XL CAPITAL TO REALIGN ITS LLOYD'S OPERATIONS

Hamilton, Bermuda (November 27, 2001) - XL Capital Ltd (NYSE: XL) ("XL")

Edgar Filing: XL CAPITAL LTD - Form 8-K

announced today that it is realigning XL Brockbank Ltd ("XL Brockbank"), its Lloyd's of London operation. With effect from January 1, 2002, XL will supply 100% of the capacity supporting two of XL Brockbank's Syndicates at Lloyd's: Syndicate 1209, with capacity of (pound)360 million, and Syndicate 990, with capacity of (pound)80 million. Syndicates 588 and 861, backed entirely by third-party capital providers for the 2001 year of account, will cease to trade.

For 2002, Syndicate 1209 will focus on its core specialty Marine lines (Hull, Cargo, Marine Liabilities and Energy), Specie, Bloodstock, War & Political Risks, International Aviation and selected Non-Marine lines (Professional Indemnity and Property Programs). Syndicate 990 will continue its long-term strategy of maintaining a general Non-Marine account with an emphasis on long-tail business.

Nick Metcalf, Chief Executive Officer of XL Brockbank, will remain Active Underwriter of Syndicate 1209. James Weatherstone will be appointed Senior Deputy Underwriter of Syndicate 1209. David Wright and Neil Robertson (previously Deputy Underwriters of Syndicates 861 and 588 respectively) will be appointed as Deputy Underwriters of Syndicate 1209. Peter Matson will remain the Active Underwriter of Syndicate 990.

As part of this realignment, XL Brockbank will be renamed XL London Market Ltd.

The Syndicates will cease to participate in the Excess of Loss Treaty, Accident & Health, and US Fortune 500 Property accounts. However, these lines will continue to be offered through other insurance companies within the XL group. XL remains firmly committed to providing the highest quality of specialty line products and services to its clients and brokers, both through its Lloyd's operations and other operating subsidiaries.

Nick Metcalf, Chief Executive Officer of XL Brockbank, and Active Underwriter of Syndicate 1209, said: "We see the realignment as a positive development for our Lloyd's operation. We believe that owning 100% of the capacity on the Syndicates will give us greater opportunity to draw upon the capabilities within the XL group, and to respond creatively to the needs of our clients and brokers. We also believe that this realignment will improve our operating efficiencies."

Nicholas M. Brown, Jr., President and CEO of XL's Insurance Operations, said: "We are pleased that we have fulfilled our long-held ambition of providing 100% of the capacity on our Syndicates at Lloyd's. By focusing on core specialty lines, we believe that Syndicates 1209 and 990 will be well positioned to capitalize on the opportunities presented by today's dynamic market conditions."

XL Capital Ltd, through its operating subsidiaries, is a leading provider of insurance and reinsurance coverages and financial products to industrial, commercial and professional service firms, insurance companies, and other enterprises on a worldwide basis. As at September 30, 2001, XL had consolidated assets of approximately $25.7 billion and consolidated shareholders' equity of approximately $4.8 billion. More information about XL, the coverages written by its operating subsidiaries, and contact details, are available at www.xlcapital.com.
