Reconciliation of GAAP to non-GAAP Financial Measures:

The Company reports its financial results in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). However, management believes that certain non-GAAP performance measures, used in managing the Company's business, provide users of the Company's financial information with additional useful information. Non-GAAP financial measures should be viewed in addition to, and not as an alternative for, the Company's reported results prepared in accordance with GAAP. Certain items that may have a significant impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows must be considered when assessing actual financial condition and performance regardless of whether these items are included in these non-GAAP financial measures. Additionally, the methods used by the Company to calculate its non-GAAP financial measures may differ significantly from methods used by other companies to compute similar measures. As a result, the non-GAAP financial measures presented herein may not be comparable with similar measures provided by other companies.
