Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 23, 2008, M&T Bank Corporation, a New York corporation (the Company), entered into a letter agreement, including a Securities Purchase Agreement Standard Terms incorporated therein (collectively, the Agreement), with the U.S. Department of the Treasury (the Treasury) pursuant to the Troubled Asset Relief Program Capital Purchase Program. A copy of the Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Under the Agreement, the Company issued to the Treasury, on December 23, 2008, 600,000 shares of Preferred Stock (as defined below) and a ten-year warrant (the Warrant) to purchase up to 1,218,522 shares of the Company s common stock, par value $0.50 per share (Common Stock), at an initial exercise price of $73.86 per share, subject to certain anti-dilution and other adjustments, for an aggregate purchase price of $600 million in cash. A copy of the Warrant is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The issuance and sale of the Preferred Stock and the Warrant are exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act.

The Preferred Stock, which qualifies as Tier 1 capital, will bear cumulative compounding dividends at a rate of 5% per year for the first five years and 9% per year thereafter, in each case, applied to the liquidation preference thereof, but will only be paid when, as and if declared by the Company s Board of Directors out of funds legally available therefor. The Company may not redeem the Preferred Stock for the first three years except with the proceeds from one or more Qualified Equity Offerings (as defined in the amendment to the Company s Certificate of Incorporation described in Item 5.03). After three years, the Company may redeem shares of the Preferred Stock for the per share liquidation preference plus any accrued and unpaid dividends.

The Agreement contains limitations on certain actions of the Company, including but not limited to, the payment of cash dividends on Common Stock in excess of the current quarterly cash dividend of $0.70 per share and the repurchase of Common Stock during the first three years, unless all of the Preferred Stock has been redeemed or transferred to third parties or the Treasury otherwise consents, and grants the holders of the Preferred Stock, the Warrant and the Common Stock to be issued under the Warrant certain registration rights.

In the Agreement, the Company agreed that, until such time as the Treasury ceases to own any securities acquired pursuant to the Agreement, the Company s employee benefit plans and other executive compensation arrangements for its senior executive officers must comply in all respects with Section 111(b) of the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 (the EESA). In connection therewith, the applicable executives consented to the amendment of any such plans or arrangements and waived any and all claims against the Treasury and the Company for any such amendments necessary for the Company to comply with the requirements of Section 111(b) of the EESA.

The foregoing description of the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1, and is incorporated herein by reference.
