Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of September 30, 2005 (the Merger Agreement), Cavalry merged with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation.

Cavalry is a bank holding company for Cavalry Banking, which is a community-oriented financial institution whose primary business is attracting deposits from the general public and using those funds to originate a variety of loans to individuals residing within its primary market area, and to businesses owned and operated by such individuals.

As a result of the Merger, the Company is issuing approximately 6.9 million shares of its common stock to the Cavalry shareholders. The Company will acquire any resulting fractional shares for cash based on the average of the closing sale prices of the Company's common stock on The Nasdaq National Market for the five trading days immediately preceding March 15, 2006. The total value of the transaction was approximately $186 million, determined using the Company's closing stock price of $27.11 per share on March 15, 2006.
