On September 14, 2010, Value and Opportunity Advisors delivered a letter to the Board of Directors of the Issuer (the "Board") expressing its disappointment and concern regarding the poor margin performance in the Issuer's core Software business, management's decision to continue to operate the Issuer's non-core Servers and Storage business despite having received "several offers" for this business and senior management's lack of credibility due to their failure to follow through on commitments to shareholders over time.

The letter further called on the Board to hold management accountable for the Issuer's poor performance and to ensure that communication with shareholders is transparent and consistent.
