This Amendment No. 10 amends the Statement on Schedule 13D, dated October 19, 2001, as amended (as previously amended, the "Statement on Schedule 13D"), filed by IntesaBci S.p.A. (now Banca Intesa S.p.A.), a company organized under the laws of the Republic of Italy ("Intesa"), with respect to the ordinary shares, euro 0.55 par value per share, of Telecom Italia S.p.A., a company incorporated under the laws of the Republic of Italy. Capitalized terms used in this Amendment without definition have the meanings ascribed to them in the Statement on Schedule 13D.

Intesa, Pirelli, Edizione Holding, UniCredito, Olimpia S.p.A. ("Olimpia") and, as discussed in Items 4 and 6 of Amendment No. 7 to the Statement on Schedule 13D, Hopa S.p.A. ("Hopa") are members of a group with respect to the Telecom Italia Shares. This Amendment constitutes a separate filing on Schedule 13D by Intesa in accordance with Rule 13d-1(k)(2) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Item 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION

The information contained in Item 6 below is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

The information contained in Item 6 below is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5. INTEREST IN SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

The information contained in Item 6 below is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 6. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

On February 21, 2003, Pirelli, Edizione Finance International S.A. ("Edizione Finance"), Intesa, UCI (collectively, the "Present Olimpia Shareholders"), Edizione Holding (as guarantor of Edizione Finance's obligations), Olimpia and Hopa entered into an agreement (the "Hopa Agreement") reflecting the contents of the Hopa Term Sheet. A copy of the Hopa Agreement is filed as an Exhibit to Amendment No. 17 to Pirelli's Schedule 13D, dated March 26, 2003, filed as Exhibit 30 to this Schedule 13D and incorporated by reference herein.

Pursuant to the Hopa Agreement, the parties have agreed, among other things and subject to certain terms and conditions, to effect the Merger (as that term is defined in Amendment No. 7 to the Statement on Schedule 13D) by merging Holy into Olimpia as soon as permitted by law. (Italian law imposes a waiting period of at least two months between the date that a company's shareholders formally resolve to effect a merger and the date that such merger may be effected. Duly convened shareholders meetings of Holy and Olimpia resolved to effect the Merger on February 28, 2003 and March 3, 2003, respectively.)

Following the Merger, the share capital of Olimpia will be held by Pirelli, Edizione Finance, Hopa, UCI and Intesa in the following respective proportions: 50.4%, 16.8%, 16%, 8.4% and 8.4%. Hopa will have the right to appoint one of the ten members of Olimpia's Board of Directors. Any person nominated by Hopa to replace a member appointed by it requires the consent of Pirelli, which is not to be unreasonably withheld. In addition, the Present Olimpia Shareholders have agreed that, to the extent permitted by law, they will seek to cause one directorship on the Board of Directors of each of Olivetti, Telecom Italia, Seat and TIM to be filled by a person nominated by Hopa as soon as possible after the Merger (and, in any event, within sixty days after the effective date thereof).

Subject to certain exceptions, the parties undertake not to acquire any Olivetti Shares during the term of the Hopa Agreement. Olimpia is permitted to acquire Olivetti Shares provided that the aggregate number of Olivetti Shares held by Olimpia, the Present Olimpia Shareholders, Hopa, the Hopa Controlling Companies (as that term is defined in Amendment No. 7 to the Statement on Schedule 13D), Holinvest and certain other subsidiaries of Hopa does not exceed 30% of the total number of Olivetti Shares outstanding. The Present Olimpia Shareholders agree that, during the term of the Hopa Agreement, Olimpia (i) will hold no assets other than Olivetti securities (or instruments giving certain rights with respect thereto) and the holding in Holinvest to be received by Olimpia as a result of the Merger, (ii) will maintain a debt to equity ratio of less than or equal to 1:1 and (iii) will not transfer any portion of its holding in Olivetti to any affiliate of either Olimpia or any of the Present Olimpia Shareholders.

Under the Hopa Agreement, Hopa has certain co-sale rights and obligations with respect to transfers by Pirelli of any of its shares in Olimpia. In addition, Holinvest has certain co-sale rights with respect to transfers by Olimpia of Olivetti securities (or instruments giving rights to acquire Olivetti Shares) that would reduce Olimpia's proportional holding of the total number of Olivetti Shares outstanding to less than 25% (or would further reduce it below such level).

Subject to certain exceptions, the Hopa Agreement will remain in effect for an initial period of three years following the effective date of the Merger, and shall automatically be renewed for successive periods of three years if no party thereto gives a notice of withdrawal in the manner prescribed. If the Hopa Agreement is not so renewed, then the Spin-Off and the Holinvest Spin-Off (each as defined below) will be required to be effected within six months after the expiration of the then current term. The Hopa Agreement may be terminated prior to the expiration of the then current term in the event of a Hopa Deadlock arising from a Special Hopa Deadlock Matter (each as defined below). The Hopa Agreement will also be terminated in the event that certain financial experts identified in the agreement file a report which finds that the exchange ratio contemplated in the Merger is inadequate to either Olimpia or Hopa, and the parties to the agreement do not formally agree upon a solution within thirty days after such report is filed.

The "Spin-Off" is defined in the Hopa Agreement to mean the distribution by Olimpia to Hopa of a proportion of Olimpia's assets (and the assumption by Hopa of a proportion of Olimpia's liabilities) which is equal to Hopa's proportional shareholding of Olimpia. (As an alternative to conducting the Spin-Off, the Present Olimpia Shareholders may elect to liquidate Hopa and make a cash payment in respect of Hopa's proportional share of Olimpia's assets of an amount to be calculated by reference to a formula contained in the Hopa Agreement.) The "Holinvest Spin-Off" means the distribution by Holinvest to Olimpia of a proportion of the Holinvest's assets (and the assumption by Olimpia of a proportion of Holinvest's liabilities) which is equal to Olimpia's proportional shareholding of Holinvest. (As an alternative to conducting the Holinvest Spin-Off, Hopa may elect to liquidate Olimpia and make a cash payment in respect of Olimpia's proportional share of Holinvest's assets of an amount to be calculated by reference to a formula contained in the Hopa Agreement.)

The Hopa Agreement prescribes certain procedures to be observed in the event of a disagreement or deadlock (a "Hopa Deadlock") between the Present Olimpia Shareholders (or their respective nominees), on the one hand, and Hopa (or its nominee), on the other hand, with respect to the passage of a resolution by either an Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting or the Board of Directors of Olimpia concerning any Hopa Deadlock Matter. A "Hopa Deadlock Matter" is any of the following items: (a) any resolution of Olimpia's Board of Directors relating to (i) determinations as to how Olimpia will vote its Olivetti Shares at any Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting of Olivetti, (ii) the purchase or sale by Olimpia of securities with a value exceeding euro 100,000,000 within any calendar year, (iii) any action or initiative that will cause Olimpia's debt to equity ratio to exceed 1:1, or (iv) proposals to be submitted to any Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting of Olimpia; and (b) any resolution of an Extraordinary

Shareholders Meeting of Olimpia that (i) rejects a proposal submitted to it by the Board of Directors which the respective directors nominated by each of the Present Olimpia Shareholders and Hopa voted in favor of, or (ii) adopts a proposal submitted to it by the Board of Directors which the director nominated by Hopa did not vote in favor of.

If a Hopa Deadlock arises, the parties must meet in an effort to resolve their disagreements in good faith. If this effort is unsuccessful, Hopa will be required to abstain (or cause its nominee to abstain) from voting at the applicable Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting or meeting of the Board of Directors of Olimpia. In that event, Hopa will have the right to require that the Spin-Off and the Holinvest Spin-Off (each as defined below) are effected within six months after the third anniversary of either the effective date of the Merger or the expiration of any renewal period of the Hopa Agreement, as applicable. In certain circumstances (each such circumstance, a "Special Hopa Deadlock Matter"), Hopa may require that the Spin-Off and the Holinvest Spin-Off be effected within six months after Hopa notifies the Present Olimpia Shareholders of the occurrence of such Special Deadlock Matter. "Special Deadlock Matters" include, subject to certain exceptions, (i) any determination to merge Olimpia or Olivetti with any of their respective downstream affiliates, (ii) any decrease in Olimpia's proportional holding of Olivetti voting securities to less than 25%, (iii) any change in Olimpia's debt/equity ratio so that it exceeds 1:1, and (iv) a determination by any of the Present Olimpia Shareholders to transfer any of its Olimpia shares to (a) any third party that makes an in-kind payment in respect of such transfer and does not agree to assume the obligations to Hopa contained in the Hopa Agreement, or (b) any of its affiliates where the consideration paid by such affiliate in respect of such transfer reflects an underlying price of less than euro 0.60 per security more than the market price of the Olivetti securities (or instruments giving certain rights with respect thereto) held by Olimpia.

Olimpia is required to pay to Hopa a premium amount on any Olivetti Shares (or instruments giving rights with respect thereto) distributed to Hopa in connection with the Spin-Off. The amount of the premium will be equal to euro 0.60 per Olivetti Share in the event that the Spin-Off is triggered by a Hopa Deadlock unless (i) it is found by an arbitrator that Hopa did not act in good faith in requiring that the Spin-Off be effected in connection with the occurrence of a Hopa Deadlock Matter, in which case the amount of the premium will be equal to 0.35 per Olivetti Share, or (ii) Olimpia's proportional holding of Olivetti voting securities falls below 25%, in which case the amount of the premium will be equal to euro 0.70. In the event that the Spin-Off is triggered by the failure of the parties to renew the Hopa Agreement, the amount of the premium will be determined by the parties, or in the absence of their agreement by two internationally recognized investment banks, and may not be less than euro 0.35 per Olivetti Share.

As reported in Amendment No. 7 to the Statement on Schedule 13D, Holy has a 19.999% equity interest in Holinvest. (The remaining equity of Holinvest is held by Hopa.) Pursuant to the Hopa Agreement, Olimpia will have the right to appoint one of the seven members of Holinvest's Board of Directors. During the period commencing on the date of the Hopa Agreement and expiring on the date which is 20 months after the effective date of the Merger (the "Holinvest Lock-Up Period"), Hopa is not permitted to transfer to any party any portion of its holding in Holinvest, or enter into any agreement that transfers the economic benefit or risk of ownership thereof. In addition, during the Holinvest Lock-Up Period, Hopa must ensure that Holinvest does not transfer to any party any of the Olivetti Bonds, Olivetti Convertible Bonds or Olivetti Financial Instruments (as defined in Amendment No. 7 to the Statement on Schedule 13D) held by it as of the date of the Hopa Agreement, or enter into any agreement that transfers the economic benefit or risk of ownership thereof. After the expiration of the Holinvest Lock-Up Period, Olimpia will have certain pre-emption rights with respect to transfers by Holinvest of such securities and instruments, and, upon the expiration of the initial three year term of the Hopa Agreement, Hopa will cause Holinvest to enter into an agreement with Olimpia that grants to Olimpia certain preemption rights with respect to transfers of its holdings of such securities and instruments, and of Olivetti Shares, that occur after the effective date of the Spin-Off.
