Lawsuit Filed Against AmeriPath, Inc.

Riviera Beach, FL, December 26, 2002 AmeriPath, Inc. (Nasdaq: PATH), a leading national provider of cancer diagnostics, genomic, and related information services, today announced that a lawsuit has been filed in a state court in Palm Beach County, Florida regarding its previously announced $21.25 cash per share merger pending with companies formed by Welsh, Carson, Anderson & Stowe. The suit, which also names AmeriPath's board of directors, alleges a breach of duty to shareholders. The complaint seeks a preliminary injunction although the Company has not been served with any request for immediate injunctive relief. If the merger is consummated, the suit also seeks money damages.

Commenting on the lawsuit and its allegations, James C. New, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of AmeriPath, stated, "The complaint rehashes previous incorrect comments made by certain shareholders and misstates other facts. We do not believe the plaintiffs will be successful and do not foresee this lawsuit being an impediment to completion of our previously announced merger."

AmeriPath is a leading national provider of cancer diagnostics, genomic, and related information services. The Company's extensive diagnostics infrastructure includes the Center for Advanced Diagnostics (CAD), a division of AmeriPath. CAD provides specialized diagnostic testing and information services including Fluorescence In-Situ Hybridization (FISH), Flow Cytometry, DNA Analysis, Polymerase Chain Reaction (PCR), performed pursuant to an agreement with Roche Molecular Systems, Inc.), Molecular Genetics, Cytogenetics and HPV Typing. Additionally, AmeriPath provides clinical trial and research development support to firms involved in developing new cancer and genomic diagnostics and therapeutics.
