The Company may redeem all or portions of the Notes beginning on November 15, 2009. In addition, on or prior to November 15, 2007, the Company may use all or any portion of the net cash proceeds of one or more equity offerings to redeem up to 35% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes issued at a redemption price equal to 108.625 percent of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption; provided that at least 65% of the aggregate principal amount of Notes issued remains outstanding immediately after such redemption.

The Notes were issued and sold under an indenture, dated as of November 19, 2004, among the Company, the guarantors and the Bank of New York Trust Company. The indenture contains covenants that will restrict the Company's and its restricted subsidiaries' ability to:

- repurchase or redeem equity interests;
- make investments;
- grant liens;
- make capital expenditures;

The indenture also contains customary default provisions.

A copy of the indenture is filed under Item 9.01 as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

The Notes were offered and sold in the United States in a Rule 144A private unregistered offering and pursuant to Regulation S for transactions outside the United States.
