Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On January 23, 2008, the Board of Directors of CIGNA Corporation, upon the recommendation of its Corporate Governance Committee, approved amendments to Article VIII of the By-Laws to reduce the supermajority voting standard for amendment of the By-Laws by CIGNA's stockholders (other than an amendment to Article III, Section II, which concerns the number, qualifications, election and term of office for CIGNA's Board of Directors) with a simple majority voting requirement.

The Board of Directors also approved an amendment to the By-Laws to delete the current Article VI of the By-Laws, concerning indemnification, and replace it with a new Article VI. The provisions of the new Article VI govern the indemnification of any director, officer (or, in certain circumstances, any person who serves at the request of the Company in certain positions at another corporation or entity) in connection with any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative proceeding.

The Board of Directors approved other amendments to the By-Laws to provide clarification with respect to current practices, including: amendments regarding the conduct of business, voting, nomination of directors and notice of shareholder business at shareholder meetings; duties of certain officers; fixing of record dates; and other general provisions. These amendments are reflected in the attached By-Laws, as amended.

The amendments to the By-Laws will be effective as of April 23, 2008, which is the date that certain similar amendments to the Company's certificate of incorporation are expected to be voted upon at the Company's annual meeting of shareholders.

The foregoing description of the amendments to CIGNA's By-Laws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the By-Laws, as amended, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 3 and incorporated herein by reference.
