation policies are established that are consistent with the Company's strategic business objectives and that provide incentives for the attainment of those objectives. This is effected in the context of a compensation program that includes base pay, annual incentive compensation, and stock ownership.

The Committee provides for open, ongoing communication among the independent accountants, financial and senior management, compliance officers and the Board concerning the Company's financial and compliance position and affairs. The Committee's responsibility is oversight, and it recognizes that the Company's management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements and complying with applicable laws and regulations.

The Committee met five times during 2001. In overseeing the preparation of the Company's financial statements, the Committee met with both management and the Company's outside auditors to review and discuss all financial statements prior to their issuance and to discuss significant accounting issues. Management advised the Committee that all financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the Committee discussed the statements with both management and the outside auditors. The Committee's review included discussion with the outside auditors of matters required to be discussed pursuant to Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees). With respect to the Company's outside auditors, the Committee, among other things, discussed with Andersen matters relating to its independence, including the disclosures made to the Committee as required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). On the basis of these reviews and discussions, the Committee recommended to the Board that they approve the inclusion of the Company's audited financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001 for filing with the SEC.

In addition, aggregate fees of $421,668 were paid to Andersen during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 for other professional services. These professional services consisted primarily of information technology review fees of $160,000, tax return preparation fees of $95,000, tax planning and restructuring fees of $79,845, and fees relating to the restatement of fiscal year ended December 31, 2000 operating results of $61,323.
