INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT NOT FORMING PART OF PROSPECTUS

ProAssurance Corporation ("ProAssurance" or the "Registrant") hereby amends its Registration Statement on Form S-4 (No. 333-49378) (the "Registration Statement"), by filing this Post-Effective Amendment No. 1 on Form S-8 relating to 789,970 shares of ProAssurance common stock, $.01 par value per share, registered under the Registration Statement and issuable pursuant to currently outstanding stock options granted under Medical Assurance, Inc.'s Incentive Compensation Stock Plan and Professionals Group, Inc.'s 1996 Long Term Stock Incentive Plan (collectively, the "Plans"). The registration fees for shares of ProAssurance Common Stock to be issued with respect to outstanding options issued under the Plans were paid at the time of the original filing of the Registration Statement on November 6, 2000. The Registration Statement also relates to an indeterminate number of shares of common stock of Registrant that may be issued upon stock splits, stock dividends or similar transactions in accordance with Rule 416 of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

On June 27, 2001, Medical Assurance, Inc. ("Medical Assurance") and Professionals Group, Inc. ("Professionals Group") completed their consolidation (the "Consolidation") and became wholly-owned subsidiaries of a newly formed holding company named ProAssurance Corporation ("ProAssurance") pursuant to an Agreement to Consolidate dated June 22, 2000 (the "Consolidation Agreement"). The Consolidation and Consolidation Agreement are more specifically described in the Registration Statement. The Consolidation was consummated through the mergers of two wholly-owned subsidiaries of ProAssurance with and into Medical Assurance and Professionals Group, with Medical Assurance and Professionals Group being the surviving corporations of the mergers. Upon consummation of the Consolidation, each outstanding share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Medical Assurance was converted into one share of ProAssurance common stock, $.01 par value per share (the "ProAssurance Common Stock"). Each outstanding share of common stock, no par value per share, of Professionals Group was converted into the right to receive, at the holder's election, (i) .897 of a share of ProAssurance Common Stock plus $13.47 in cash, or (ii) $27.47 in cash. In addition, ProAssurance assumed all options previously granted under the Plans. Each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase one share of Medical Assurance common stock was converted into an option to purchase one share of ProAssurance Common Stock at the same option price. Each outstanding and unexercised option to purchase one share of Professionals Group common stock was converted into an option to purchase 1.760 shares of ProAssurance Common Stock at an option price to be determined by dividing the option price for the subject share of Professionals Group common stock by the exchange ratio of 1.760.

ITEM 4. DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

Not applicable.

ITEM 5. INTERESTS OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL

Not applicable.

ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

As permitted by Delaware law, the Registrant's certificate of incorporation provides that the directors of the Registrant will not be held personally liable for a breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except that a director may be liable for (1) a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, (2) acts made in bad faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, (3) illegal payment of dividends under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law; or (4) for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit.

The by-laws of the Registrant provide that the Registrant will indemnify any person involved in litigation brought by a third party or by or in the right of the corporation by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another entity. The Registrant will only indemnify such a person if that person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be lawful and in the best interests of the corporation, except that the person will not be entitled to indemnification in an action in which he or she is found to be liable to the corporation unless the Court of Chancery deems indemnification under these circumstances proper.

The Registrant's certificate of incorporation further provides that if Delaware law is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Registrant shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law, as so amended.

The Consolidation Agreement provides that the Registrant, Medical Assurance, and Professionals Group will jointly and severally indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by law, all persons serving or having served as directors or officers of Medical Assurance or Professionals Group prior to the completion of the Consolidation for any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding, or investigation against them arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to (1) the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Registrant, Medical Assurance or Professionals Group, or (2) the Consolidation Agreement or any transaction contemplated by the Consolidation Agreement. The indemnification obligations under the Consolidation Agreement expire three years from June 27, 2001, the date the Consolidation was completed.

The Consolidation Agreement further provides that for a period of three years after the Consolidation, the Registrant will use its best efforts to maintain in effect directors' and officers' liability insurance covering those persons who were covered by Professionals Group's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy prior to the Consolidation in an amount and scope at least as favorable as past policies covering Professionals Group's directors and officers. This insurance coverage was obtained by the Registrant promptly after completion of the Consolidation.
