Item 5. Other Events and Regulation FD Disclosure

On June 14, 2004, Accenture announced that Stephan A. James, chief operating officer of the company, will resign as of September 1, 2004 and step down as a member of its Board of Directors.

Stephen J. Rohleder will succeed Mr. James as chief operating officer of the company, effective September 1, 2004. Mr. Rohleder has been chief executive of Accenture's government operating group since March 2003. From March 2000 to March 2003, he was managing partner of the company's government operating group in the United States. From March 1997 to March 2000, he was managing partner of its U.S. federal operating unit.

Martin I. Cole will succeed Mr. Rohleder as chief executive of Accenture's government operating group, effective September 1, 2004. Since September 2000 Mr. Cole has led Accenture's services workforce and since September 2002 he has been Accenture's Managing Partner Outsourcing and Infrastructure Delivery. From September 2000 to September 2002, he led Accenture's solutions operations service line. From February 2000 to September 2000 he was the global managing partner of Accenture's government operating group's ventures practice and new business models operations. Prior to September 2000, Mr. Cole held a succession of roles in Accenture's government operating group.
