Item 8.01. Other Events

As previously reported, on March 5, 2007, David Ryman, an alleged shareholder of Ablest Inc. (the Company), filed a lawsuit (David Ryman v. Ablest, Inc., et al., Case No. 07-CA-002645 (Circuit Court, Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, Tampa, Florida)) against the Company, certain Company directors and officers, and other parties, on behalf of a putative class of the Company's public shareholders. The litigation related to the Company's January 23, 2007 announcement that certain existing investors, including Charles H. Heist, III, the Company's Chairman of the Board, Kurt R. Moore, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, and two partnerships that own Company shares, had presented the Company with a proposal to acquire all of the Company's publicly held common stock. On April 17, 2007, following the Company's April 4, 2007 announcement that the Company had entered into a definitive agreement to be acquired by a third party on other terms, the plaintiff voluntarily dismissed the lawsuit, without prejudice.
