Madison Gas and Electric Company sent the following memorandum to its employees:

MEMORANDUM

---

DATE: May 8, 2002
TO: All Employees
FROM: Gary Wolter, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer
SUBJECT: Your Holding Company Vote Is Important

Next week, MGE anticipates shareholder approval to form a new holding company called MGE Energy Inc. The holding company will play a major role in our ability to provide reliable electric service.

If you are a shareholder and have not voted your proxy, please do so now and help us obtain approval. If you have already voted, I appreciate your support. The final vote will be announced next Tuesday, May 14, at MGE's annual shareholder meeting.

MGE's management and board of directors recommend a "yes" vote.

If approved, MGE Energy Inc. will:

- Provide greater flexibility to finance and operate new power plants.
- Build and own these new facilities with long-term leases to MGE.

This arrangement will produce more electricity and stable prices for customers.

Some employees will allocate part of their time to the holding company. Other than that, it will be business as usual.

We will remain focused on our gas and electric business. MGE's utility operations will be the holding company's core activity.

If you have questions, please contact Shareholder Services.
