PART I

Item 1. Business

General

Founded in 1979, Q.E.P. Co., Inc. (the "Company" or "Q.E.P.") manufactures, markets and distributes a broad line of specialty tools and flooring related products for the home improvement market in the United States and countries throughout the world. Under brand names including Q.E.P.(TM), O'TOOL(TM) and ROBERTS(TM), the Company markets over 4,000 specialty tools and flooring related products used primarily for surface preparation and installation of ceramic tile, carpet and marble. Q.E.P.'s products include trowels, floats, tile cutters, wet saws, spacers, nippers, pliers, carpet trimmers and cutters, carpet adhesives, seaming tape, tack strip, knives, dryset powders, grouts and abrasives. These products are sold to home improvement retailers, including national and regional chains such as Home Depot and Lowe's, specialty distributors to the hardware, construction, flooring and home improvement trades and chain or independent hardware, tile, and carpet retailers for use by the do-it-yourself consumer as well as the construction or remodeling professional.

The Company continues to experience growth in net sales, as adjusted in the current year for the Company's licensing of its domestic tack strip business described elsewhere herein, which management attributes to (i) strategic acquisitions, (ii) growth experienced by the Company's customers within the home improvement market, particularly among national and regional home center retailers such as Home Depot and Lowe's, (iii) the introduction of new products and the Company's success in cross-marketing its products among its channels of distribution, (iv) the Company's expansion of its customer base and market share through sales to additional home improvement retailers, distributors and Original Equipment Manufacturers ("OEMs") and (v) growth of the home improvement market as a whole.

The Company made several strategic acquisitions during the year ended February 29, 2000, as part of its plan to enhance its leadership in the worldwide flooring market. On June 17, 2000, the Company acquired Neon Australia Pty, Ltd., a leading Australian manufacturer of flooring tapes and metals for the carpet industry. On July 20, 1999, the Company acquired Novafonte, Limitada, a distributor, manufacturer and installer of ceramic tile and ceramic tile accessories located in Santiago, Chile. On July 22, 1999, the Company acquired an additional Australian flooring company, Accessories Marketing Pty, Ltd., the largest distributor of tools and installation products for all types of flooring in the Australian marketplace. On September 21, 1999, the Company acquired Boiardi Products Corp. of Little Falls, NJ. Boiardi is a manufacturer of a full line of thin-set mortars, grouts, self-leveling concrete toppings and crack-suppressing waterproof membranes used in the flooring industry. On September 30, 1999, the Company acquired Trade Mates Pty, Ltd. of Australia, a distributor of ceramic tile tools in the Australian marketplace. On December 6, 1999, the Company acquired Zocalis, SRL, an Argentinean company located in Buenos Aires. Zocalis is a manufacturer of ceramic borders and trim.

Edgar Filing: QEP CO INC - Form 10-K

Collectively, these acquisitions are referred to as the "Fiscal 2000 acquisitions" elsewhere herein.

The Company's acquisitions in fiscal 2001 were predominantly associated with expanding the Company's position as a manufacturer of dryset powder and grouts used in ceramic tile installations. To that end, the Company acquired Stone Mountain Manufacturing of Georgia and Stone Mountain Manufacturing of Florida from the same seller. The Company also acquired the Australian-based Southern Tile Agency PTY, a manufacturer of quality accessories used for the installation of ceramic tile and a New Zealand distributor.

Collectively, Southern Tile Agencies Ltd. Pty., Stone Mountain Manufacturing of Georgia and Florida and the Fiscal 2000 acquisitions are referred to elsewhere herein as the "newly acquired entities."

Market Overview

The Company is a supplier of specialty flooring installation products and sells to the home improvement market. According to the latest industry information published by the National Home Center News ("NHCN"), the United States retail home improvement market generated retail sales of over $200 billion in 1999 with home centers accounting for approximately $128 billion. NHCN projects that flooring products accounted for approximately 7% of sales in 1999. Estimates are that by 2004, the floor covering industry will have grown into a $62 billion business, up from $40 billion in 1998. Additionally, it is projected that by 2006 Americans will spend 58% more per capita on floor coverings than they do at the present time. The Company believes that growth in the home improvement market is being driven by several factors, including (i) aging of the United States housing stock which requires greater repair and maintenance expenditures, (ii) increased housing turnover of both new and existing homes, (iii) favorable demographic trends as "baby boomers," are now reaching the 37 to 56 year old age category, and such age category historically accounting for the largest home improvement expenditures of any age group, and (iv) changes in consumer preferences, which have caused an increase in the median size of new homes and which have contributed to demand for remodeling and expansion of older homes.

Within the home improvement market, distribution channels have continued to consolidate as a result of the success of the warehouse home center format used by large home improvement retailers. The increasing dominance of national home improvement retailers results from their ability to offer broad product lines, project advice and orientation, competitive pricing, aggressive promotions and large-format stores. Estimates published by the NHCN indicate that the 10 largest retailers accounted for approximately $70.3 billion of all home improvement sales in 1999. Based on data available to the Company, the primary beneficiaries of this consolidation among home improvement retailers have been the top two or three companies (ranked by annual sales volume). Thus, while the home improvement market's retail sales have expanded, the market is being increasingly dominated by the largest retailers.

The Company's two largest customers, Home Depot and Lowe's, experienced compound annual sales growth rates of 19.0% and 19.5%, respectively, from 1999 to 2000, according to their published financial reports and both have announced plans to continue increasing the number of stores each operates. As consolidation continues among home improvement retailers, the Company expects that sales of the largest national and regional home improvement retailers will continue to increase at greater rates than the rate of sales growth in the overall market. The Company expects that the growth trends in the specialty flooring segment of the home improvement market and among its customer base will directly affect the Company's ability to generate growth in its sales and net income, its expansion strategy and the nature of its sales and marketing initiatives.

Edgar Filing: QEP CO INC - Form 10-K

Business Strategy

The Company's strategy is to enhance its position as a leading manufacturer and distributor of specialty tools and related products by introducing new products and cross-selling products among its channels of distribution, expanding market share by obtaining new customers, and capitalizing on expected growth of its largest customers and of the home improvement market as a whole. Key elements of the Company's strategy include:

Pursue Additional Strategic Acquisitions. Through its acquisitions, detailed elsewhere herein, the Company has broadened its product lines, increased its customer base and increased its manufacturing and marketing capabilities. The Company intends to seek and evaluate acquisitions of both domestic and worldwide specialty tool and adhesive manufacturers, distributors and other companies whose products, distribution channels and brand names are complimentary to those of the Company and which will offer further opportunities for product cross selling, expansion of manufacturing and marketing operations and the addition of new customers.

Increase Sales By Expanding Product Lines and Adding New Customers. The Company seeks to expand its product lines by introducing new and innovative products which can be marketed to the Company's existing customer base. Through its acquisitions, the Company has expanded its customer base, the number of products available and its line of flooring installation products. In addition to expanding product offerings through acquisitions, the Company intends to internally develop and offer products in response to customer demands. The Company believes that broadening its product lines will make it a more attractive supplier to the major home improvement retailers and specialty distributors, thereby increasing the Company's sales and market penetration.

Capitalize on Cross-Selling Opportunities. The Company believes that there are significant opportunities for "cross selling" its products among its existing markets and channels of distribution. As part of its acquisition strategy, the Company seeks to identify acquisition candidates with complementary product lines and to "cross sell" acquired product lines to its existing customer base and its existing product lines to the customers of the acquired business.

Expand Foreign Market Presence. Management believes that the international markets provide a significant opportunity to increase sales of its products. Through the acquisition of Roberts Holland, Novafonte Limitada, Neon Australia, Accessories Marketing, Trade Mates and Zocalis, the Company acquired additional manufacturing, warehousing and distribution facilities in Europe, Australia, New Zealand, Chile and Argentina. During fiscal 2000, the Company began selling to home centers and major ceramic retailers in Europe, Australia and South America. In addition, the Company has implemented foreign sales and marketing programs designed to increase the Company's presence in South America and the Pacific Rim.

Enhance Manufacturing Capabilities. The Company currently has approximately 372,000 square feet of manufacturing capability located throughout the United States, Canada, Holland, Australia and South America. The Company estimates that in fiscal 2001, it manufactured approximately 50% of its QEP and ROBERTS product lines.

Products

Edgar Filing: QEP CO INC - Form 10-K

The Company manufactures, markets and distributes a broad line of over 4,000 specialty tools and flooring related products. The Company's products are offered under brand names including Q.E.P.(TM), O'TOOL(TM) and ROBERTS(TM) and are used primarily for surface preparation and installation of ceramic tile, carpet and marble.

The Company manufactures and distributes adhesives, grouts, mortars, dry set powders, carpet seaming tape and an assortment of carpet installation tools as well as floats, tile cutters, trowels, electric saws, nippers and other products to the ceramic tile industry. These products are sold to both distributors and do it yourself customers. Although the Company manufactures and distributes over 4,000 products, a majority of the Company's sales are to customers who purchase between 20 and 150 individual stock-keeping units. As the Company seeks to broaden its product lines, the competition for limited shelf space available at home improvement retailers for specialty tools and related products may limit sales of existing or newly introduced products.

The Company maintains a research and development program through which it seeks to identify new product opportunities within its primary markets. Methods by which the Company seeks to identify product opportunities include soliciting product feedback from customers through its outside sales force and manufacturers' representatives, review of product brochures and catalogs issued by foreign and domestic manufacturers of specialty tools, review of product concepts with buyers employed by its customers, and attendance at industry trade shows and conventions at which new product concepts are introduced and discussed. The Company also considers participation in joint ventures and evaluation of product samples to be an important part of its effort to identify new product opportunities. The Company maintains a product quality control program primarily to verify the quality of its existing products and to develop ideas for additional products or enhancements to existing products.

Relationship With Major Customers

In 1983, the Company began selling products to Home Depot, which is currently the largest home improvement retailer in the world based on annual sales volume. In 1993, the Company added Lowe's as a customer, which is now the second largest home improvement retailer in the world. Home Depot and Lowe's are the Company's two largest customers accounting for 40.9% and 9.4% of the Company's fiscal 2001 net sales, respectively.

Because of the importance of home improvement retailers to its business, the Company has, in consultation with its major customers, developed customer service programs to ensure that the specific needs of these customers are given a high priority with direct attention from senior officers of the Company. Features of the Company's customer service programs for its major customers include providing a range of in-store services, such as, assistance with inventory, maintenance of product displays, introduction of new products, maintaining inventories of tools and related products in multiple locations to permit rapid shipping, delivering orders promptly, holding education classes for retail store personnel, packaging with multilingual labels, prepaying delivery for product shipments with minimum purchase requirements, participating in cooperative promotions and special sales events, providing product research for buyers, operating a customer service hotline, providing parts and repair service, extension of advertising allowances, accepting orders electronically and billing through electronic data interchange, bar coding for each individual stock keeping unit, and incorporating anti-theft tags in packaging. The Company believes that its major customers place considerable value on service and promotional support and frequently evaluates its service and promotional activities in an effort to serve its customers more effectively.

The Company believes that the consolidation among home improvement retailers

will continue and that the national and large regional home improvement retailers will continue to increase their market share in the near future. Home Depot and Lowe's have announced plans to increase significantly the number of stores each operates over the next several years. As a result, the Company expects the percentage of its sales to these customers to continue to be significant. The Company has also expanded its customer base in other areas through its newly acquired entities.

Manufacturing and Suppliers

The Company estimates that in fiscal 2001 it manufactured approximately 50% of its QEP & ROBERTS product lines. The Company manufactures adhesives, carpet seaming tape and carpet installation tools at its main manufacturing facility in Mexico, Missouri. Flooring adhesives are produced at the facility in Bramalea, Ontario, Canada and Sliedrecht, Holland. The majority of the Company's manufactured ceramic tile tools are produced in Mexico, Missouri. Plastic tile spacers are manufactured at the facility in Boca Raton, Florida. Grouts and related products are manufactured at the Company's New Jersey, Georgia, Ft. Pierce, Florida and Chilean facilities. In Australia, the Company manufactures accessories used for the installation of ceramic tile. Such tile accessories are also manufactured in Chile. Ceramic trim is manufactured in Argentina.

The Company purchased finished products and components from approximately 250 different suppliers in fiscal 2001. Although the Company believes that multiple sources of supply exist for nearly all of the products and components purchased from outside suppliers and generally maintains at least two sources of supply for each item purchased, interruptions in supply or price changes in the items purchased by the Company could have a material adverse effect on the Company's operations.

Distribution, Sales and Marketing

The Company's specialty tools and related products are currently sold through four distinct distribution channels: (i) the Company's sales staff; (ii) independent manufacturing representatives; (iii) an in-house telemarketing sales force; and (iv) outside salaried and commissioned sales representatives. Management estimates that sales through its primary distribution channels in fiscal 2001 were as follows: 50.6% to national and regional home improvement retailers; 47.1% to specialty distributors and 2.3% to OEMs and other specialty retailers.

The Company maintains an in-house creative art department through which it produces and develops color product catalogs, signage, point of purchase materials and distinctive packaging to enhance sales per square foot at the retail level and to reinforce the Company's brand images. The Company has developed a direct mail marketing program under which approximately 3,500 product advertising flyers are mailed to customers, usually on a bimonthly basis.

The Company's marketing and sales representatives, or its manufacturers' representatives, conduct regular visits to many customers' individual retail stores. In addition, the Company or its sales representatives provides product knowledge classes for retail store personnel. The Company also evaluates the product mix at its customers' locations from time to time with a view toward changing the product mix, if necessary, to increase sales per square foot. When the Company secures a new customer, the Company generally resets all displays and assists store personnel in becoming familiar with the Company's product

Competition

The Company believes that competition in the home improvement flooring product market is based primarily on product quality, delivery capabilities, brand name recognition, availability of retail shelf space and price. The Company believes that its competitive strengths are the quality of its products, its wide range of products, its delivery capabilities, and the brand recognition. The Company faces competition largely on a product-by-product basis from numerous manufacturing and distribution companies. The Company believes that the diversity of its product portfolio will allow it to compete effectively with its competitors, although some of such competitors may sell larger quantities of a particular product than the Company.

The Company is aware of a number of competitors, many of which are foreign and may have greater financial, marketing and other resources than the Company. The Company's foreign sales, including Canada, accounted for approximately 22.8% of total sales during fiscal year 2001. Fiscal 2001 sales generated by the Company's Canadian subsidiary were 7.9%, its Holland subsidiary 7.8%, its Australian subsidiaries 3.6%, its South American subsidiaries 1.8% and 1.7% to foreign customers from its domestic subsidiaries. The Company is continuing to penetrate more foreign markets and, as a result, the Company may experience competition from foreign companies, which could adversely affect the Company's gross margins on its foreign sales.

Certain of the Company's larger customers have in the past contacted one or more of the Company's foreign suppliers to discuss purchasing home improvement products directly from these suppliers. Although the Company believes that its diversified product line, brand recognition and customer service will continue to offer benefits not otherwise available to the Company's customers from foreign manufacturers, the Company could experience competition from one or more foreign manufacturers which now serve as suppliers to the Company. If one or more of the Company's larger customers were to begin purchasing products previously supplied by the Company directly from foreign manufacturers, the Company's business would be adversely affected. Increased competition from these manufacturers or others could result in lower sales, price reductions and loss of market share, each of which would have an adverse effect on the Company's results of operations.

Environmental Matters

The Company is subject to federal, state and local laws, regulations and ordinances governing activities or operations that may have adverse environmental effects, such as discharges to air and water, handling and disposal practices for solid, special and hazardous wastes, and imposing liability for the cost of cleaning up, and certain damages resulting from sites of past spills, disposal or other releases of hazardous substances (together, "Environmental Laws"). Sanctions which may be imposed for violation of Environmental Laws include the payment or reimbursement of investigative and clean up costs, administrative penalties and, in certain cases, prosecution under environmental criminal statutes. The Company's manufacturing facilities are subject to environmental regulation by, among other agencies, the Environmental Protection Agency, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, and various state authorities in the states where such facilities are located. The activities of the Company, including its manufacturing operations at its leased facilities, are subject to the requirements of Environmental Laws. The Company believes that the cost of compliance with Environmental Laws to date has not been material to the Company. The Company is not currently aware of any situations requiring remedial or other action which would involve a material expense to the Company, or expose the Company to material liability under Environmental Laws. As the operations of the Company involve the storage, handling, discharge and disposal of substances which are subject to regulation under Environmental Laws, there can be no assurance that the Company will not incur any material liability under Environmental Laws in the future or will not be required to expend funds in order to effect compliance with applicable Environmental Laws.

The Company has completed testing at its facility in Bramalea, Ontario, Canada for leakage of hazardous materials. As a result, in fiscal 1999, the Company prepared a plan to remediate the contamination over a period of years and this plan was subsequently approved by the Canadian Ministry of Environment (MOE). The Company recorded a reserve for potential environmental liability on the closing date of the Roberts acquisition of approximately $325,000 and this amount was increased during fiscal 1999 by $275,000 to $600,000 based on an estimate for the cost of remediation. To date, the Company has spent approximately $444,000 and anticipates spending additional amounts on ongoing monitoring of wells and other environmental activity at the approximate rate of $20,000 per year for five to ten years.

Roberts Consolidated Industries, Inc. has been named as a defendant in an amended complaint filed in CARGILL, INC. ET AL. V. ABCO CONSTRUCTION ET AL., a lawsuit initially filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio Western Division on January 29, 1998. The lawsuit, brought under CERCLA and related state environmental laws, alleges that an entity known as "Roberts Consolidated" and the other defendants disposed of hazardous substances at a site located in Dayton, Ohio. The plaintiffs are seeking monetary damages against the defendants, primarily in an amount equal to their respective equitable share of the cost of the environmental clean up of the site. The Company previously reported that based on preliminary investigations, it believed that the entity identified as Roberts Consolidated, named a defendant in this lawsuit, was neither the same entity nor a predecessor to the entity acquired by the Company. The successor in interest to the Roberts Consolidated which owned "the facility" in question responded to the initial complaint. To the Company's knowledge, this entity has not responded to the amended complaint. Based upon its investigations to date, the Company continues to believe that the entity identified as Roberts Consolidated Industries, Inc., named defendant in the amended complaint, was neither the same entity nor a predecessor to the entity acquired by the Company.

Intellectual Property

The Company markets its specialty tools and related products under various trademarks owned by the Company or its subsidiaries, including Q.E.P.(TM), O'TOOL(TM) and ROBERTS(TM). The Company has devoted substantial time, effort and expense to the development of brand name recognition and goodwill for products sold under its trademarks, has not received any notice that its use of such marks infringes upon the rights of others, and is not aware of any activities which would appear to constitute infringement of any of its marks. Roberts Consolidated has secured domestic and foreign patents relating to certain of its carpet seaming products. Although the patents are important to the operation of Roberts Consolidated, the Company does not believe that the loss of any one or more of these patents would have a material adverse effect on the Company. These patents are scheduled to expire in the years 2008 and 2013. Roberts Consolidated also licenses its name to various foreign distributors.

Edgar Filing: QEP CO INC - Form 10-K

As of May 4, 2001, the Company had 409 employees, including 71 administrative employees, 78 sales and marketing employees, 151 manufacturing employees and 109 employees responsible for shipping activities. Ten of these employees work part-time and 126 are employed by the Company's international subsidiaries, including 7 part-time employees. The Company has not experienced any work stoppages and none of the Company's employees are represented by a union. The Company considers its relations with the employees to be good.

Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

General

The Company manufactures, markets and distributes a broad line of specialty tools and flooring related products for the home improvement market. The Company markets over 4,000 specialty tools and related products used primarily for surface preparation and installation of ceramic tile, carpet and marble. The Company's products are sold through home improvement retailers, specialty distributors to the hardware, construction, flooring and home improvement trades, chain or independent hardware, tile and carpet retailers for use by the do-it-yourself consumer as well as the construction or remodeling professional, and original equipment manufacturers. Dollar figures set forth below are rounded to the nearest thousand.

Results of Operations

Fiscal 2001 as compared to Fiscal 2000

Net sales for the twelve months ended February 28, 2001 ("fiscal 2001", or the "fiscal 2001 period") were $112,884,000 compared to $113,571,000 for the twelve months ended February 29, 2000 ("fiscal 2000", or the "fiscal 2000 period"), a decrease of $687,000 or .6%. Selling prices remained relatively stable. Sales to Home Center customers increased primarily as a result of new store openings and expansion of the Company's business to one of its major Home Center customers. In May 2000, the Company discontinued the sale of its tackless carpet strip product to domestic distributors and licensed the rights of sale to a third party. As a result, sales to the specialty distributors customers base of the Company declined. Also impacting sales were additional incentives provided to one of the Company's major customers. The impact from the licensing of the tackstrip business and additional sales incentive was approximately $12,158,000.

Gross profit for fiscal 2001 was $35,944,000 compared to $34,534,000 for fiscal 2000, an increase of $1,410,000 or 4.1%. As a percentage of net sales, gross profit increased to 31.8% in fiscal 2001 from 30.4% in fiscal 2000, primarily due to a change in product mix towards higher margin products and the discontinuance of the sale to domestic distributors of the low margin tackstrip product. These increases were slightly offset by the aforementioned additional customer incentives.

Shipping expenses for the fiscal 2001 period were $9,682,000 compared to $8,987,000 for the fiscal 2000 period, an increase of $695,000 or 7.7%. As a percentage of net sales, these expenses increased to 8.6% in the fiscal 2001 period from 7.9% in the fiscal 2000 period, primarily as a result of an increase in freight rates charged by common carriers. In addition, other freight costs remained relatively constant causing costs as a percentage of sales to increase. The actual increase was substantially attributable to the increased sales volume, increased freight costs and an absorption of a higher percentage of freight costs by the Company to its domestic distributors.

Edgar Filing: QEP CO INC - Form 10-K

General and administrative expenses for the fiscal 2001 period were $9,650,000 compared to $9,393,000 for the fiscal 2000 period, an increase of $257,000 or 2.7%. As a percentage of net sales, these expenses increased slightly to 8.5% in the fiscal 2001 period from 8.3% in the fiscal 2000 period. This increase was primarily due to the absorption of fixed costs over a reduced sales volume. The actual increase was primarily the result of costs associated with the relocation of the Company's California facility to Nevada, approximately $600,000, offset by a reduction of expenses at the Company's domestic divisions.

Selling and marketing costs for the fiscal 2001 period increased to $11,616,000 from $9,494,000 in the fiscal 2000 period, an increase of $2,122,000 or 22.4%. As a percentage of net sales, these expenses increased to 10.3% in the fiscal 2001 period from 8.4% in the fiscal 2000 period principally as a result of the reduced sales volume, an increase in commission rates paid to the Company's sales force and an increase in marketing allowance rates to one of the Company's major customers. The increase in the actual amount of these expenses is attributable to the increase in commissions paid to sales personnel and marketing allowances to home center customers resulting principally from the increased sales volume.

During the third quarter of the fiscal 2001 period, the Company finalized its plan to close its California facility and relocate to Nevada where it is anticipated that the Company will realize certain manufacturing efficiencies, reduced cost of operations and tax savings. Additionally, the Company initiated a downsizing of its Holland subsidiary to maintain profitability. In connection with these decisions, the Company recorded a restructuring charge of approximately $637,000 in the fiscal 2001 period. As of February 28, 2001, substantially all costs of the plant closing and downsizing were paid and there remained an approximate $70,000 reserve for the downsizing of Holland.

Interest income for the fiscal 2001 period was approximately $175,000 compared to $133,000 in fiscal 2000. Interest expense for the fiscal 2001 period was approximately $2,307,000 compared to approximately $1,834,000 in fiscal 2000. Interest expense increased primarily as a result of the increase in borrowings associated with the funding of the increase in inventory and accounts receivable caused by higher sales volume and an increase in borrowing rates.

Provision for income taxes was $887,000 in fiscal 2001 compared to $1,951,000 in fiscal 2000, a decrease of $1,064,000 or 54.5%. The decrease is the result of the decrease in the Company's taxable income. The effective tax rate was approximately 38.2% in the fiscal 2001 period compared to 39.2% in the fiscal 2000 period. The estimated tax rate is based upon the most recent effective tax rates available.

Net income for the fiscal 2001 period decreased to $1,433,000 compared to $3,203,000 in fiscal 2000, a decrease of $1,770,000 or 55.3%. Net income as a percentage of sales decreased to 1.3% in fiscal 2001 compared to 2.8% in fiscal 2000, reflecting a slightly higher gross profit margin resulting from the licensing of the domestic distributor tack strip business offset by sales incentives provided to a major retailer, higher selling and marketing, shipping, general and administrative and restructuring expenses as a percentage of sales as described above.

Results of Operations

Fiscal 2000 as compared to Fiscal 1999

Edgar Filing: QEP CO INC - Form 10-K

Net sales for the twelve months ended February 29, 2000 ("fiscal 2000", or the "fiscal 2000 period") were $113,571,000 compared to $98,000,000 for the twelve months ended February 28, 1999 ("fiscal 1999", or the "fiscal 1999 period"), an increase of $15,571,000 or 15.9%. Although selling prices remained relatively stable, there was an increase in the volume of sales to substantially all of the Company's customer groups, especially home centers, which was primarily the result of an increase in the number of new store openings and an expansion by the home centers of certain product lines offered by the Company. Approximately $3,950,000 of the increase in net sales was the result of the Fiscal 2000 acquisitions.

Gross profit for fiscal 2000 was $34,534,000 compared to $29,451,000 for fiscal 1999, an increase of $5,083,000 or 17.3%. As a percentage of net sales, gross profit increased slightly to 30.4% in fiscal 2000 from 30.0% in fiscal 1999, primarily due to a change in product mix towards higher margin products and slightly higher gross margins earned by the Company's Fiscal 2000 acquisitions.

Shipping expenses for the fiscal 2000 period were $8,987,000 compared to $7,592,000 for the fiscal 1999 period, an increase of $1,395,000 or 18.4%. As a percentage of net sales, these expenses increased to 7.9% in the fiscal 2000 period from 7.7% in the fiscal 1999 period, primarily as a result of an increase in freight rates charged by common carriers and expenses incurred for the repositioning of inventory related to the increased sales volume. The actual increase was substantially attributable to the increased sales volume and the approximate $225,000 expended by the Fiscal 2000 acquisitions.

General and administrative expenses for the fiscal 2000 period were $9,393,000 compared to $8,074,000 for the fiscal 1999 period, an increase of $1,299,000 or 16.1%. As a percentage of net sales, these expenses increased slightly to 8.3% in the fiscal 2000 period from 8.2% in the fiscal 1999 period. This increase was primarily due to the Fiscal 2000 acquisitions, which have a higher percentage of expense relative to sales than the Company. The actual increase was primarily the result of employee related costs and expenses and the Fiscal 2000 acquisitions accounted for approximately $610,000 of such increase.

Selling and marketing costs for the fiscal 2000 period increased to $9,494,000 from $8,253,000 in the fiscal 1999 period, an increase of $1,241,000 or 15.0%. As a percentage of net sales, these expenses remained stable at 8.4% in the fiscal 2000 and fiscal 1999 periods. The increase in the actual amount of these expenses is attributable to the increase in commissions paid to sales personnel and marketing allowances to home center customers resulting principally from the increased sales volume. Approximately $270,000 of the increase is attributable to the Fiscal 2000 acquisitions.

Interest income for the fiscal 2000 period was approximately $133,000 compared to $113,000 in fiscal 1999. Interest expense for the fiscal 2000 period was approximately $1,834,000 compared to approximately $1,738,000 in fiscal 1999. Interest expense increased as a result of the increase in borrowings associated with the Fiscal 2000 acquisitions and working capital needs.

During the third quarter of the fiscal 2000 period, the Company repurchased approximately $1,229,000 of its 8% Subordinated Debentures issued in 1997 and scheduled to mature in April 2001. The transaction resulted in an extraordinary gain from the early extinguishment of debt of approximately $181,000.

Provision for income taxes was $1,951,000 in fiscal 2000 compared to $1,466,000 in fiscal 1999, an increase of $485,000 or 33.1%. The increase is the result of an increase in the Company's taxable income and a slight increase in its estimated effective tax rate to 37.8% in fiscal 2000 compared to 37.7% in fiscal 1999. The estimated tax rate is based upon the most recent effective tax rates available and is slightly higher in the fiscal 2000 period due to an increase in non-deductible expenses associated with the Company's Fiscal 2000 acquisitions.

Net income for the fiscal 2000 period increased to $3,203,000 compared to $2,424,000 in fiscal 1999, an increase of $779,000 or 32.1%. Net income as a percentage of sales increased to 2.8% in fiscal 2000 compared to 2.5% in fiscal 1999, reflecting a slightly higher gross profit margin and the extraordinary income item of $181,000 offset by higher shipping and general and administrative expenses as a percentage of sales as described above. Exclusive of the extraordinary item, net income increased $598,000 to $3,022,000 (24.7%) and net income as a percentage of sales increased to approximately 2.7%.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Working capital decreased to approximately $9,788,000 at February 28, 2001 from approximately $13,511,000 at February 29, 2000, a decrease of $3,723,000, primarily as a result of the funds expended for certain acquisitions, capital expenditures and the purchase of treasury stock. Any cash in excess of anticipated requirements is invested in commercial paper or overnight repurchase agreements with a financial institution. The Company states the value of such investments at market price and classifies them as cash equivalents in its balance sheet.

Net cash provided by operating activities during the fiscal 2001 period was $367,000 compared to $2,536,000 for the comparable fiscal 2000 period. The decrease in cash from operating activities was primarily the result of income from operations adjusted for non-cash charges for depreciation and amortization, offset by an increase in accounts receivable and inventory resulting from the increase in sales to Home Centers. Net cash used in investing activities was $3,185,000 compared to $4,221,000 for the comparable fiscal 2000 period. The fiscal 2001 amount was substantially attributable to capital expenditures and funds expended for certain of the newly acquired entities.

For the fiscal 2001 period, cash provided by financing activities was $2,721,000, which was primarily the result of an increase in short-term bank debt associated with the newly acquired entities and collections on notes receivable offset by the repayment of long-term and acquisition debt. Net cash provided by financing activities was $2,329,000 in the fiscal 2000 period due primarily to the increase in short term debt associated with the Fiscal 2000 acquisitions and collections on notes receivable offset by repayment of long term debt.

The Company has a revolving credit and term loan facility agreement with a United States financial institution. This agreement, which was amended on April 5, 2001, provides for borrowings of up to $18,000,000 against a fixed percentage of eligible accounts receivable and inventory. Interest is payable based on a sliding scale depending on the Company's senior debt to EBITDA ranging from LIBOR plus 1.75% to LIBOR plus 2.5%. This facility terminates in July 2003 and is collateralized by substantially all of the Company's assets. Under the terms of the credit agreement, the Company is required to maintain certain financial ratios and conditions. The credit agreement also prohibits the Company from incurring certain additional indebtedness, limits certain investments, advances or loans and restricts substantial asset sales and capital expenditures. The terms of the Company's credit facility also prohibits the payment of dividends, except with the lender's consent. Prior to this amendment the Company was allowed to borrow up to $16,500,000 based on the same fixed percentage of eligible accounts receivable and inventory. Interest was charged on a sliding scale. As of February 28, 2001, interest was at LIBOR (5.53 at February 28, 2001) plus 1.75%. At February 28, 2001, the Company had $989,000 available for future borrowings under its then existing facilities. If the new facility had been in place the Company would have had $2,489,000 available. The Company's Chilean subsidiary has a revolving credit facility with a financial institution which permits borrowings of up to $100,000 with interest at 18% per year. The facilities are secured by a standby letter of credit given by the Company. This facility expires on June 30, 2001. At February 28, 2001 the Chilean subsidiary had approximately $15,000 available for future borrowings under the credit facility. The Company's Australian subsidiary also has an overdraft facility which allows it to borrow against a certain percentage of inventory and receivables. At February 28, 2001 the maximum permitted borrowing was approximately $300,000 and was fully utilized. In connection with the acquisition of Roberts Consolidated Industries, Inc., the Company issued $7,500,000 of subordinated debentures. These debentures matured in April 2001 and bore interest at 8%. They were recorded at their fair value on the date of issuance in the amount of $6,515,000 and the discount was amortized over the life of the debentures. During the third quarter of fiscal 2000, the Company repurchased approximately $1,229,000 of its debentures at a discount resulting in an extraordinary gain from early extinguishment of debt of approximately $181,000. At February 28, 2001 and February 29, 2000, the remaining amortized balance of this obligation was $6,104,000 and $5,891,000, respectively. On April 5, 2001 the Company entered into a new $4,500,000 subordinated credit facility with HillStreet Fund LP. This facility bears an interest rate of 15% and matures in six years. Equal quarterly payments are required beginning in year five. The agreement also provides for an additional 3% interest if the Company does not meet certain financial covenants. In addition, the Company issued 325,000 10-year warrants at $3.63. These warrants can be put to the Company after the fifth year based on criteria set forth in the warrant agreement. In addition, the Company may call these warrants after the sixth year based on the same criteria.

In connection with the newly acquired entities, the Company issued five notes to the respective sellers. Two of the notes, aggregating approximately $1,260,000, were paid in fiscal 2001 and were non-interest bearing. The third note, having an original principal balance of $900,000, is payable in equal installments in October over a three year period with interest at the Company's prevailing borrowing rate. The fourth note, in the principal amount of $825,000, is payable in three installments of $312,500 in December 2000 and 2001 and $200,000 in December 2003 with interest fixed at $12,500, $12,500 and $25,000, respectively. The fifth note in the original principal amount of $1,600,000, is payable quarterly at $80,000 plus interest at 8% from October 1, 2000 through October 1, 2005.

On December 23, 2000, the Company entered into an interest rate swap agreement with its primary lender. The interest rate swap agreement hedges the Company's exposure on certain floating rate obligations in the aggregate principal amount of $10,000,000. The purpose of the interest rate swap is to convert the Company's floating rate interest obligations to obligations having a fixed rate of 6.0% per annum for a one-year period. Prior to this interest rate swap, the Company had one with the same institution that matured in December 2000. The fixing of the interest rates reduces in part the Company's exposure to the uncertainty of floating interest rates. The differential paid or received by the Company on the interest rate swap agreement is recognized as an adjustment to interest expense in the period incurred. For the year ended February 28, 2001, the Company reduced interest expense by approximately $71,000 as a result of the interest rate swap agreements that were in place during that period. The Company is exposed to credit loss in the event of non-performance by any counter-party to the interest rate swap agreement. The Company does not anticipate rate non-performance by such lender, and no material loss would be expected from the non-performance of the lender.

The Company believes its existing cash balances, internally generated funds from operations and its available bank lines of credit will provide the liquidity necessary to satisfy the Company's working capital needs, including the growth in inventory and accounts receivable balances, and will be adequate to finance anticipated capital expenditures for the next twelve months.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In 1998, Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 133, "Accounting of Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities," was issued and in June 2000, SFAS No. 138 was issued, which amends and clarifies certain guidance in SFAS No. 133. These statements establish new accounting and reporting standards for derivative financial instruments and must be adopted no later than fiscal 2002. The statement requires all derivatives to be recognized as assets or liabilities on the balance sheet and measured at fair value. Changes in the fair value of derivatives should be recognized in either net income or other comprehensive income, depending on the designated purpose of the derivative. The Company must implement SFAS No. 133 by the first quarter of fiscal 2002. The Company has evaluated the requirements of SFAS No. 133 and adoption will not have a significant impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In September 2000, the Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") reached a final consensus on EITF Issue 00-10, "Accounting for shipping and handling costs and the related revenue. The Company adopted EITF 00-10 in fiscal 2001 and classifies all shipping and handling costs as a separate operational expense.

The EITF issued EITF 08-22, "Accounting for "Points" and Certain Other Time-Based or Volume-Based Sales Incentive Offers, and Offers for Free Products or Services to Be Delivered in the Future." This guidance requires that obligations for cash rebates offered to customers who achieve specified cumulative levels of revenue transactions be recognized as a reduction of revenue based on a systematic and rational allocation to each of the underlying revenue transactions that result in plain progress towards the rebate. The EITF also issued EITF 00-25, "Accounting for Consideration from a Vendor to a Retailer in Connection with the Purchase or Promotion of the Vendor's Products." This issue addresses when consideration from a vendor to a retailer (a) in connection with the retailer's purchase of the vendor's products or (b) to promote sales of the vendor's products by the retailer should be classified in the vendor's income statement as a reduction of revenue. The Company is required to adopt EITF No. 00-22 and 00-25 in the first quarter of 2002. The Company has reviewed the requirements and has determined that it is currently in compliance with the consensus and will not have a significant impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements which are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Statements as to what the Company "believes," "intends," "expects," or "anticipates" and other similar anticipatory expressions, are generally forward-looking and are made only as of the date of this report. Additionally, the report is subject to risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements and from historical results of operations. Among the risks and uncertainties which could cause such a difference are the assumptions upon which the Company bases its assessments of its future working capital and capital expenditure requirements and those relating to the Company's ability to satisfy its working capital needs and to finance its anticipated capital expenditures, which could prove to be different than expected, the Company's anticipation of the performance by the lender under the interest rate swap agreements and its assessment of the effect of any non-performance by the lender under the interest rate swap agreements, the Company's dependence upon a limited number of customers for a substantial portion of its sales, the Company's reliance upon suppliers and sales agents for the purchase of finished products which are then resold by it, the level of demand for the Company's products among existing and potential new customers, the Company's ability to successfully manage and integrate the business and operations of newly acquired entities, the Company's dependence upon certain key personnel and its ability to successfully integrate new management personnel into the Company, the Company's ability to accurately predict the number and type of employees required to conduct its European operations and the compensation required to be paid to such personnel, any increase in the level of current taxes or the imposition of additional taxes in connection with the Henderson, Nevada facility, its ability to manage its growth, the risk of economic and market factors affecting the Company or its customers and other risks and uncertainties described elsewhere herein.

Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

On December 23, 2000, the Company entered into an interest rate swap agreement with its primary lender. The interest rate swap agreement hedges the Company's exposure on certain floating rate obligations in the aggregate principal amount of $10,000,000. The purpose of the interest rate swap is to convert the Company's floating rate interest obligations to obligations having a fixed rate of 6.0% per annum for a one-year period. Prior to this interest rate swap, the Company had one with the same institution that matured in December 2000. The fixing of the interest rates reduces in part the Company's exposure to the uncertainty of floating interest rates. The differential paid or received by the Company on the interest rate swap agreement is recognized as an adjustment to interest expense in the period incurred. For the year ended February 28, 2001, the Company reduced interest expense by approximately $71,000 as a result of the interest rate swap agreements that were in place during that period. The Company is exposed to credit loss in the event of non-performance by any counter-party to the interest rate swap agreement. The Company does not anticipate rate non-performance by such lender, and no material loss would be expected from the non-performance of the lender.

The Company averaged approximately $10,839,000 of variable rate debt not covered by the interest rate swap agreement during fiscal 2001. If interest rates would have increased by 10%, the effect on the Company would have been an increase in interest expense of approximately $76,000.

Board of Directors and Shareholders
Q.E.P. Co., Inc. and Subsidiaries

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Q.E.P. Co., Inc. (a Delaware corporation) and Subsidiaries as of February 28, 2001 and February 29, 2000, and the related consolidated statements of income, shareholders' equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended February 28, 2001. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Q.E.P. Co., Inc. is a leading manufacturer, marketer and distributor of a broad line of specialty tools and flooring related products for the home improvement market. Under brand names including Q.E.P.(TM), O'TOOL(TM) and ROBERTS(TM) the Company markets over 4,000 specialty tools and flooring related products used primarily for the surface preparation and installation of ceramic tile, carpet and marble. The Company sells its products to large home improvement retail centers, as well as traditional distribution outlets in 50 states and more than 49 countries worldwide.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Q.E.P. Co., Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiaries, after eliminating all significant inter-company accounts and transactions.

2. Warrants

In connection with its initial public offering and an acquisition, the Company has issued a total of 400,000 warrants to purchase common stock. The exercise price associated with the warrants is $8.00 per share for 250,000 warrants and $8.16 per share for 150,000 warrants. Such warrants expire on September 17, 2001 and October 21, 2002, respectively. In connection with the refinancing of certain subordinated debt (see Note K), the Company issued 325,000 warrants at $3.63 to expire on April 4, 2011. These warrants can be put to the Company after the fifth year based on certain criteria. Further, the Company may call these warrants, based on certain criteria, after the sixth year.

3. Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

4. Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of standard cost or market.

5. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided by straight-line methods in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives. Leasehold improvements are amortized over their expected useful life or the life of the respective lease, whichever is shorter.

The following are the estimated lives of the Company's property and equipment:

Machinery and warehouse equipment	5 to 10 years
Furniture and equipment	5 to 10 years
Capital leases	3 to 5 years
Building	30 to 33 years
Leasehold improvements	5 to 15 years

F-7

Q.E.P. CO., INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense, while significant renewals and betterments are capitalized. When property is sold or otherwise disposed of, the cost and related depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any resulting gain or loss is reflected in operations for the period.

6. Intangible Assets

Intangible assets (predominately goodwill which represents the cost in excess of net assets of businesses acquired) are recorded and amortized over periods ranging from five to thirty five years using the straight-line method. At each balance sheet date, the Company evaluates the reliability of goodwill based on expectations of non-discounted cash flows. If the sum of the non-discounted cash flows is less than the carrying amount of all assets, including intangible assets, the Company recognizes an impairment loss. The Company believes no material impairment to goodwill exists at February 28, 2001.

7. Income Taxes

Deferred income taxes are recorded to reflect the tax consequences on future years of differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their financial reporting amounts at each year-end.

8. Leases

Leases which meet certain criteria are classified as capital leases. For such leases, assets and obligations are recorded initially at the fair market values of the leased assets. The capitalized leases are amortized using the straight-line method over the assets' estimated economic lives. Interest expense relating to the lease liabilities is recorded to effect a constant rate of interest over the terms of the obligations. Leases not meeting capitalization criteria are classified as operating leases and related rentals are charged to expense as incurred.

9. Stock-Based Compensation

The Company grants stock options for a fixed number of shares to employees and directors with an exercise price equal to at least 85% of the fair market value of the shares at the date of grant. The Company has adopted the disclosure-only provision of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," which permits the Company to account for stock option grants in accordance with APB Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees." Under APB 25, compensation expense is recorded when the exercise price of the Company's employee stock option is less than the market price of the underlying stock at the date of grant.

Edgar Filing: QEP CO INC - Form 10-K

10. Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share is computed based on weighted average shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is computed using the weighted average number of common and dilutive common stock equivalent shares outstanding during the period. Dilutive common stock equivalent shares consist of stock options and warrant common stock equivalent shares which are not utilized when the effect is antidilutive.

11. Comprehensive Income

The Company records comprehensive income in accordance with SFAS No. 130, "Reporting Comprehensive Income." SFAS 130 requires foreign currency translation adjustments to be included in other comprehensive income.

F-8

Q.E.P. CO., INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The components of comprehensive income and the effect on earnings for the year ended February 28, 2001 are detailed in the Company's accompanying Consolidated Statement of Shareholders' Equity.

12. Post Employment Benefits

The Company has a policy which provides service benefits to its salaried employees. The Company records a liability for post employment benefits in accordance with SFAS No. 112, "Employers Accounting for Post Employment Benefits". Since the Company cannot reasonably estimate post employment benefits, including severance benefits, on an ongoing basis, these costs are recorded only when the probability of payment and the amount of such payment can be reasonably determined.

13. Interest Rate Swap

The interest rate swap agreement, (the "Swap") involves the exchange of fixed and floating interest rate payment obligations over various terms without the exchange of the underlying notional principal amount. The differential to be paid or received is recognized as an adjustment to interest expense in the period incurred.

14. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The following methods and assumptions were used in estimating the indicated fair values of financial instruments:

Cash and cash equivalents: The carrying amount approximates fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

Short term debt: The carrying amount approximates fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

Long term debt: The fair value of the Company's borrowings approximates the carrying value based on current rates offered to the Company for similar debt.

Interest rate swap: The fair value of the interest rate swap used for hedging purposes, approximates market value.

15. Foreign Currencies

Edgar Filing: QEP CO INC - Form 10-K

The financial statements of subsidiaries outside the United States are generally measured using the local currency as the functional currency. Assets and liabilities recorded in foreign currencies on the books of foreign subsidiaries are translated at the exchange rate on the balance sheet date. Translation adjustments resulting from this process are charged or credited to equity. Revenues, costs, and expenses are translated at average rates of exchange prevailing during the year. Gains and losses on foreign currency transactions are included in operating expenses.

16. Revenue Recognition

Sales are recognized when merchandise is shipped and such revenue is recorded net of estimated sales returns, discounts and allowances. The Company establishes reserves for returns and allowances based on current and historical information and trends, sales and accounts receivable have been reduced by such amounts.

17. Shipping and Handling Costs

Shipping and handling costs are classified as a separate operational expense on the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Income.

18. Advertising Cost

Advertising costs are expensed in the period incurred except those costs which result in tangible assets, such as catalogs, which are treated as prepaid supplies and charged to operations as consumed.

19. Research and Development

Research and development costs are charged to expense in the period incurred.

20. Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, management is required to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The Company estimates an allowance for doubtful accounts based on the creditworthiness of its customers as well as general economic conditions. Consequently, an adverse change in those conditions could affect the Company's estimate.

21. Certain amounts in the fiscal year 2000 presentation have been reclassified to conform with the fiscal year 2001 presentation.

NOTE C - ACQUISITIONS

Acquisitions are accounted for as purchases and, accordingly, have been included in the Company's consolidated results of operations since the acquisition date.

Edgar Filing: QEP CO INC - Form 10-K

The purchase price is allocated based on the estimated fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed. Purchase price allocations are subject to refinement until all pertinent information regarding the acquisitions is obtained.

During fiscal 2001, the Company made three strategic acquisitions. The purchase price for these acquisitions, most of which were domestic companies, was approximately $2,800,000. The excess of aggregate purchase price over the fair market value of net assets acquired of approximately $500,000 is being amortized on a straight line basis over 20 years.

During fiscal 2000, the Company made six strategic acquisitions ("the Fiscal 2000 Acquisitions"). The purchase price for all of these acquisitions, the majority of which were international companies, was approximately $8,750,000. The excess of aggregate purchase price over the fair market value of net assets acquired of approximately $3,500,000 is being amortized on a straight line basis over 20 years.

The unaudited pro forma consolidation of the acquisitions occurring in fiscal 2000 and fiscal 2001 showing the results of operations assuming the above purchases occurred on either March 1, 1999 or March 1, 2000 are not material and are not included herein.

NOTE D - EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income, after deducting preferred stock dividends accumulated during the period, by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during each period. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing net income, after deducting preferred stock dividends accumulated during the period, by the weighted average number of shares of common and dilutive common stock equivalent shares outstanding during each period. Diluted common stock equivalent shares consist of stock options and warrant common stock equivalent shares which are not used when the effect is antidilutive. For the three years ended February 28, 2001, the weighted average number of basic shares of common stock outstanding amounted to 3,343,868 in 2001, 3,345,701 in 2000 and 3,318,618 in 1999. For the three years ended February 28, 2001 the weighted average number of diluted shares of common stock outstanding amounted to 3,368,818 in 2001, 3,364,668 in 2000 and 3,362,553 in 1999.

NOTE E - EQUITY

On June 6, 2000, the Board of Directors declared a five for four stock split of the Company's common stock, effected in the form of a stock dividend which was paid on August 1, 2000. As a result of this action, approximately 673,000 shares were issued to shareholders of record on July 17, 2000. Par value of the common stock remained at $0.001 per share and, accordingly, $673 was transferred from retained earnings to common stock.

For the three years ended February 28, 2001, the effect on earnings per share was a reduction of $0.11 in 2001, $0.24 in 2000 and $0.18 in 1999. All references to the number of common shares and per common share amounts have been restated to give retroactive effect to the stock split for all periods presented.

(A) The Company has a revolving credit and term loan facility agreement with a United States financial institution. This agreement, which was amended on April 5, 2001, provides for borrowings of up to $18,000,000 against a fixed percentage of eligible accounts receivable and inventory. Interest is payable based on a sliding scale depending on the Company's senior debt to EBITDA ranging from LIBOR plus 1.75% to LIBOR plus 2.5%. The facility terminates in July 2003 and is collateralized by substantially all of the Company's assets. Under the terms of the credit agreement, the Company is required to maintain certain financial ratios and conditions. The credit agreement also prohibits the Company from incurring certain additional indebtedness, limits certain investments, advances or loans and restricts substantial asset sales and capital expenditures. The terms of the Company's credit facility also prohibits the payment of dividends, except with the lender's consent. Prior to this amendment, the Company was allowed to borrow up to $16,500,000 based on the same fixed percentage of eligible accounts receivable and inventory. Interest was charged based on a sliding scale. As of February 28, 2001 interest was at LIBOR (5.53 at February 28, 2001) plus 1.75%. At February 28, 2001, the Company had $989,000 available for future borrowings under its then existing facilities, net of approximately $460,000 in outstanding letters of credit. If the new facility had been in place, the Company would have had $2,489,000 available. The Company's Chilean subsidiary has a revolving credit facility with a financial institution, which permits borrowings of up to $110,000 with interest at 18% per year. The facilities are secured by a standby letter of credit given by the Company. This facility expires on June 30, 2001. At February 28, 2001, the Chilean subsidiary had approximately $16,000 available for future borrowings under the credit facility. The Company's Australian subsidiary also has an overdraft facility, which allows it to borrow against a certain percentage of inventory and receivables. At February

Edgar Filing: QEP CO INC - Form 10-K

28, 2001 the maximum permitted borrowing was approximately $300,000 and was fully utilized.

- (B) In connection with the acquisition of Roberts, the Company issued $7,500,000 of subordinated debentures bearing an interest rate of 8%. During fiscal 2000, the Company repurchased approximately $1,229,000 of such debentures at a discount resulting in an extraordinary gain from early extinguishments of debt of approximately $181,000. The remaining bonds matured in April 2001 and were paid. On April 5, 2001, the Company entered into a new $4,500,000 subordinated credit facility with HillStreet Fund LP. This facility bears an interest rate of 15% and matures on April 5, 2007. Beginning July 1, 2005, the Company is required to make equal quarterly principal payments through April 5, 2007. The agreement also provides for an additional 3% interest if the Company does not meet certain financial covenants. In addition, the Company issued 325,000 10-year warrants at $3.63. These warrants can be put to the company on and after April 5, 2006 based on criteria set forth in the warrant agreement. In addition, the Company may call these warrants on and after April 5, 2007 based on the same criteria.
- (C) The original term loan is payable in equal quarterly installments over a seven year period. The loan is collateralized by substantially all of the assets of the Company. The interest rate varies based on conditions, as defined in the agreement and was approximately 8.2% at February 28, 2001. The balance of the term loan at February 28, 2001 and February 29, 2000 was $4,285,713 and $5,428,571, respectively. The Company obtained an additional term loan ("2001 Term Loan") from its primary lending institution, the proceeds of which were utilized to repay its subordinated debt which matured in April 2001. This loan in the amount of $1,500,000 is payable in equal quarterly installments, which commence July 1, 2001 and end on April 1, 2003. The interest rate for this loan is LIBOR plus 2.75% and is partially guaranteed by the Chairman and Chief Executive Office of the Company.
- (D) During fiscal 2001, the Company purchased the land and building from its then existing landlord where it operates in Bramalea, Ontario, Canada. The cost of the facility was approximately $1,000,000 of which the company obtained a mortgage in the approximate amount of $675,000 from a Canadian financial institution. This facility is payable in ten equal installments at 7.8% and is collateralized by the land and building. The facility also requires the Company to continue remediation efforts on the property as approved by the Canadian Ministry of Environment. See Note M.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

- (E) In connection with the acquisitions of certain newly acquired entities, the Company issued five notes to the respective sellers. During fiscal 2001, the Company issued a note for $1,600,000, payable in equal quarterly payments over a five-year period. The note bears an interest rate of 8%. As of February 28, 2001, the Company is obligated for two additional notes for prior year acquisitions. One, having an original balance of $900,000, is payable in equal annual installments over a three year period with interest at the Company's prevailing borrowing rate. The balance at February 28, 2001, is $600,000. The other note has a balance of $512,500 and is payable in two final installments of $312,500 and $200,000 in December 2001 and 2003 respectively.

Edgar Filing: QEP CO INC - Form 10-K

On December 23, 2000, the Company entered into an interest rate swap agreement with its primary lender. The interest rate swap agreement hedges the Company's exposure on certain floating rate obligations in the aggregate principal amount of $10,000,000. The purpose of the interest rate swap is to convert the Company's floating rate interest obligations to obligations having a fixed rate of 6.0% per annum for a one-year period. Prior to this interest rate swap, the Company had one with the same institution that matured in December 2000. The fixing of the interest rates reduces in part the Company's exposure to the uncertainty of floating interest rates. The differential paid or received by the Company on the interest rate swap agreement is recognized as an adjustment to interest expense in the period incurred. For the year ended February 28, 2001, the Company reduced interest expense by approximately $71,000 as a result of the interest rate swap agreements that were in place during that period. The Company is exposed to credit loss in the event of non-performance by any counter-party to the interest rate swap agreement. The Company does not anticipate rate non-performance by such lender, and no material loss would be expected from the non-performance of the lender.

Interest paid for all debt was approximately, $2,025,100, $1,486,000 and $1,391,000 in fiscal 2001, 2000 and 1999 respectively.

The Company has recorded its debt at February 28, 2001 as if the refinancing of the subordinated debt discussed in this footnote had taken place on February 28, 2001.

The aggregate maturities of all debt maturing during each of the next five years as of February 28, 2001 is as follows:

2. Roberts Consolidated Industries

The Company is subject to federal, state and local laws, regulations and ordinances governing activities or operations that may have adverse environmental effects, such as discharges to air and water, handling and disposal practices for solid, special and hazardous wastes, and imposing liability for the cost of cleaning up, and certain damages resulting from sites of past spills, disposal or other releases of hazardous substances (together, "Environmental Laws"). requiring remedial or other action which would involve a material expense to the Company, or expose the Company to material liability under Environmental Laws. As the operations of the Company involve the storage, handling, discharge and disposal of substances which are subject to regulation under Environmental Laws, there can be no assurance that the Company will not incur any material liability under Environmental Laws in the future or will not be required to expend funds in order to effect compliance with applicable Environmental Laws.

The Company has completed testing at its facility in Bramalea, Ontario, Canada for leakage of hazardous materials. As a result, in fiscal 1999 the Company prepared a plan to remediate the contamination over a period of years and this plan was subsequently approved by the Canadian Ministry of Environment (MOE). The Company recorded a reserve for potential environmental liability at the acquisition date of Roberts Consolidated Industries, Inc. of approximately $325,000 and this amount was increased during fiscal 1999 by $275,000 to $600,000 based on an estimate for the cost of remediation. To date, the Company has spent approximately $444,000 and anticipates spending the remainder on ongoing monitoring of wells and other environmental activity at the approximate rate of $20,000 per year for the next five to ten years.

Subsequent to the acquisition of Roberts, the Company terminated the Roberts Salaried Employees Defined Benefit Pension Plan. During fiscal 1999, the Company had an actuarial valuation prepared which adjusted this amount and goodwill by approximately $226,000. During fiscal 2001, the Plan distributed its remaining assets to its participants under a new defined contribution plan and, with the approval of regulatory authorities, the remainder reverted to the Company. This new defined contribution plan expects to distribute its assets to all participants in fiscal 2002. No pension expense was recorded in each of the three years ended February 28, 2001.

NOTE U - NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In 1998, Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 133, "Accounting of Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities," was issued and in June 2000, SFAS No. 138 was issued which awards and clarifies certain guidance in SFAS No. 133. These statements establish new accounting and reporting standards for derivative financial instruments and must be adopted no later than fiscal 2002. The statement requires all derivatives to be recognized as assets or liabilities on the balance sheet and measured at fair value. Changes in the fair value of derivatives should be recognized in either net income or other comprehensive income, depending on the designated purpose of the derivative. The Company must implement SFAS No. 133 by the first quarter of fiscal 2002. The Company has evaluated the requirements of SFAS No. 133 and adoption will not have a significant impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In September 2000, the Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") reached a final consensus on EITF Issue 00-10, "Accounting for shipping and handling costs and the related revenue. The Company adopted EITF 00-10 in fiscal 2001 and classifies all shipping and handling costs as a separate operational expense.

The EITF issued EITF 08-22, "Accounting for "Points" and Certain Other Time-Based or Volume-Based Sales Incentive Offers, and Offers for Free Products or Services to Be Delivered in the Future." This guidance requires that obligations for cash rebates offered to customers who achieve specified cumulative levels of revenue transactions be recognized as a reduction of revenue based on a systematic and rational allocation to each of the underlying revenue transactions that result in plain progress towards the rebate. The EITF also issued EITF 00-25, "Accounting for Consideration from a Vendor to a Retailer in Connection with the Purchase or Promotion of the Vendor's Products." This issue addresses when consideration from a vendor to a retailer (a) in connection with the retailer's purchase of the vendor's products or (b) to promote sales of the vendor's products by the retailer should be classified in the vendor's income statement as a reduction of revenue. The Company is required to adopt EITF No. 00-22 and 00-25 in the first quarter of 2002. The Company has reviewed the requirements and has determined that it is currently in compliance with the consensus and will not have a significant impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.
